ARKANSANS GIVE UNIONS SWIFT KICK

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

HARRISON (Ark.) Jan. 18.—Virtually winding up its work of investigating the depredations on railroad property which are said to have occurred the past two years and recently reached such proportions as to cause officials to threaten the suspension of operation of the Missouri and North Arkansas Railway, the "committee of 1000" and the "citizens' court" tonight issued a statement making known for the first time the result of their efforts. According to the announcement, the committee and court will prepare evidence collected for presentation to the State courts and the legislative committee appointed by Gov. McRae yesterday to investigate the riots on the railway and the lynching here of C. E. Gregor, an asserted striker, who was hanged Tuesday from a trestle.

The statement issued by the self-appointed tribunal says in part:

"We welcome the visit of the legislative committee; we are congratulating ourselves on having wound up this situation with a minimum of tragedy and unpleasantness. What the civil court authorities were unable to handle in or whatever form of activity Washington or Downing street might think up would be unwelcome to the Quai d'Orsay, at least until the situation has crystallised further. As Premier Poincare indicated earlier in the week, France may be quite willing to offer to engage in pourparlers with Germany, but the moment is not yet indicated.

French leaders already are considering that the Ruhr movement cannot soon or greatly result in economic gain. Premier Poincare's 1,000,000,000 francs a year certainly seems to have gone glimmering. Therefore, the character of the occupation has already changed from an economic to a military penalty on Germany. And

MURDER GANGSTER IDENTIFIED AT MER ROUGE KLAN TRIAL

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

BASTROP (La.) Jan. 18.—Testimony as to the identity of one member of the masked band which on August 24 kidnaped Watt Daniel, T. F. Richards and several others, was offered today at the open hearing being conducted here by the State of Louisiana into the operations of hooded men in Morehouse parish. The mutilated bodies of Daniel and Richards were found several weeks ago floating on the surface of Lake La Fourche.

Pathologists reported the two men had been tortured to death before their bodies were thrown into the lake. Other members of the kidnaped party have testified to having been flogged by the kidnapers.

Fred Eubanks testified he was held up by masked men on the Bastrop-Mer Rouge highway that evening and that he recognized Newt Gray as a member of the party.

Much of the testimony both yesterday and today centered about Gray and his counsel stated certain questions put to him while on the stand Tuesday and Wednesday bordered on the "third degree" variety. Judge Fred M. Odom ruled that Gray need not answer any question that might tend to incriminate him.

Gray's first appearance on the stand was Tuesday. He testified that he was notified by William Higgingotham, a planter residing near Mer Rouge, that he had received a warning letter August 24, the day a baseball game and a barbecue were held here. It was decided that if any attempt were to be made on Higginbotham's life it would occur that night and Gray said he volunteered to go to the Higginbotham home to act as a guard.

Gray said his wife and members of his family were at the baseball

PLAZA DEPOT WRIT DENIED

Supreme Court Gives No Reason for Action on Petition; Carry Fight to High Tribunal

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 18.—A petition requesting a rehearing of the Los Angeles Plaza Terminal case was denied today by the California Supreme Court, with no reason given for its action.

The petition was presented by Richard Sachse, chief engineer of the State Railroad Commission, who acted for the city of Los Angeles. It is understood the commission now will carry the fight for the unified terminal to the Interstate Commerce Commission, requesting an order directing the Southern Pacific, Santa Fe, Union Pacific and Pacific Electric railroads to join in building a union terminal.

This decision was reached by the commission in December last after the State Supreme Court had ruled that the commission had exceeded its authority in ordering a terminal built on the Plaza site. The order on which the Supreme Court ruled was issued by the commission several months ago, and it directed the railroad companies to build a $34,000,000 terminal.

EARLY HEARING SOUGHT

In the appeal to the Interstate Commerce Commission, the State Railroad Commission will present a complete record of the case, including elaborate traffic studies and other data prepared by State and city forces which have been working together for the unified terminal. The interstate body will be requested to give the case precedence on their calendar.

In their order, ruled against by the State Supreme Court, the commission contended that it had the power to order the terminal built because such a terminal was an indispensable element in the elimination of grade crossings.

The railroads' attorneys fought the order, questioning the commission's power, and the State Supreme Court declared it could see no indispensable relation between the elimination of grade crossings and the establishment of union terminal facilities which would prevent the Interstate Commerce Commission from exercising jurisdiction in the elimination of grade crossings consistently and concurrently with the exercise of its authority over union terminal facilities, which was vested in the In-

MEMBER IS JAILED FOR ROBBERIES

Baffling robberies at the Y.M.C.A., extending over several weeks and causing hundreds of dollars in losses to members of the institution, were brought to an end yesterday, officials declared, by the arrest of Eugene Fuller. Fuller, a member of the institution, was arrested by Burns operatives who have been working on the mystery for several weeks. He is charged with suspicion of grand larceny.

Fuller's arrest follows a vigilance of detectives and Y.M.C.A. officials that seemed to be baffled by the cleverness with which the thief operated in the locker rooms of the building, and repeated complaints of members that their valuables were taken, seemingly under the eyes of the officers, caused a redoubled watch to be placed at all hours of the day.

According to Physical Director Reynolds of the association, alterations which have been in progress in the locker rooms have made it difficult to place a thorough check on the movements of members and this has aided the thief in his operations. The robberies have been accomplished, it is asserted, by the theft of keys from members and subseqent pilfering of lockers while owners were in the plunge or gymnasium. Four robberies recently reported totaled a loss of $200 in cash and four watches.

Fuller, who is 24 years of age, gave his occupation as a laborer.

Late News

Poison Fatal to One

Botulinus poisoning, the most deadly known to scientists, caused the mysterious death Sunday night of Mrs. Myrtle Humphries of 1239 Trenton street. Three other women who attended a luncheon of the four Friday have developed the same symptoms and one is seriously ill. Mrs. Myrtle Smith of 1142 Bonnie Beach avenue is seriously ill and the other two women are Mrs. Frieda Daniels of 1350 Georgia street and Mrs. Helen Janetsky of 1423 West Fourth street. The luncheon was given by Mrs. Janetsky at her home Friday noon. The next morning Mrs. Humphries complained of double vision and slight weakness, but no physician was called. Sunday morning she was very weak and complained of trouble in speaking and swallowing. Early in the afternoon a physician was summoned, but could not determine the cause of her illness. At 11 o'clock that night she died.

Health department representatives learned that parts of the salad fed to the Janetsky chickens had resulted in the death of one and the development of limberneck in several others. Limberneck in chickens is caused by the botulinus poisoning.

Wobblies Sentenced

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 18.—Prison sentences of from one to fourteen years were imposed today on ten self-admitted members of the Industrial Workers of the World convicted in the Superior Court here recently of violating the California Criminal Syndicalism Act. The men were convicted on their third trial, two juries disagreeing. Following sentencing of the men, W. F. Herron and S. Luke Howe, attorneys for the defense, served notice that an appeal would be taken. Those sentenced were Charles B. LaRue, Pete Beazley, William Rutherford, Thomas O'Mara, John rancis Nash, H. M. Edwards, Andrew E. Anderson, B. Kyler and Tom Zanger.

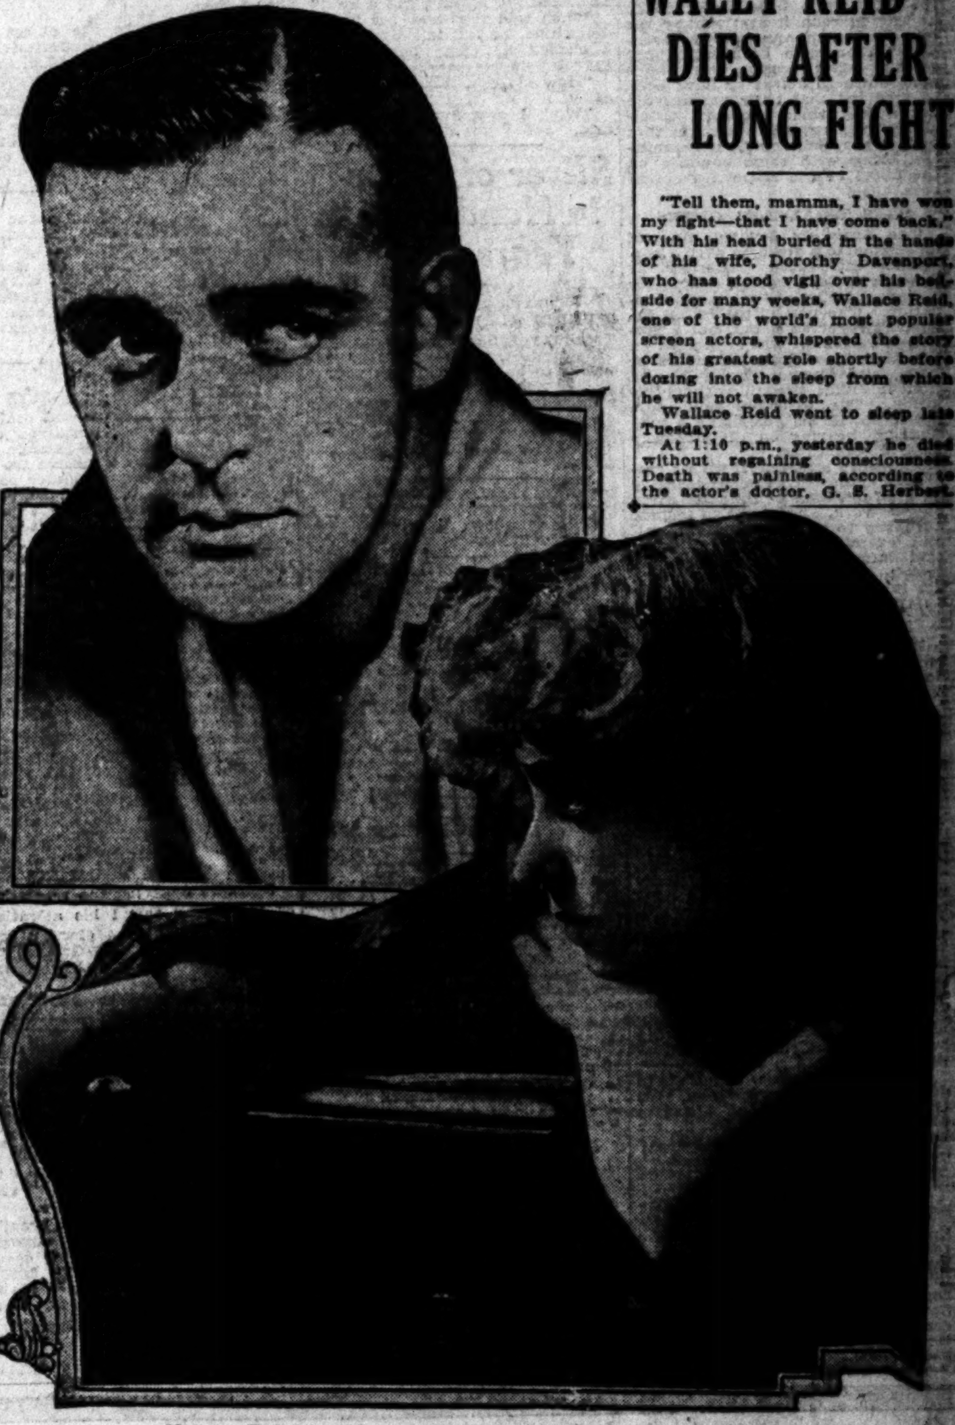
Robbed for Third Time

Three armed men in a touring car held up and robbed T. R. Means of the Melrose Hotel, 120 South Grand avenue, last night as he alighted from his own car near the entrance to the hotel. The bandits took $30 in cash, an $800 diamond ring and a watch valued at $200, according to Means's report to the police. His companion, Miss Josephine Ybarra, was not molested by the men, who hastened away in their car after the robbery. This is Means's third adventure with bandits in a year, he told the police.

Rumania Mobilizing

CONSTANTINOPLE, Jan. 18.—A report, which has not been confirmed, has been received that Rumania has mobilized eight classes, five of which will be sent to the Bessarabian front, where there are now twenty regiments facing the Bolshevik concentration, and three have been ordered to join the colors within twenty-four hours in the Dobrudja district on the Bulgar frontier. Dispatches from Sofia declare that martial law has been proclaimed on all Rumanian frontiers.

Dead Screen Idol and His Widow



Wallace Reid and Mrs. Reid, Dorothy Davenport of the Films

WALLY REID DIES AFTER LONG FIGHT

"Tell them, mamma, I have won my fight—that I have come back." With his head buried in the hands of his wife, Dorothy Davenport, who has stood vigil over his bedside for many weeks, Wallace Reid, one of the world's most popular screen actors, whispered the story of his greatest role shortly before dozing into the sleep from which he will not awaken.

Wallace Reid went to sleep late Tuesday.

At 1:10 p.m., yesterday he died without regaining consciousness. Death was painless, according to the actor's doctor, G. S. Herbert. He died at the Banksia Place Sanatorium in Hollywood, where he has been waging his fight to regain health after breaking the alcohol and narcotic habits.

Reid was aware of the approach of death. Knowledge that he had wasted away from 150 pounds weight to 120 pounds; the six weeks' confinement during which time the best of medical skill fought to rally him from his sinking condition, told the once light-hearted and smiling film actor that the end was near at hand.

HIS WIFE FAITHFUL

During the days and nights when his wife was sitting by the side of his bed holding his hands or stroking his head, telling him that "soon you will be all right, Wally dear, and we'll go home, and then everything will be great again," Reid knew and understood that that was what a wife or mother was made for.

In one of his last talks with his wife, whom he has affectionately called "Mama" since the birth of their son, Billie, Reid asked that his body be cremated.

This was Wally's last wish; and it will be granted.

Wallace Reid wanted not only his Hollywood friends, but the whole world to know he had conquered the drug habit.

Hollywood knows he has come back. But it's a different kind of come-back. The smile and laugh are gone.

FUNERAL SATURDAY

Wally has come back to Hollywood, come back to a place just two blocks from the old set over on the Lasky lot, where he worked for many happy years. His body was carried to the Strother & Dayton Undertaking Parlors at dusk last night. The parlors are at Hollywood Boulevard and Argyle street, just around the corner from the Lasky studios.

Funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon at an Episcopal church under the auspices of the local chapter of Elks, of which Mr. Reid was an active member. The exact Episcopal church has not been selected. The funeral will be open to the public, according to an announcement from the Reid home late last night.

Dr. Herbert issued the following notice shortly after the actor passed away:

"Wallace Reid died at 1:10 p.m., at the Banksia Place Sanatorium.

REID WANTED TO DIRECT

Dead Actor's Ambitions Lay in Lines Leading Away From Work Which Made Him Famous

Death robbed Wallace Reid of the cherished ambition of his career. He wanted to be a director. The role of actor was repugnant to him. He desired to create, not imitate.

He confided his ambition to Sam Woods, the Lasky director, and to a newspaper man shortly before he left the studio for the last time. The filming of "Thirty Days," his last farce comedy, lately given its premiere here, was drawing to a close.

"I never wanted to be an actor," he said bitterly. "I don't want to be an actor. The promoters liked the shape of my nose, or something and I was powerless to do what I wanted to do."

"But I can tell you this. They're not going to get away with it," Reid emphatically declared as he savagely knocked the ashes from his pipe.

"They're not going to ruin my life the way they ruined my father's.

SON OF HAL REID

"My father was Hal Reid, author of melodramas. He could have been a great playwright but they wouldn't let him. Some of the box office boys got him to write a lurid "mellerdramer" and it made a hit. After that they would never take anything else from him. If he tried to write a real play they screamed bloody murder.

"Just so they ignored my desire to be a director. They put me on as an actor and made money out of me. Thereafter I was doomed. Play-acting for mine!

"But I'll show 'em! Whether they like it or not one of these days I'll be able to do as I like and that will be the end of my acting days," was his emphatic conclusion.

ACTOR'S START

Wally's handsome face and stalwart physique kept him before the camera's eye. His rise to first place among the so-called motion-picture heroes came overnight. The fight scene in "The Birth of a Nation," his savage battle with several powerful men will go down in motion-picture history as epo-

DEMISE OF STAR JOLTS FILM RANKS

Mary Pickford and Douglas Fairbanks Pay Tribute to Wallace Reid

All ranks of the motion-picture industry were shaken by Wallace Reid's demise. Everyone last night was hoping that some fitting tribute would be paid at the occasion of the last rites for the star who has passed.

"I am terribly sorry for Mrs. Reid. It is a great loss for her, even greater than it is for the industry. There should be some recognition by all of the motion-picture producers, of Wally's greatness and worth to the industry," Douglas Fairbanks said last night.

Mr. Fairbanks's condolences to the departed star's family were echoed by his wife, Mary Pickford.

"I, too, feel it is a great loss to the picture industry. My sympathy goes to his mother and his wife. I've been depressed all afternoon by Wally's demise. I always will remember him as a charming, simple boy whom I knew on the Lasky lot four years ago," Mrs. Fairbanks said.

BOX PLANT BURNED

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

MARTINEZ, Jan. 18. — The Bay Point Box and Manufacturing Company plant at Bay Point, near here, was destroyed by fire today with an estimated loss of $75,000. The fire is believed to have started from an overheated motor.

NORTH FIGHTS APPORTIONMENT

Los Angeles Men Intend to Force Issue

Gasoline Price Sifting is Given Setback

Both Houses Expected to Adjourn Today

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 18.—The Forty-Fifth Legislature of the State of California decided against an immediate investigation of the price of gasoline as related to the cost of production; and in unofficial sessions a group composed of the San Francisco delegation and certain country members decided against any reapportionment legislation, while another group composed of Los Angeles members decided with equal firmness that it would insist on reapportionment.

These were the chief features of the day, while bills continued to appear in each house; among the bills were numerous "hardy perennials" that have been introduced session after session, and have gone down to defeat or have been so modified that their passage did not satisfy their sponsors. There also were many new measures that will, if they emerge from committee, bring with them contests on the floors of the respective chambers.

"GAS WRANGLE" OPENS

The Assembly devoted most of its session to a wrangle over a resolution introduced yesterday by Dawson of Los Angeles, calling for an investigation of the gasoline situation. The committee on oil industries reported it out, but a motion to recommit was supported on the floor by a dozen members or more, and Dawson finally agreed that it might prevail without division. The objectors said more notice should be given and a preliminary hearing on the necessity held in committee.

They also said that if such a resolution came out, it ought to carry an appropriation of funds to carry on the work, and ought to include authority to the committee to call and examine witnesses. Dawson said later that he would either seek to amend the resolution and get it out, or would offer another on the same lines.

REAPPORTIONMENT UP

Both houses adjourned after the morning sessions until tomorrow, and then the legislators began to caucus on reapportionment. The net result of the numerous meetings was unofficially stated to have been a firm determination on the part of the San Francisco delegation, and a group of country district representatives, to stand against reapportionment; while the Los Angeles group, which would add to its numbers if reapportionment carried, took an equally firm stand in favor of trying to get it.

Bromley of Los Angeles, chairman of the motor vehicle committee, introduced a new skeleton Motor Vehicle Act, and Fellom of San Francisco introduced a skeleton reapportionment bill. Both of these were explained by their authors as insurance against the possible defeat of the other bills on the subject, so that something would be available as a working basis, if needed, after the constitutional recess.

Both houses were expected to adjourn about noon tomorrow, over the week-end. Speaker Merriam planned to go to Long Beach, his home, to attend a meeting there Saturday night.

FOR ROAD BONDS

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CHICAGO, Jan. 18. — The Illinois Board of Highway Advisors today in session here adopted a resolution urging the Legislature to submit to the voters a good roads bond issue of $100,000,000 payable out of the automobile license fund, both principal and interest, to supplement the 1918 $60,000,000 bond issue.

"HOCKS" HIS DOGS, KEEPS OUT OF JAIL

Worry About Escaping Bastile Gone; Now Bull Pups on His Mind

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 18.—Life is tinged dark indigo blue for Robert Morris, recent Los Angeles visitor in San Francisco.

Today, for the first time in a week, he stopped worrying about going to jail—only to start worrying about getting his bulldogs out of "hock."

While in San Francisco, Morris got cash on a check for $100 at a hotel where he was a guest. After he left for the South the check came back marked "N. S. F." The hotel notified John Flammer of the Burns Detective Agency here, who communicated with Los Angeles operatives. Morris was located yesterday at 2 p.m. and informed that if the check was not covered in an hour a warrant would be issued.

"But how do I raise the money?" he asked. "I haven't got a sou!"

When told that was for him to determine, he left in despair. At 3 o'clock he came back with a $100 bill in his hand.

"How did you raise it?" he was asked.

"Well, I own five bulldogs," he said, "and I put them in pawn."

Sliver of Glass in Hand Sixteen Years Removed

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

PARIS (Ill.) Jan. 18.—Harry Trogdon of Sandford, Ind., was brought to the Paris Hospital yesterday to be treated for an abscess in his right hand. The surgeons removed a sliver of plate glass half an inch long and a fourth of an inch thick which had been imbedded for sixteen years in the tissues.

SCHOONER SAILORS TO RECEIVE RAISE

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 18. — Sailors working on steam schooners affiliated with the Shipowners' Association of the Pacific, are to be given a wage increase of $10 a month beginning February 1, while waiters and cooks are to be raised $5 a month, on the same date, it was announced today by the association.

The association members operate 95 per cent of the steam schooners in coastwise trade.

OSAGE OIL LEASES REALIZE MILLIONS

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

PAWHUSKA (Okla.) Jan. 18.—Hundreds of oil men and other persons interested gathered here today for the twentieth periodical sale of Osage Indian oil leases.

The sale is expected to net the Indians more than $8,000,000 and bring the total of their bonuses for oil and gas leases approximately to $70,000,000.

Socialistic Propaganda Seen in Jones Resolution

Repudiated Water and Power Act Rears Head

Senate to Sift Election Expense Accounts

BY KYLE D. PALMER

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 18.—A scheme to have the Legislature revive the $500,000,000 water and power act repudiated by the people in the last general election was revealed in the State Senate today when, following several hours of oratory and senatorial recrimination, a resolution was adopted calling for an investigation of expenditures by organizations supporting or opposing initiatory measures submitted to the people November 7, last.

It is said to be the object of those behind the resolution to raise a general outcry over campaign expenditures and attempt to persuade legislators that the more than three to one defeat of the half billion dollar water and power scheme resulted from the expenditure of a campaign fund raised by the corporations and not from popular condemnation of the socialistic plan.

The frayed and worn slogan of "progressive" against "reactionary" is playing its usual part in the program of the State ownership group and it appears that a veritable orgy of sanctified, self-righteous prearranged horror is soon to be indulged in by "progressive" legislators who pose that they desire to save the people from themselves.

MONEY VOTED FOR QUIZ

Campaign managers and others connected with organizations directly interested in the passage or defeat of initiatory measures are to be subpoenaed, placed under oath and required to testify relative to campaign contributions and expenditures. A Senate committee of five, probably headed by Senator Jones, author of the resolution, will be appointed by Lieut.-Gov. Young to conduct the hearings, to pay the cost of which an appropriation of $3000 was voted.

The investigation will be conducted under the guise of a movement to protect the initiative and to enforce the Eden Act of 1921, requiring organizations spending more than $1000 in sponsoring or opposing initiatory propositions to file a financial statement with the Secretary of State. Failure of those opposing the $500,000,000 water and power measure to file such a statement furnished the State ownership faction in the Legislature with sufficient pretext for demanding a legislative inquiry.

PUBLICITY THE IDEA

Senators opposing the resolution of Mr. Jones called his attention to the fact that the election law requires the Attorney-General to prosecute any individual or organization properly charged with violation of the initative statute and that a fine of $1000 is provided, whereupon he frankly admitted that his real object in seeking passage of the resolution is not prosecution and conviction, but publicity.

With nothing except speculation and imagination to back up such charges, self-proclaimed "progressives" are asserting that the corporations spent from $1,000,000 to $3,000,000 to defeat the water and power scheme.

Such charges are apparently made in anticipation of adverse criticism of the huge sums spent by the proponents of the $500,000,000 project—a report on file in the office of Secretary of State Jordan showing that those who unsuccessfully attempted to put over the paternalistic scheme collected and expended approximately three times as much money as the supporters and opponents of any of the other measures on the ballot.

SPRECKELS REPORT

The report, signed by Rudolph Spreckels, San Francisco banker, included "paying progressives" and the "paid Progressives."

In the first class Mr. Spreckels himself is pre-eminent, from a financial standpoint, as he donated a total of $106,825.11 to the water and power act campaign fund. Dr. John R. Haynes of Los Angeles sunk $13,598.72 in the venture and a large number of others lesser amounts.

Franklin Hichborn, who is a "Dry Progressive," and one of the most purified champions of the people, appears as both a "paying progressive" and a "paid progressive," in the voluminous report submitted by Mr. Spreckels, as it appears that he donated at least $30 to the cause and received in two items, one for $5569.96 and one for $677.27, a total of $6247.23 Obviously, in the case of Mr. Hichborn, "progressivism" is a paying proposition.

Another "progressive" appearing in the somewhat well-paid class is Dr. Horace Porter, former Mayor of Riverside, who received respectively, $2888.54 and $571.40 for his "progressive" fight on the rapacious reactionaries. A member of the State Senate and a member of the Assembly also appear on the list.

Van Nuys Man, Hurrying in Fog, crashes Into Train Near Santa Monica

[By a Times Staff Correspondent.]

SANTA MONICA, Jan. 18. Driving thirty-five miles an hour through a dense fog William B. Allington of 202 Calvert street, Van Nuys, failed early today to see a freight train near the Santa Monica city limits, drove into it, and survived.

The force of the smash was so great that several of the six cars composing the train were derailed, one of them being knocked six feet. Allington, with possible internal injuries, was taken to St. Martin's Hospital. Earl Jones, a passenger, bit his tongue nearly off and has possible internal injuries also.

STATE BUILDING FOR LOS ANGELES URGED

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 18.—A State building for Los Angeles, similar to the one nearing completion in San Francisco, is sought in a bill introduced today by Senator Charles H. V. Lewis, of the Southern city. He asks an appropriation of $2500 to defray the cost of an issue of State bonds to provide a fund for erection of the building.

His plan calls for creation of a commission to acquire a site and to have supervision over construction of the structure. The amount of the bond issue would be determined later.

PALO VERDE BILL PASSED BY SENATE

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 18.—The first bill to pass either house went through the Senate today on an unanimous vote, and now goes to the Assembly. It was an urgency measure to correct some purported flaws in the law relating to the issuance of levee and joint levee district bonds and was passed for the benefit of the Palo Verde Valley.

The valley was flooded a year ago and new levees are under construction. When attorneys found a flaw, it threatened the work by delaying payment for the bonds. Delay would have meant the loss of this year's crop.

WANTS BIBLE PUT BACK INTO SCHOOLS

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 18.—A constitutional amendment and a bill which taken together would, if adopted, restore the Bible to its former place in the public school curriculum, will be offered in the Assembly tomorrow by Williams of LeGrand, who is a minister.

The constitutional amendment would add a clause to section eight of article nine of the constitution, which would, in effect, prevent the use of the Bible for sectarian instruction, but permit its use as literary material.

CHECK STEALER IS GIVEN PRISON TERM

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

YUMA, Jan. 18.—After being out almost sixteen hours the jury in the trial of Alva E. Smith, charged with embezzling $3400 worth of travelers' checks from the Valley Bank of Parker, Ariz., today returned a verdict of guilty. Judge Lockwood sentenced Smith to serve from seven to ten years in the State Penitentiary, the sentence to run concurrently with a sentence for the same length of time imposed recently when Smith was convicted on another charge in connection with the operation of the Bank of Parker.

DECREE IS PREPARING FOR BANK OF MEXICO

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

MEXICO CITY, Jan. 18.—Both branches of Congress having approved the administration measure creating the Bank of Mexico, the government-controlled institution, which is to be the sole bank of Emission, President Obregon is preparing a decree formally announcing the policy of the bank. Allowing three months for preparatory work, it is expected in financial circles that the bank will begin functioning the latter part of April.

HARRISON GIVES KICK TO UNIONS

Labor is Taught Lesson in Rail Strike Fight

Citizens Take Hold and Clean Up Situation

Bring on Your Committee, is Word to Governor

the past two years the citizens have accomplished in two days' time.

"Some men who have suffered from the strike are still more or less 'hard boiled' but they are few in number and the people of the entire region are ready to forget and forgive animosities."

For the first time the Harrison Rotary Club today discussed the situation and adopted a resolution unanimously indorsing the work of the "citizens' court" and the "committee of 1000." Prior to the adoption of the resolution a Harrison groceryman told the club he believed he had made a serious mistake and desired to prove himself in the future as "100 per cent for Harrison and up to the standard of Rotary ideals."

Another merchant of Harrison, in talking before the club, said the strikers were so heavily in debt to him and he knew of other merchants of the town it would have ruined if they had openly opposed the strike. Another merchant said he had $1800 in charge accounts against men out on strike and he had succeeded in getting $1000 of it.

It was explained today that the "citizens' committee" in working was a clearinghouse and will continue for a few days more. The committee's activities consisted in the main of questioning persons brought before it.

If a person haled before the commission is found satisfactory the committee puts its "OK" on him and a white ribbon is pinned on the witness's coat.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—A demand for protection of the striking shop workers of the Missouri and North Arkansas Railroad at Harrison, Ark., whose activities have come under the ban of a "committee of 1000" raised in the surrounding country, was telegraphed today to Gov. McRae of that State by W. H. Johnston, president of the International Association of Machinists. Members of that union, the message asserted, "are being wantonly and cruelly maltreated by a mob in the city of Harrison," and the Governor was charged with allowing the situation to continue.

Missouri and North Arkansas strikers, the message said, have been charged with setting fire to bridges and other structures belonging to the railroad, but machinists' union officials consider this to be due to defective locomotive fire boxes. Records of the Interstate Commerce Commission would show, it was claimed, that fires had started along the road from this cause and the Governor was asked to make an investigation.

ST. LOUIS (Mo.) Jan. 18.—The Post Dispatch, in a dispatch from a staff correspondent at Harrison, Ark., this afternoon states that newspapermen have been denied the privilege of interviewing Circuit Judge J. W. Shinn or Mayor J. L. Clutes of Harrison, about activities of the vigilance committee, a spokesman telling reporters that there was only "one side to write about."

The correspondent adds that the spokesman "enjoined the reporters not to go about interviewing men who had been whipped or removed from office and that the committee would hold to strict account any reported who wrote anything to cast a blight 'upon the fair name of Harrison'."

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CHICAGO, Jan. 18.—Warren S. Stone, grand chief of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, declared tonight that an "absolute censorship prevails at Harrison, Ark."

Mr. Stone said union officials had been unable to get any reports from their representatives there on the lynching of one striking railroad man and the whipping of several others.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

LITTLE ROCK (Ark.) Jan. 18. Gov. McRae late today assured officials of railway shopcrafts through Warren S. Stone, grand chief of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, that conditions along the route of the Missouri and North Arkansas Railway again are normal and that the authorities are in control of the situation.

The Governor gave this information in a telegram to Mr. Stone, replying to one from the labor leader stating that his information was that "the State is doing nothing to stop the depredations."

LEADERS PLANNING NEW SHIP BILL FIGHT

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—Administration leaders in the Senate are planning to redouble their efforts to secure passage of the administration shipping bill now sidetracked for farm credits legislation.

Chairman Jones of the Commerce Committee, in charge of the bill, was in conference today with Chairman Lasker of the Shipping Board and it was indicated afterward that as soon as the credit program is out of the way, strong pressure will be brought to bear to complete consideration of the shipping measure before Congress quits on March 4.

Those opposed to the bill, however, reiterated their predictions that it never would be brought to a vote.

PACKING-HOUSES ALL WORKING ON NAVELS

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

POMONA, Jan. 18.—All seven packing houses of the San Antonia Fruit Exchange, which markets practically all the citrus fruits grown in this valley, are in operation today. More than twenty cars of oranges have been shipped this week, Reginald Knox, manager of the exchange stated today.

Shipments will be increased steadily until the height of the navel season when the associations will be turning out as high as 250 cars per week.

game and after his wife refused to let anyone but himself drive her home, he returned to Bastrop and asked Rufus Eubanks, a youth, to take the other members of his family. He said it had been arranged prior to leaving Bastrop that Thomas Higginbotham was to pick him up on the highway and take him to William Higginbotham's home.

Thomas Higginbotham failed to appear and he walked to the home of William Eldridge. While sitting on the Eldridge porch, automobiles loaded with masked men and also a truck passed by. He declared he saw the caravan, but did not notice the number plates of the cars.

Gray declared Thomas Higginbotham picked him up later and took him to William Higginbotham's home where he stood guard until about midnight when Thomas Higginbotham took him to his own home. Gray was on the stand more than two hours and was subjected to a barrage of questions.

A newspaper dispatch Wednesday said that Gray was one of four men who would be identified as members of the kidnaping band. He was recalled to the stand at the opening of court, but his attorney objected to his testifying further on the ground that he had been placed in a suspicious light as a result of the newspaper article.

Thomas and William Higginbotham later were called and both corroborated Gray's testimony.

STORY DISPUTED

Rufus Eubanks today testified that he had been asked by Gray to drive Gray's family home as Gray wanted to stay in Bastrop to attend to some business. Eubanks said that Gray drove the machine out on the Bastrop highway and turned it over to him at or about 200 yards from where Daniel, Richards, W. C. Andrews, "Tot" Davenport and J. L. Daniel were kidnaped. He said Gray got out of the machine about half an hour before the kidnaping occurred and that he drove back to Bastrop to pick up Gray's family and took them home.

Fred Eubanks, who testified that he had known Gray well for more than four years and resided within half a mile of Gray's home, told of being held up on the Bastrop highway near where Rufus Eubanks said he had dropped Gray. He said the kidnappers wore black hoods, and named Newt Gray as one of his abductors.

Rufus Eubanks, recalled at the afternoon session and questioned concerning his drive from Bastrop, said he passed Thomas Higginbotham's car on the highway and that Higginbotham was alone. Both Gray and Thomas Higginbotham previously stated that Gray was in Higginbotham's car at that time enroute to William Higginbotham's home.

Dean Ashcraft, field manager for the Southern Carbon Company at Spyker, in the course of his testimony, made the first statement tending to establish an alibi for T. J. Burnett, former Morehouse deputy sheriff, now under arrest on a charge of murder in connection with the deaths of Daniel and Richards.

Ashcraft was a boarder at the home of Burnett, at Spyker. Brunett, he said, had attended the baseball game and barbecue in Bastrop on August 24, and returned to Spyker before 7 o'clock that evening. When Ashcraft saw him brunett had donned his working clothing, which were kept in the bath-house. The fact that Burnett had them on, he said, was proof that he already had been to the plant.

Questions put to witnesses today clearly indicated the State is "feeling around" in the hope that something may be developed unexpectedly.

Even the so-called "torture machine" with which the bodies of Daniel and Richards are supposed to have been broken and bruised came into the interrogation in an indirect manner. T. B. Pratt, Jr., was questioned about the equipment of the small sawmill operated by his father and himself, the length of the carriage upon which logs were sawed, the kind of "dogs" used to hold the logs in place on the carriage, how many teetch the "dogs" had and what kind of a log loader is used.

Harlie Rogers, night watchman at the Carbon Plant, also was among today's witnesses. He was identified during the latter part of last week by Harry Neelis, former Bastrop garage man, as having, with T. J. Burnett, held him up on the Bastrop-Mer Rouge road August 17.

Neelis said he was on his way to Mer Rouge when he was stopped by Rogers and Burnett, who at the time were unmasked.

The garage owner testified that after Burnett and Rogers arrived with him on the scene, they put on their black hoods and joined the band. Neelis said he was detained for about thirty minutes.

Rogers was questioned concerning the kidnaping of Richards on August 17. He denied having been with Burnett at any time on the Bastrop-Mer Rouge road and only knew Richard when he saw him on the streets of Bastrop.

Rogers admitted he was a Klansman and while he did not know Watt Daniel personally he had heard reports that Daniel was a "bootlegger" and "gambler."

HARDING RECOVERING FROM GRIP ATTACK

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Jan 18.—President Harding was reported tonight by Brig.-Gen. Sawyer, his physician, to be making favorable progress toward recovery from the attack of the grip with which he has been suffering for the last few days. Dr. Sawyer said, however, he deemed it a bit inadvisable for the President to go to his office tomorrow, and had advised him to stick pretty close to his room.

The President remained in his room today and was said to have rested reasonably well.

Can't Confirm Report Addict Treated Here

Confirmation of the report that Mrs. Helen Spencer, now dying in a San Francisco hospital from self-administered poison, was a former inmate of a Los Angeles "dope" sanitorium, was lacking last night.

The information was given by a Chicago man who met Mrs. Spencer in San Francisco in November. He declared she told him she had taken a "dope cure" here, for which she paid $2500, and that during her stay in the sanitorium drugs had been sold to her.

Mrs. Spencer swallowed poison in the lobby of the Plaza Hotel after Roland V. Oliver, Oakland manufacturer, had refused to see her. Oliver later asserted that the woman had been trying to blackmail him.

Attendants at the San Francisco Hospital yesterday said today that Mrs. Spencer was not expected to live.

AMERICAN PROMOTED REBELLION

Boston Banker Visiting His Parents in Memel Gave $200 to Start Uprising

[BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

MEMEL, Jan. 18.—How an American citizen visiting his parents in Lithuania stated the peasant uprising resulting in the capture of the entire Memel district,, was told to the Times representative today.

Anthony Ivas, 36 years of age, a resident of Boston for nineteen years, arrived in Lithuania three months ago determined to "have a good time." Ivas, who is president of the Baltic-States Financial Corporation of Boston, also intended to investigate trade possibilities in Lithuania.

Ivas recreation consisted of a speech-making tour and collecting some friends in the Lithuania Parliament. Then he found trade was impossible in Lithuania because the country had no seaport.

"At a meeting of Lithuanian residents of Memel six weeks ago I made a speech asking why they did not get control of the district," Ivas said. "They said they were broke. I said 'Here is 1,000,000 marks,' which actually is $100, and suggested an organization of relief committees to work for independence.

"After speaking in Lithuania a few weeks on prohibition in Memel, I returned to the Memel district and found committees organised in every town. I donated an additional 1,000,000 marks and assisted in organizing a little Lithuanian government and also volunteer detachments. I was greatly assisted by Stanislaus Darius, a Chicagoan, who fought in the World War as an aviater, who had returned to Lithuania to visit his family."

COMMISSION HEARS RAIL MERGER PLAN

OFFICIALS URGE UNION OF GREAT NORTHERN AND MIDWAUKEE

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18. — Advantageous aspects of a possible merger of the Great Northern and Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railroads were portrayed before the Interstate Commerce Commission today by general officials of the Northern Pacific system. At the same time the witnesses maintained the position that public and corporate interests best would be served if the commission could find it possible to include the Great Northern, Northern Pacific and Chicago, Burlington and Quincy roads in one great system. The issues involved have been brought up by the commission's investigations into a plan for general consolidation of all the railroads in the United States into eighteen or nineteen systems, as authorized by the Transportation Act.

FEDERATION COMMITTEE ON FOREIGN RELATIONS CONCLUDES SESSIONS

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.— The committee of 100 on foreign relations of the National Civic Federation concluded its initial two-day conference today with instructions to its executive committee to commend the Secretary of State for his "tactful efforts" for peace in Europe and to conduct an immediate investigation of propaganda of "foreign governments or organizations" in this country.

Alton B. Parker, who presided, announced he would name the executive committee and call it in session probably in New York within the next ten days. Appointment of a committee of 100 to collect and disseminate facts on foreign affairs relating to the United States was recommended yesterday.

Denouncement of pacifists and demands for maintenance of military preparedness by the United States were voiced today by Maj.-Gen. Clarence R. Edwards, U.S.A., retired; Dr. Harry Pratt Judson, president of the University of Chicago; Robert Underwood Johnson, former Ambassador to Italy, and other speakers.

WALLACE REID DIES FIGHTING

Noted Film Actor Passes at Peak of Fame

"I Have Won," He Tells His Faithful Wife

tion has become more and more critical.

"Death was due to hypostatic congestion of the lungs and renal suppression—a combination of conditions which filled the lungs with fluid and made for a slow poisoning because the kidneys ceased to function."

Dorothy Davenport, Mrs. Reid, had been at her husband's bedside for more than forty-eight hours without sleep when death came. Wednesday night Dr. Herbert told Mrs. Reid that her husband's condition was serious. She was urged to go home. They feared that she would have a nervous breakdown.

She stuck by Wally's bedside until he turned, tossed a little and stopped breathing. Then she fainted and was taken home on the verge of a nervous breakdown.

A SPLENDID FIGHT

"Reid put up a splendid fight," Dr. Herbert stated. "He gained about ten pounds during the six weeks he was here. But during the last three days he had been quite weak. Yesterday and the night before he was in a semi-delirium, unconscious most of the time."

When news of the death of their most famous player reached the Famous-Players Lasky lot, directors put down their megaphones, cameras ceased grinding and projection machines were quiet.

When Mrs. Reid was taken to her home, crying, her two little children, William Wallace, Jr., and Betty, the adopted daughter, left their toys in the parlor, the little doll bed and the chair with the bunnies on either side, the stuffed lion and the dog, and ran to "Mamma."

The kiddies haven't been told of the tragedy which has fallen upon their home. Buddy Post, a mountain of a man and a lesser light on the Lasky lot, took the children out in the backyard and played games with them. He showed them how to ride the new tricycle that "Daddy" bought for their Christmas.

MOTHER NOTIFIED

Shortly after the death, Mrs. Reid sent a message to her husband's mother, Mrs. Bertha W. Reid in New York City. Had she decided to come West, funeral arrangements would have been deferred until after her arrival.

G. J. Heyfron, who has been Reid's business manager and attorney for three years, told of the actor's business affairs.

"It is true there is a mortgage on the home," he stated. "But it isn't very much and everything would have been all right as soon as he had gotten out and returned to work. His contract with Lasky still provided for three and a half years."

According to Mr. Heyfron Reid carried a life insurance policy of $70,000.

A few weeks ago, when Wally wasn't so weak, he talked about his business and his plans, according to Mr. Heyfron and Dr. Herbert.

"He was very anxious to get back to work," Mr. Heyfron said. "One night he told the doctor he wanted to have his chauffeur come for him at 7 o'clock in the morning so he could get back to work."

"His courage was undying," Dr. Herbert stated. "He planned and dreamed of tomorrow. He wanted to get home. He wanted to go back to work."

"BREAKING OFF" FATAL

Reid's decline in health came rapidly after he began breaking himself of the morphine and whisky habits, according to his wife.

The first story of Reid's fight against the use of drugs was published in The Times, and gave the family's version of his breakdown in health.

Reid first began the use of morphine two years ago while making a picture in New York City. According to Mrs. Reid he had suffered a severe gash in his head at the base of the skull which required several stitches.

"He told me he felt like there were great big lumps at the bottom of his head," his wife declared. "He began using the morphine to ease the pain."

Last October Reid was taken to a hospital suffering from Kleig eyes. It was the first hint of the morphine trouble. The condition of his eyes became so bad that blindness almost ensued. Then dental trouble followed. For days, according to his wife, he sat in a dentist's chair while his gums were being lanced in an effort to save his teeth.

Then he went to the mountains with his trainer, Teddy Hayes. He lived in the open for more than a month in an effort to rid himself of the craving for drugs and liquor. He then returned to his home in Hollywood. The breakdown came.

WAS HARD WORKER

During the time Reid made his gallant battle, always supported during his trials by his wife, he worked on the Lasky lot, and is said to have turned out more pictures and more "best sellers" than any other actor.

To the last minute, just before falling into unconsciousness, Reid was interested in his work. He asked many times about his latest picture, "Thirty Days." He was rational most of the time.

He always recognized his wife, and looked forward to her coming with much joy, Dr. Herbert said yesterday.

Reid died at the peak of his popularity.

"He has done more in his 31 years than a dozen actors would do in a life time," his friends in Hollywood say.

Wally played hard. He worked hard. This is what all who knew him say, and he died game.

SPURS WAR ON PEDDLERS

Wallace Reid's Death Signal for Redoubling of Fight on Narcotic Dealers in Southland

The war on narcotics, their sale and use and all branches of the illicit industry, waged by the narcotic squad of the Los Angeles police department had taken on the aspect of a crusade. The announcement of Reid's death yesterday had the effect of arousing in members of the squad a higher zeal and a determination to put forth a greater effort, if possible, in their battle against smugglers and dealers.

The consultation held in the little squad room yesterday afternoon, when news of the star's death became known, between Detective-Sergts. Mailheau and Littlejohn, Hamilton and Wells, detailed to fight the city's battle against drugs, was free from all dramatics and display, but its effects are expected to be felt by narcotic dealers from the lowest "bindle peddler" to the keenest and highest priced runner across the Mexican border.

"We are going to go harder than ever after these hop smugglers," Detective-Sergt. Mailheau said last night, speaking for tne squad.

"Here was a young man with an enviable record behind him and most of his life before him, ruined and killed by the use of narcotics. It may be that a complication of diseases brought about his death but drugs were primarily responsible for his end. We are trying to put a stop to the business and we are going to try harder than ever before," he concluded.

Sheriff Traeger also will urge the State Legislature to pass a law making it a felony to peddle narcotics, instead of a misdemeanor. As part of his fight against the drug evil, the Sheriff plans to carry his campaign for more stringent laws to the legislators at Sacramento.

DIRECTING WAS HOPE OF REID

chal in an era of superior acting.

His ability to use his fists to advantage was equaled by his portrayals of tenderness and devotion. His whimsical smile and charming manner in romantic scenes won hundreds of feminine hearts.

Reid crowded a lot into his short life which began at St. Louis, on April 15, 1892. While still an infant he was taken by his parents to New York City.

Wally's first appearance on the stage was as a little girl in "Slaves of Gold." He gained his education in the New York schools, but continually augmented his store of elementary information by his delving into tomes of chemistry and psychology.

WAS ACCOMPLISHED

He was remarkably versatile, well read and an accomplished musician. The violin and stringed instruments ranked high in his favor.

After leaving school Wally worked as a reporter, a civil engineer, as a cowboy and as an editor on the staff of Motor. Many papers throughout the country printed a column conducted by Wally on the ills and ailments of gasoline engines until his fight against narcotics checked his writing. At one time he appeared in vaudeville playing in one of his father's sketches, "The Girl and the Ranger."

Reid's first interest in motion pictures was aroused by the technical side of the industry. At the Selig studio in New York, in 1910, he learned to operate a motion-picture camera. From Selig he went to Vitagraph, where he first appeared in pictures. He was on the Vitagraph lot for eleven months, playing leads opposite Florence Turner.

HEARS WESTERN CALL

Then he heard the call of the Coast and came West with Otis Turner. His first engagement, that of general utility man, was with Universal. At this time he wrote scenarios directed and acted.

David Wark Griffith first recognized the box-office value of Reid. He gave him the role in "The Birth of a Nation" in which Reid won international acclaim in what motion-picture stars still refer to as "the big fight scene."

Later he was specially selected as Geraldine Farrar's leading man in the picturization of "Carmen." Then followed a prominent part in Cecil B. De Mille's "Joan the Woman," a photoplay founded on the life of Joan of Arc.

Eight years ago he married Dorothy Davenport, whom he met when she was starring at Universal City and he was general utility man. Shortly before the United States entered the war their only child was born. Since his marriage he has been one of the Famous Players-Lasky Company's galaxy of stars, appearing in scores of feature films, each one of which brought him additional fame. "Thirty Days" was his last Lasky release.

CHANGE MARKED

Those who recalled Reid's fight scene in "The Birth of a Nation" and his virile roles in pictures with scenes laid in the lumber camps of the North were aghast at the change in Wally as revealed by his last picture. Gone was the zest he contributed to his old-time parts. In the place of the youthful vigor of his early pictures there remained only a pitiful shadow. A painted smirk replaced the quick and ready smile of other days.

Make-up did not conceal the fatigue which weighed heavily upon him. He carried the attire of a young man-about-town stiffly in the manner of a man twice his years. Murmurs of regret swept over the theater. The news of his heroic battle to overcome the craving for narcotics which gripped him had only become generally known a few days before. The measure of his popularity and the sympathy which his illness had engendered was denoted by the applause which first rippled and then rolled in a frenzy of enthusiastic hand-clapping over the theater when his name first flashed upon the silver screen.

ASSOCIATES PAY TRIBUTE

The companies working at the Lasky lots stopped work earlier yesterday than usual. The news of Reid's passing quickly reached into every nook and cranny of the studio. What marks of respect the Famous Players-Lasky Company and its players are to render the departed star have not yet been determined. Plans are being held in abeyance until funeral arrangements have been completed.

"Motion pictures have lost an artist who held a unique place in the hearts of the patrons of the screen," Jesse L. Lasky, vice-president of the corporation, said yesterday afternoon. "We have lost one of our brightest stars.

"Speaking for the organization and myself as well, I can express only the deepest sorrow and sincerest sympathy for the bereaved ones."

Palestine Asks Excavation of "City of David"

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18. — The Palestine administration has issued invitations to archaeologists of the United States, Great Britain, France and other countries to excavate the site of the ancient "City of David" on Mount Ophel, just south of the existing walls of Jerusalem, it was learned officially today.

From the pool of Siloam, which marks the southern apex of the site, northward to the southern wall, the entire area covered by the ancient city will be turned over to archaeologists by the Palestine administration. Each educational institution or society applying for permission to excavate will be assigned a certain district within which it will be given exclusive rights, but outside of which it must not go. The size of the district thus awarded, it is understood, will be determined largely by the financial ability of the society or institution to which the grant is made. Privileges will not be extended to persons or societies financially unable to undertake excavation operations, it is stated.

GOLD AND SILVER STATISTICS GIVEN

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—Imports of gold into the United States during 1922, the Department of Commerce announced today, were valued at $275,169,085, compared with $691,248,297 in 1921. Exports during 1922 were $36,874,894, compared with $23,891,377 in 1921.

Silver imports were given as $70,806,653 in 1922 as against $62,242,671 in 1921, and silver exports as $62,807,286 during 1922 compared with $51,575,399 the previous year.

The comparative figures for 1922 and 1921 showed a decrease of $416,078,512 in gold imports and increases of $12,983,517 in gold exports, of $7,563,982 in silver imports and $11,231,887 in silver exports.

The excess of gold imports over exports in 1922 was $238,294,891, compared with $667,356,920 in 1921. Silver imports exceeded exports in 1922 by $7,999,367 as against $11,667,272 in 1921.

Friend Jim:

You would be delighted with any one of the four hotels of the Linnard system in Pasadena. They are all a first class resort hotel should be, and diversion in endless variety is offered the guests every day. I suggest that you bring the girls over for a Sunday night supper and concert at either the Huntington, Maryland or Vista del Arroyo. Henri J. Van Praag and his artist ensemble gave a really remarkable concert at the Vista del Arroyo last Sunday. We are going to be there for the one the coming Sunday.

MINE MASSACRE JURY UNDECIDED

"Murder or Nothing," Grim Phrase of Judge

Jurist Digs Union Tyranny in Instructions

Assures Talesmen That Free Labor is Lawful

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

MARION (Ill.) Jan. 18.—The jury of Williamson county farmers, into whose hands the fate of five men charged with the murder of Howard Hoffman, one of the victims of the Herrin riots, was given shortly before noon today, continued their deliberations tonight without being able to arrive at a verdict.

Under the instructions given by Judge D. T. Hartwell, the jury will return separate verdicts for each of the defendants and may find one guilty and another innocent. At the same time the jury will fix the punishment, if any, ranging from death to fourteen years imprisonment.

"It's murder or nothing," Judge Hartwell said, after the jury had retired and he had refused to give any instructions regarding a manslaughter verdict which would carry only a sentence of one year in prison. He also refused to give any instructions regarding self-defense, extreme provocation or justifiable homicide.

In his instructions, Judge Hartwell outlined the law regarding reasonable doubt, aiding and abetting conspiracy and declared that the jurors should not go outside the evidence to obtain doubts. He gave no instructions regarding the alibi evidence offered by the defense but did refer in one paragraph to the mine union.

"The jury is instructed that under the law of Illinois it is not unlawful for a person to mine coal without being a member of the United Mine Workers and should any persons be assaulted or killed for no other reason than they were mining coal without belonging to the United Mine Workers, such assault or killing cannot be justified on the ground that they were mining coal without belonging to the United Mine Workers," he said.

The court also held that if the evidence showed the defendants took the prisoners from the mine as a part of a conspiracy which resulted in murder, they were as guilty as though they had taken part in the killing even if they were actually miles from the scene at the time of the slayings.

In the case of Otis Clark, a defendant, Judge Hartwell said that if the jury found that he had helped to take the prisoners from the mine and then had publicly announced his withdrawal from any acts of violence he should be found innocent unless it was also found that his previous actions had resulted in the slaying.

During the afternoon the jury carried on its deliberations while locked in the courtroom where the trial was held. The entire second floor of the Courthouse was reserved for its use and the members could be seen wandering about in pairs and singly or standing at the windows watching the crowd below.

A small group of jurors remained in apparent argument about one of the counsel tables until shortly after 6 o'clock when they were taken to a restaurant for dinner. At the time, according to employees at the restaurant, the jurors appeared in unusually good spirits and George Cox, the only union miner on the jury, who was reported sick during the afternoon, was quoted as saying: "I'm not as sick as they think I am."

After dinner the jurors went to the quarters on the top floor of the jail to continue their deliberations declaring that they were more comfortable in the jail than they were in the courtroom. Judge Hartwell said that he would receive a verdict if it were returned any time before midnight.

BUILDING HANDICAP TO BE TOLD

Inspector Backus to Bring Out Personnel Lack at Chamber Meeting

With Chief Building Inspector Backus of the city present to back up his statement of personnel handicap and low salaries, the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce has arranged a conference for noon today in the main lecture hall. Members of the City Council, the County and Municipal Affairs Committee, of the chamber, and others will be present.

The shortage of funds in the building department, Mr. Backus estimates, is costing $750,000 a year through delays in checking plans and issuing permits. The Chamber of Commerce has recognized this state of affairs for the past two months and has been brought face to face with a serious condition due to all the new industries looking to the chamber for sites, economic operation and the formalities necessary to start construction of factory buildings.

In its efforts to have Chief Inspector Backus expedite the checking of plans, the chamber has discovered that millions of dollars in factory and industrial construction are tied up owing to the small, underpaid staff of the building department, as admitted by Mr. Backus; and at the meeting today it is hoped to bring matters to a definite head and get funds transferred to the city building department before any "surplus" funs so classified are turned into the general treasury.

Additional Courtrooms Needed Here

Two more courtrooms for the Superior Court were asked of the Board of Supervisors yesterday by Presiding Judge Crial. Judge Crail declared business of the Superior Court had increased 51 per cent in three years, and it was necessary to have two more judges designated by the Governor to sit in this county. Courtrooms must be provided for them, he said.

Supervisor Bean, on receipt of this request, declared there was no available room in the building for the construction of more courtrooms. He said he did not know what would be the solution of the dilemma.

If two additional judges are brought here there will be twenty-five Superior Court judges for the work of the county.

Shake-up at Fox Studios Denied by High Official

Rumors of a thorough shake-up at the William Fox studios here last night were denied by Jack G. Leo, vice-president of the company, who arrived here yesterday from New York City on what he termed his annual tour of inspection.

Reports that radical changes in studio personnel and policy were impending Mr Leo termed unfounded. He plans to remain here a month. W. R. Sheehan, general manager, will arrive early next month.

Mr. Leo, accompanied by his wife and two children and his father and mother, registered at the Ambassador following a "welcome to our city" reception tendered them at the station by local officials of the concern.

Deny Probation for Driver in Fatal Accident

Carl Chester Williams, convicted of manslaughter, was denied probation by Judge Reeve in Superior Court yesterday, and was sentenced to San Quentin for from one to five years. Williams, who was formerly in the dairy business at Hynes, was found guilty of running down and injuring fatally William Porter on the night of Dec. 30, 1921. It also was charged that Williams had failed to stop after striking the victim.

FUR FACTORY LEASES MORE FLOOR SPACE

The Beckman Fur Factory, on the ground floor of the Brack-Shop Building, announced yesterday it had leased one-half of the second floor of the building, so that its ground floor salesroom could be enlarged to meet growing demands.

The manager declared growth of the business had exceeded expectations in the short time it had been in existence, but that he expected further expansion would follow continuation of its merchandising policy.

CHINAMAN IS DISGRACED

Former Portland Laundryman de Luxe Returns from Mexico to Get New Start Home; Seized

Chan Lung, 65 years of age, a Chinese with the squint of a real Mandarin, who was one of the leading laundrymen of Portland, Or., until recently, and who up to the time of his departure to communicate with spirits of his ancestors in China, was one of the prominent spirits in the Mongolian colony in that city, has fallen into disgrace. But with the stoicism of Confucius, he makes no sign.

Lung was found in a box car at El Monte by immigration officers yesterday, with Pang Jue, both en route from Mexico to the former home of Lung. Lung, having been in the United States many years, speaks excellent English, and told of his troubles. But that appears later.

When he went to China he neglected to get the necessary papers to readmit him into the country, and found it necessary to drop off at a Mexican port, and make his way as best he could to Oregon. While in Mexico, he fell in with Pang Jue, who did not have the price of a ticket on the railway, and they concluded to take advantage of a side-door Pullman and travel a la carte.

They passed safely through Los Angeles, and when El Monte was reached, concluded to slip out and make at least a temporary home with Chinese gardeners operating in the vicinity of El Monte. Lung figured that his ability to speak English would enable them to get by.

But they fell into the hands of Immigration Agent Burnett and Inspector Sweet, who had been radioed to await the arrival of the distinguished Chinese delegation.

Inspector Sweet is an expert in the Chinese lingo, and not suspecting that Lung could speak English, proceeded to engage him in conversation. He handed a few choice "Chink" observations, embalmed in up-to-date Cantonese dialect, to Lung, who came right back, with, "Oh, yes, we made the mistake of getting off at El Monte. We should have gone on to San Francisco." This in splendid English. Sweet was flabbergasted. And thus it appears that the Chinese are not only child-like and bland in a poker game, but also in handing a jar to the "Milican" man.

Sister Chases Lady Spring Out of Windy City

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CHICAGO, Jan. 18. — Gentle spring, with its surcease from chinkers and galoshes, paid a fleeting visit to Chicago today.

The temperature rose to the neighborhood of 50 deg. as the fair lady blithely skipped from the North Shore, where a robin came out of its retirement to chirrup a few times and then skirted the lake to the Midway, where a dandelion, warmed partly by a steam pipe underground, lifted its yellow head.

The Lady Spring did not linger for from the north there came tidings that her hated chill sister of the snows was on her way. She started her journey from Manitoba, where the snow is measured in feet and not in inches and all observers reported that she possessed a through ticket to Chicago.

Prof. Cox of the Chicago Weather Bureau confirmed the news that the invader would be here before daylight.

"The temperature will drop at least 30 deg. by tomorrow morning," he said.

From the same source, too, came the cheerful information that the long trip from Manitoba will leave the Lady of the Snows quite out of breath. She will do her chilliest, but it will be considerably above zero.

TRAVELERS' AID ASSISTS MANY

In a review of the year's work read at the first annual meeting of the Travelers' Aid Society of Los Angeles Wednesday it was revealed that in fourteen Pacific Coast cities more than 87,000 travelers were given assistance, an average number locally.

G. Bradley Oxnam addressed the meeting, complimenting the society on its achievements and predicting its growth to include new fields of aid. The meeting included a report by the general secretary on conditions here and in other large cities of California.

The local branch of the society is important, according to the report, because Los Angeles is "a mecca, not only for the wealthy tourist, but also of disappointed men and women, of sick strangers, strangers looking for jobs, would-be screen stars, and girls and boys listed among the 'disappeared.'"

Officers of the society are Irving M. Walker, president; Dr. E. P. Ryland, vice-president; Mrs. John Henno, recording secretary; Charles H. Toll, treasurer, and Miss Virginia McMechen, general secretary.

WOMAN LOSES SUIT

Bad Language Charge Denied by Man and He Wins

Judgment was denied Mrs. Louisa Janner by a jury in Judge J. Perry Wood's Superior Court yesterday in her suit for $20,000 damages against E. M. Kinslow.

According to testimony Mr. Kinslow and Mrs. Janner had a disagreement after she had purchased property from him. She accused him of entering her apartment one night while her two daughters were in sleeping attire, using violent language and threatening to evict her. This was the basis of the suit.

Mr. Kinslow denied her charges.

PASADENA LEGION TO PRESENT FIRST PLAY

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

PASADENA, Jan. 18.—Members of the Crown City and Los Angeles society are uniting tomorrow evening in sponsoring "Dumb-bells," the first annual theatrical production of Pasadena Post, American Legion. The play, which is a musical comedy, is being presented in the high school auditorium and will be repeated Saturday evening. "Dumb-bells" is the creative work of two members of Pasadena's winter colony, Miss Kathryn White, daughter of a Denver publisher, and Miss Katherine Albert, also of Colorado. Besides writing the play, the two girls are directing and playing in it.

Film Actress Knocked Down by Automobile

Mae Busch, motion-picture actress, was knocked down by an automobile yesterday afternoon in front of the Hillview Apartments and received injuries that will confine her to bed for several days.

Miss Busch had just purchased a newspaper giving an account of the death of Wallace Reid, and the shock occasioned by the news of her friend's death threw her temporarily off her guard, so that she failed to see an approaching automobile. The machine was driven by a woman who failed to report the accident to the police.

YOUTH ADMITS NINETY THEFTS

With the arrest yesterday of James Barow, 23 years of age, who is said to be an ex-convict, the police believe they have solved the mystery of a large number of small thefts committed in this city.

Barow was arrested by Officers Box and Level, of the Lincoln Heights Station, after he had been discovered in an asserted attempt to rob the home of Mrs. H. W. Walt, 6[illegible] Arroyo Glen street, Highland Park.

He is said to have confessed to more than ninety thefts during eighteen days he has been in the city. One of these was committed at the home of Mrs. M. F. Hardman, 6333 Buford street, Highland Park, he said.

The method used by Barow was to watch a house until he saw one or more of its inmates leave; then he would enter, make a rapid survey and escape within a few minutes. He told detectives he had made a study of the habits of women in hiding valuables and was able to locate them in the first place he searched.

ROBBED OF CAR AND THEIR CASH

An investigation is being made by Hollywood and Los Angeles police detectives into the robbery of Nels Nelson, San Francisco business man, and a party of relatives and friends of $1,000 in currency and a new Cadillac touring car while on their way to Los Angeles.

The robbery occurred near the summit of Chalk Hill on the Ventura highway.

Mr. Nelson, his wife, sister-in-law and a Mr. Rybon were forced to enter the bandit machine. A third man entered Mr. Nelson's car and with the hold-up car following, drove to the summit of Laurel Canyon road, where they were ordered from the car.

BELL CHILDREN WIN IN ESTATE CONTEST

QUICK VERDICT DECIDES MOTHER INSANE AT WILL-MAKING

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 18.—Children of Mrs. Teresa Bell won their contest for a legal share of her $1,000,000 estate today when a jury in the Superior Court here returned a verdict that Mrs. Bell was insane when she made the will which left the bulk of her property to the State, orphan asylums, "cousins if I have any," and disowned her children.

The verdict of the jury, which was reached in fifteen minutes, will be appealed, E. J. Talbot, counsel for James M. Wilkins, executor of the will, announced.

The contesting children were: Reginald Bell of Visalia; Muriel Bell Hosler, Hollister; Dorothy Bell, Oakland; Robina Bell Hassel, Oakland, and Thomas Frederick Bell, San Francisco.

"If the Bell children needed any vindication of their heritage as members of the Bell family, they may find it in the speedy unanimous verdict of the jury," said Reginald Bell. "The benefactions which my mother made to the orphan asylums and charitable institutions will not be disregarded, even though her will is broken."

The trial, which lasted for more than six weeks, was colored by the constant figure of the late "Mammy" Pleasant, negress manager of the Bell household, who transacted much of Mrs. Bell's business and who, according to two witnesses, killed Thomas Bell. Bell was found dead at the bottom of a stairway in his mansion with a broken neck.

During the proceedings witnesses who were present at the birth of the Bell children testified that Mrs. Bell was their mother, thus disposing of the cloud which the mother sought to place on the children in the will.

ACTIVITIES OF "REDS" TO BE PRESENTED

Presentation of evidence to show that the eight men on trial in Superior Court before Judge Reeve for asserted violation of the Criminal Syndicalism Act are members of the I. W. W. was completed yesterday by the prosecution.

The attorneys for the State will sketch today the activities of the "red" organization in regard to destruction of lumber mills, railroad property and farms in the State.

The eight defendants, who are acting as their own attorneys, are Claude Erwin, William Allen, James Fink, Edward Gross, Arturo Orlo, Martin Larson, Daniel Duffy and Roy Leonard. Dep. Dist.-Attys. Moroney and McCartney are prosecuting the case.

WOMAN DIES, THREE HURT IN TRAFFIC

Driver of Auto Which Hit Pedestrian Held; Two More May Succumb

One woman was killed and three other persons injured, two perhaps fatally, in a series of traffic accidents yesterday evening. The victims were taken to Receiving Hospital, where they were treated by Dr. Wallace Dodge, police surgeon.

Mrs. Mary Wallman, 62 years of age, 1237 Maryland avenue, died just before midnight as the result of injuries received when run down at Sixth and Bixel streets by an automobile driven by Max Chambers, 1407 North Catalina street. Chambers was arrested by Detective Sergeants Oker and Craig and booked on suspicion of manslaughter.

Mrs. Milton C. Helm, 40 years of age, 1838 Wellington Road, received a possible skull fracture and other injuries when she was knocked to the pavement by an automobile driven by Walter L. Davey, 641 3-4 West Thirtieth street, at the intersection of West Adams street and Normandie avenue.

Herman L. Harris, a jeweler, residing at 1762 West Forty-sixth street, may die as the result of a basal skull fracture received when he attempted to hop the steps of a moving street car on Seventh between Main and Los Angeles streets. He missed the hand rail.

Motorcycle Officer Earl J. Hanch, 26 years of age, 1642 1-2 Reid street, was removed to the Receiving Hospital in a serious condition following a collision between his motorcycle and a Los Angeles Railway car at Lincoln avenue and North Main street. He suffered internal injuries and concussion.

MACHINE GUN TRIED BY POLICE

Improved Weapon May be Used in Pursuit of Criminals

The stacatto refrain of a machine gun may be the swan song for automobile bandits and other dangerous criminals operating in Los Angeles, if plans made by Chief of Police Oaks for the use of the lethal weapon are perfected.

Yesterday the entire section of the flying squadron which is on duty at night, including some of the best shots in the police department, went to a ranch near Rose Hill Park for marksmanship practice. Besides the machine gun, revolvers, rifles and sawed-off shotguns were fired at targets.

The machine gun is to be mounted on one of the automobiles used by the flying squadron to be brought into action against bandits. Chief Oaks expressed himself as highly gratified by the results of the practice, and plans to ask the Finance Committee of the City Council for funds to purchase ammunition. Should the committee refuse to grand funds the Chief declared that he would arrange for private subscription to buy the needed cartridges.

Yesterday's practice inaugurated the first step in an intensive campaign directed by Chief Oaks for the purpose of perfecting the marksmanship of members of the flying squadron. Besides the members of the night watch, a number of others who were off duty participated, headed by Acting Capt. Grant Roberds, Inspector Jackson and Chief Jailer Shand.

Targets were erected at different ranges, and each of the officers fired with rifles, shotguns, revolvers and the machine gun. The latter has been owned by the police department for the past several months, but never has been tried out.

The practice will be continued at regular intervals during the coming year, it was stated.

Mary Francis Dies at Age of Eighty-three

Mary A. Francis, mother of John Francis, former superintendent of city schools, died last night at her home, 2018 Griffith avenue. She was 83 years of age and had lived in Los Angeles thirty years.

She leaves two sons, George and John, one sister, Mrs. Anna J. Reid, and two brothers, Lucius M. Fall and John H. Fall. Funeral arrangements have not been announced yet.

THE MISTAKES OF THE KAISER

AN ANSWER TO THE KAISER'S MEMOIRS

BY RENE VIVIANI

Premier of France When the War Broke Out

[Copyright, 1922, by The McClure Newspaper Syndicate.]

XXXIII.—GERMANY'S RESPONSIBILITY

Germany's responsibility for the war is both of distant and recent date; it includes the past and the present; it is military, political and diplomatic. The first summary to be presented here will show the responsibility of Germany in the period considerably before the war. The second will show her responsibility in the period immediately preceding the war.

FIRST SUMMARY

Covering a Period Some Years Before the War

(1.) Here are the tenacious and persistent preparations by which Germany paved the way for the War:

On April 13, 1905, the Reichstag voted a new military law for a period of six years, providing for a nonrenewable appropriation of 87,000,000 marks and of a supplementary annual appropriation of 39,000,000 marks for war expenditures.

On March 7, 1911, the Reichstag voted, over and above the regular budget, a supplementary nonrenewable appropriation for five years of 108,000,000 marks and a supplementary annual one of 27,000,000 marks.

On June 14, 1912, voted another nonrenewable appropriation of 180,000,000 marks and another supplementary annual one of 55,000,000 marks.

On July 3, 1913, the Reichstag voted a nonrenewable appropriation of 1,105,000,000 marks and another supplementary annual one of 328,000,000 marks.

During the same period the French Parliament, on March 31, 1905, voted an annual supplementary appropriation of 21,000,000 francs and, in March 26, 1914, in order to meet the threat implied in the formidable sums voted since 1904 by the Reichstag, and especially those voted in 1913, the French Parliament voted a permanent supplement to the war budget of 257,000,000 francs and a nonrenewable supplement of 720,000,000 francs.

The above proves, by dates and figures, what the respective tendencies of the two nations were at the beginning of 1914.

"PEOPLE MUST BE READY"

(2.) April 2, 1913—General report and war plans of the German General Staff:

"The people must be imbued with the idea that our armaments are a reply to those of France and to French policy. It must be accustomed to the belief that an offensive war by us is a necessity in order to combat the aggressive policy of our adversary. It will be necessary to act prudently in order not to arouse any suspicion and to avoid any crises that might hurt our economic life. Matters must be conducted in such a way that, in view of the heavy impression caused by powerful armaments, of considerable sacrifices and of a political situation full of tension, the breaking out of a war shall be looked upon as a deliverance, since, after it, there will come whole decades of peace and prosperity, as they did after 1870. War must be prepared from the financial point of view; in this direction there is much to be done. Care must be taken not to arouse the distrust of our financiers; nevertheless, there are many things which cannot be kept concealed . . ."

". . . In the south Switzerland forms an extremely strong bulwark. As to the little nations on our northeastern frontier, they cannot be considered in the same way. In that direction the situation for us is vitally important, and the goal to be aimed at is to take the offensive in greatly superior numbers from the very first days. For this it will be necessary to concentrate a large army, followed by strong Landwehr formations, which will make the armies of the little nations decide to follow us or to remain inactive, and which will crush them should they attempt armed resistance."

INVASION PLANNED

These two passages, from a report addressed to the German Emperor by the German General Staff, show that there was a plan for crushing France through the invasion across Belgium, and, as a natural consequence, for violating Belgian neutrality, which dated back several years, though those originating it were not sure as to the date when the war would break out.

(3.) From 1913 onward Germany and Austria, though they had no grievance against Serbia, were preparing for war against her. They sounded Italy regarding this, but Italy turned them down and thus upset their plan. Evidence of this is to be found in a speech made by Signor Giolitti in Italy during 1914, in which he said:

"Since the principal thing is that Italy's good faith be above any doubt, I wish to point out that, as far back as 1913, Austria contemplated action against Serbia and wished to give this action the appearance of defensive action.

"Naturally Marquis San Giuliano let Austria know that Italy did not feel herself bound to participate in such action."

SECOND SUMMARY

Period immediately preceding the war.

(1.) Even before the Sarajevo murder, the Emperor of Austria addressed a memorandum to Germany asking her to help him strike Serbia. Thus, this murder was no better than a pretext.

It is to be noted that this document bears a date previous to that of the Sarajevo murder.

(2.) June 28, murder of the Austrian Archduke at Sarajevo.

(3.) The German Ambassador ar Vienna telegraphs, under date of June 30: (German Documents, No. 7:) "I take advantage of all opportunities of this sort for advising, quietly, but earnestly, against hasty measures."

The German Kaiser, in a fury, made the following marginal note on this dispatch: "Who told him to do this? It is very foolish. This does not concern him in the least."

(4.) Council of Potsdam. The Austrian Ambassador at Berlin, hands the German Emperor on July 5, by order of the Emperor of Austria, an autographed letter of his sovereign asking the German Emperor's support in annihilating Serbia.

The German Emperor answers "that such action must not be delayed, that Russia's attitude would be hostile in any event . . . that Russia, moreover, in view of existing conditions, is not ready for war and would hesitate greatly at taking up arms, but that she would incite the other powers against us and feed the flames in the Balkans."

(5.) Following this, there was a council at which there were present Bethmann-Hollweg; Under-Secretary of State Zimmerman; His Excellency, Von Capelle, representing Admiral Von Tirpitz; Capt. Zenker, representing the Naval Staff; and representatives of the Ministry of War and the German General Staff:

EDDY DISCIPLE TALKS ON COUE

Christian Science Opposed to Autosuggestion

Church Board Spokesman in Statement of Case

French Specialist Described as "Hypnotist"

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

NEW YORK, Jan. 18.—In a statement given exclusively to the North American Newspaper Alliance and its associated newspapers, the Christian Science committee on publication presents its position in regard to Dr. Emile Coue and his teaching of autosuggestion in the following statement from Charles E. Heitman:

"In compliance with a request for a statement as to the attitude of Christian Scientists toward M. Coue and his visit to America I will say that while we disagree sharply with this form of treatment, nevertheless, we recognize it as a right of every one to employ the practitioner of his choice; therefore, we have no word of condemnation either for Dr. Coue or those who care to experiment with his system of healing. We do object, however, to having his teachings confused with those of Christian Science.

"In way of explanation I will say that the teachings and practice of Christian Science, as set forth in the writings of its discoverer and founder, Mary Baker Eddy, are directly opposite to those employed by Dr. Coue. The latter, as an example, is based wholly upon the belief in minds many, and the power of one mind over another; whereas, Christian Science teaches that there is but one Mind, infinite and divine, called God, even that Mind which, according to the Scriptures, was also in Christ Jesus.

DIFFERENCES EXPLAINED

"Again, Christian Science does not heal by means of psychotherapy or autosuggestion, and no more does it require, as is the case with the French physician and hynotist, the constant repetition of specially formulated phrases by those who turn to it for help. In fact, it specifically prohibits the use of formulas and classifies all forms of suggestion as activities of the carnal mind, of which sin and its resultant states, sickness and death, are effects. Christian Science logically holds, therefore, that since the seeming cause of disease obtains in the carnal mind, which, as Paul tells us, is the source of death and enmity against God, its cure must come not, as Dr. Coue teaches, through the enforcement of the corporeal will, itself a product of this mind, but from the natural operation of the corrective and curative power of divine mind in human consciousness, before which all phases of sin and disease yield as readily and inevitably as darkness gives way to light.

QUALITY OF PRAYER

"The Christian Scientist, striving to emulate the example of Christ Jesus, earnestly prays, 'Not my will, but Thine, be done,' realizing that blessings are obtainable only by full and complete submission to the will of God. Furthermore, the primal object of treatment in Christian Science is to improve the individual morally and spiritually, while suggestive and hynotic methods of mental healing have no religious element, but look merely to the physical betterment.

"In drawing a distinction between the operation of Christian metaphysics as taught and practiced by her, and the various systems of mental therapy based on a belief in the power of human will, Mrs. Eddy has stated the case most clearly on page 144 of Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures: 'Human will power is not science. Human will belongs to the so-called material senses, and its use is to be condemned. Willing the sick to recover is not the metaphysical practice of Christian Science.'"

Long Illness Brings Death to Hotel Man

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 18.—Otto Louis Haeberli, assistant manager of the Palace, and one of the most widely known hotel men in San Francisco, died at St. Joseph's Hospital last night. He had been ill for four months, suffering from heart trouble.

Haeberli was stricken last April and was forced to leave work. Apparently in normal health, he resumed his duties at the Palace and superintended the hotel service from early in the morning until late at night until he suffered a relapse and his illness necessitated hospital treatment.

Thirty years ago Haeberli, who was the grandson of the famous German poet, dramatist and historian, Johann Schiller, came to San Francisco from Switzerland and secured employment at the Palace as a waiter. His attention to duty and efficiency caused his rapid advancement and he rose steadily.

BURNISHED COPPER SIGN TO MARK GLOBE

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

GLOBE, Jan. 18.—As one of the items of a campaign in which Globe hopes to attract the tourist to this city, it is proposed to swing across the main street at the Courthouse a great burnished copper sign that will be illuminated brilliantly at night. The cost is estimated at $1000. The enduring metal was chosen as the material for the sign in order that the stranger might be informed at a glance of the chief product of the district.

AMERICANS TO BATTLE EPIDEMICS

Women Will Open World's Largest Quarantine Post on Greek Island

[BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

ATHENS, Jan. 18.—American women will install, finance and direct the largest medical quarantine station in the world in an efforts to cope with the unprecedented outbreak of epidemic disease among the refugees in Greece. Dr. Mabel Elliott, director of the American Women's Hospitals, has arranged with the Greek government to take over the entire island of Macronisi, thirty miles south of Athens, and to equip it to handle 10,000 refugees at a time.

The island is ten miles long and two miles wide and is uninhabited. It will be equipped with 2500 tents and necessary hospitals, disinfecting plants, soup kitchens. Owing to the pressing urgency of the situation Miss Elliott has guaranteed to have the station operating within six days.

The director will be Dr. Olga Stasny of Helena, Ark., who will have a staff of forty Greek doctors and nurses. The cost of operations is estimated at $100,000 which will be defrayed entirely by the American Women's Hospitals in addition to their present work with the Near East Relief and among the refugees.

Miss Elliott has had three years' experience on a large scale in medical work with the Near East Relief in Turkey, Armenia and Greece. She is a graduate of the Rush Medical College and practiced at Benton Harbor, Mich., before coming to Europe.

IRISH SEEK BRITON AS ARMY HEAD

Sir Bryan, Who is Descendant of Pocahontas, Approached, is Rumor

[BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

LONDON, Jan. 18.—An unconfirmable report here is that Sir Bryan Mahon, a retired British officer with a brilliant service record, has been approached by the Free State authorities to take over the command of the Irish army. Sir Bryan is popularly known as "the Hero of Mafeking" in the Boer War.

His Irish blood is mingled with that of Spain and an American Indian.

A movement is being started by Edward Pone Gaston, a London-American, formerly of Chicago, to exhume and identify the remains of Pocahontas, who was buried in St. George's Church graveyard, but the location of whose burial place long has been unknown. It is asserted that many British celebrities are descended from the Indian princesses, among them Sir Bryan.

Sir Robert Baden Powell, father of the Boy Scout movement, is another. Pocahontas had a son by her husband, John Rolfe, in England. The son married and had numerous progeny, who prospered in England.

STATE RAIL BODY FAVORS ESPEE PLAN

EXPRESSES WILLINGNESS TO HAVE ROAD LEASE CENTRAL PACIFIC

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 18.—Acceptance by the California State Railroad Commission of the conditions under which the Interstate Commerce Commission proposes to permit the Southern Pacific Company to acquire control of the Central Pacific Railway Company by lease and by stock ownership was telegraphed to B. P. Meyer, chairman of the Interstate Commerce Commission, tonight.

The Interstate Commerce Commission on the 3rd inst. queried the Railroad Commission for an expression regarding the proposed acquisition of the Central Pacific by the Southern Pacific under terms proposed by the Interstate Commerce Commission to safeguard all interests.

Under this arrangement a lease of the Central Pacific properties by the Southern Pacific until Dec. 31, 1984, subject to termination by the Interstate Commerce Commission, is proposed.

FORMER SHERIFF IS SUED FOR DAMAGES

Miner Asks Compensation for Asserted False Arrest

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

GLOBE, Jan. 18.—George T. Kirkland, a miner, has prepared papers in a $10,000 suit against former sheriff Tol Kinsey and his bondsmen, the sum asked as compensation for asserted false arrest. Two days after an explosion that wrecked the home of Alfred and Dominic Rabogliatti, Kirkland was taken into custody, on a report that his car had been parked before the dynamited house. The accused later offered an accepted alibi and said that he and his car were gone from the neighborhood several hours before the explosion occurred.

Papal Delegate Leaves Mexican Capital Quietly

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

MEXICO CITY Jan. 18.—While thousands crammed the station yard here at 7 p.m. yesterday to bid goodby to the papal delegate, the latter rode in an automobile to Lecheria, a near-by town, to avoid the crowd and possible disturbances. There were some hundred friends in on the secret of his point of departure. Monsignor Filippi extended blessings to the City of Mexico in the darkness of the little station.

Californian Would Collect Bill in Arizona

Murder Cases Engage High Court at Phoenix

Desert Authorities Trying to Curb Autoists

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

PHOENIX, Jan. 18.—J. J. Coyle, a Californian, has brought in the United States Court of the Arizona District a civil suit of a kind unusual in the past few years. He asks judgment for $12,150.41 from Wirt A. Bowman, a Nogales business man, A. Cubillas, Jr., and G. F. Bringas, doing business under the name of the Compania Comercial de Sonora y Sinaloa, Sociedad Anonima, the Garbanzo Export and Warehouse Company and A. A. and A. M. Joffroy, doing business under the name of the Border Trading Company. Mr. Coyle also has a trade name, that of the Western Growers' and Distributors' Association.

He avers that he delivered to the defendants at Guaymas, Son., 235 barrels of whisky and three barrels of gin, in all 11,514.52 gallons, for which, it is asserted, the defendants had contracted to pay him $4 a gallon. Of this amount, $2.25 was to be paid to an unnamed individual who had furnished the liquor. The balance of $1.75 was to be Coyle's. But, he states, he was paid only $6000 and he demands the balance.

The Federal civil docket is congested and the case may be long delayed in hearing, but much interest is felt locally in the question of where the liquor came from and where it went from Mexico. There is supposition that large smuggling operations are being conducted across the border line. Two days ago, on the Nogales road, close to Tucson, officers arrested Joe B. Carillo and G. H. Gobea, with an auto load of liquor, including sixteen cases and a sixteen-gallon keg of mescal, all with revenue clearance from the Mexican authorities.

SUPREME COURT CASES

The Supreme Court has affirmed a life sentence given in the Superior Court of Yavapai county to Frank George, convicted of the murder of Undersheriff Bowers at Prescott, July 1, 1921.

The Supreme Court also has heard arguments in an appeal taken from the death sentence pronounced by the Graham county court on George Fralick, 19 years of age, an inmate of the State Industrial School at Fort Grant. Fralick killed Guard Walter W. Layton with an ax.

The appeal of Paul Hadley, alias William S. Estaver, sentenced in the Yuma court to be hanged for the murder of Mrs. Anna C. Johnson, shot in the back while Hadley was a passenger in the Johnson automobile, en route to Los Angeles, has been submitted.

A novel suit has been filed by Henry Renaud against Joseph Carney, a valley cattleman, asking $7768 damages for injuries received by the complainant when he ran his bicycle into a herd of Carney's cattle on a public highway. Renaud alleges that, by reason of the blocking of the road, he was thrown from his wheel and was cut and bruised.

HUNCH PROVES GOOD

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

HOLBROOK, Jan. 18.—L. F. McClanahan, lately appointed turnkey at the County Jail, worried over his job a few nights ago, after locking up his charges and going home. Sleepless, he finally arose and went to the jail, where he found the prisoners busily engaged in digging their way through the brick wall and within a few minutes work of liberty.

TRAFFIC TRIBULATIONS

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

PHOENIX, Jan. 18.—The new Sheriff and local police are combining in enforcement of the automobile laws and, for the first time, are insisting that lights shall be carried by horse-drawn vehicles and bicycles, collisions with which have caused many deaths during the past year. The new cement highways have proven attractive to speedsters, who are being curbed.

The city magistrate has started on infliction of jail sentences on those found intoxicated while driving. One such individual, J. B. Farish, was given twenty days in the City Jail and $100 fine. He had crashed into another's car.

Harold Altenburg, driver of a car that overturned on the Buckeye Road while being pushed to dangerous speed and who is being held for responsibility for the deaths of two women passengers, will be tried May 1 on a manslaughter charge.

Mrs. Victoria Bridgewater and her brother, William Akin, injured in a speeding automobile on West Jefferson street and thought fatally hurt, now are reported to have a fair chance for life. The woman's spine was hurt and her lungs were punctured. Akin sustained a skull fracture.

W. W. White, a cotton office clerk, hereafter will pick up no men on the road, this decision arrived at after he had been hammered into unconsciousness by three men, who had solicited a ride. The auto was found north of Tucson, from which city the bandits are believed to have stolen another car for continuation of their flight.

SUSPECT HANGS SELF

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

TUCSON (Ariz.) Jan. 18.—E. C. Green of 122 East Second street, arrested on a charge of holding up rum-runners and also on a charge of selling intoxicants, and about to face a jury in the United States Court, left his wife in the house, went into the garage and hanged himself from a rafter. The wife, wondering at his continued absence, entered the garage to find only the body of her husband. The Coroner pronounced the case clearly one of suicide by strangulation.

BUILDS BOAT

TOM MIX JOINS THEM THAT GO DOWN TO SEA

By Grace Kingsley

The number of "them that go down to the sea in ships" is to be augmented by an important new member. Tom Mix is building a huge motor-boat, to be called "The Flirt," and if you call him "Commodore" these days he will answer with a broad smile.

For the present, Tom will use the boat merely for short cruises, accompanied by his family, up and down the Coast, but later on he will take a long trip in it.

The Flirt is being built at San Pedro, and is to be ninety-six feet in length, with high-power motors, and to have a cruising radius of several thousand miles. It will be of the deep-sea pattern, capable of going anywhere. The vessel will be completed and launched in the summer.

The interior is to be lavishly furnished with special staterooms for Mrs. Mix, little 10-months' old Thomasina, Tom himself, and lastly, with a stall for Tony, Mix's horse.

"What shall you do if Tony doesn't like it?" Dustin Farnum inquired.

"Oh, then we'll stay at home I suppose!" grinned Tom.

It was Dustin Farnum, owner of the swift "Miss Los Angeles," who put the yachting bee in Tom's sombrero. But even now he hasn't learned the language of the sea. He will insist on speaking of "upstairs and downstairs" on the boat. And he told somebody it was "corralled at San Pedro."

Out of the Silence.

Louise Huff and Ben Lynn have both deserted the films for the stage, according to New York reports. Both will appear in Rachel Crothers' new play, "Mary the Third," in New York.

Universal Gets Duncans

William Duncan has switched from Vitagraph to Universal, according to telegraphic word just received from New York. Along with Duncan goes Edith Johnson, his wife, who also has signed with Universal.

The contract which the Duncans have signed is for the making of serials, and it is understood to be a long term. The pair are in New York at present, but expect to return home soon.

Duncan and his wife are among the best-known serial players in the film world. They have been making thrillers for Vitagraph for several years.

Rudy's Wife in Vaudeville

It is just possible that Mrs. Rodolph Valentino may go into vaudeville, according to eastern announcements. Edgar Allen Wolfe has written a sketch for her.

Metropolitan Bulletin

More than 1000 men, including electricians, decorators, mechanics of various departments, are busily engaged today in putting the final touches on Grauman's Metropolitan Theater at Sixth and Hill streets. The house is to be thrown open to the public next Friday evening, to take its place as the finest motion-picture palace in the entire country and probably in the world.

When completed the theater will represent an expenditure of $4,000,000 and will seat more than 4000 persons. It is absolutely fireproof and earthquake proof, and the acoustics have been pronounced perfect.

Many novelties have been introduced on the large stage, which will permit many new special acts. One of the most interesting of these features is the disappearing section across the front, which is so constructed that it can be lowered and raised with the touch of a lever.

The main stage area also is constructed so that when desired it can be taken up in sections and there is an extensive system of drops and drop controls. Altogether, the stage appointments are said to be the last cry of efficiency.

A huge Wurlitzer, this being an especially built Hope-Jones unit orchestralorgan, has been installed, and the instrument, as well as the base on which it rests, can also be lowered and raised at the will of the organist.

Bull's Not So Bad

After all, Bull Montana doesn't look so bad to some people! One of these is an earnest young woman, who has just written Bull. Here is her letter, which Bull means to answer, even if she does insult the California climate by never having heard of it:

"Dear Bull Montana: Please don't think me foolish for writing you, as I was reading in the Movie Weekly how to treat your wife. And how many do that, treat their wife the way you would treat yours? Mr. Montana, how I would love to meet one that would be that way as you would be if you had a wife. I wish you were near by so that I could talk to you.

"You may not be handsome but I can see by your face that you are a kind man, and that is saying lots for there is not very many of them that is. I can say I wish I was the young lady that could have pretty things and some one to be good to me. I can cook, but when it comes to playing a piano, I am not there, as the only one I can play is the player piano.

"I hope you will write me a letter. I am French and English and I have got dark brown hair and dark eyes and my weigh is about 120, age 27 years. I wish I had a chance to start my life all over. You seem so good and kind that it won't hurt me to write you any way.

"I don't ever think we will meet, but I wish we would, but we are many miles apart. Is the weather cold down there? It is very cold up here and it is trying to snow and rain.

"I think I had better close for this time and hope you will write me anyway. So I will say goodbye."

TO GIVE DOLL AWAY

Some little girl at the Orpheum's Saturday matinee is going to be made happy. She will go away after the show with a big dollie in her arms—a doll that can walk and talk! It will be a gift from Frank Ward, who is now at that theater and who uses such a doll in his act. Mr. Ward wants some little girl between 5 and 12 years of age to own the other doll, he will give it to her at the matinee. But she must be there to obtain it, and must walk down the aisle, when her number is called, and claim the doll over the footlights.

VALENTINO AS ROMEO, AND NORMA AS JULIET

BY HARRY CARR

Norma Talmadge as Juliet!

Rodolph as Romeo!

That is the real inside of the feverish anxiety on the part of Valentino to retire from Paramount.

As the picture is planned, it will be one of the most stupendous productions of recent motion-picture history.

They have been looking for a long time for a story big enough and fine enough to give a real opportunity for the growing strength and power of Norma Talmadge as an actress of emotional scenes.

She is now in the midst of a production of "Within The Law." This will be followed by another modern play. Following that Miss Talmadge had it in mind to re-film "The Garden of Allah," which was made once by Pauline Frederick.

To this end she took a caravan trip through the Sahara Desert last summer. She had a wonderfully interesting experience; but somewhere on the trip, changed her mind about "The Garden of Allah." In all probability she will abandon the production.

Miss Talmadge's husband, Joseph Schenk, when I asked him about "Romeo and Juliet," yesterday, admitted that such a production, with Norma as Juliet and Valentino as Romeo was among his future production plans.

Doug Broadens Work of Foreign Exploitation

A project for the road-showing of "Robin Hood" in Europe has been instituted by Douglas Fairbanks, and with this plan in mind he has appointed for his personal representative abroad, R. W. McFarland, formerly production manager for Mayflower, and later for Nazimova, while she was making "A Doll's House" and "Salome." Mr. McFarland was also at one time personal representative for the late George Loane Tucker.

Mr. McFarland will have his headquarters at the offices of the Allied Artists in London, and will handle the presentation of "Robin Hood" through the British Isles. The picture is showing already in London. The distribution on the European continent will be handled through the Paris office of the Allied Artists.

Clarence Erickson, who has been representing the Fairbanks interests abroad, will return to the Hollywood studio, to become assistant to John Fairbanks. Mr. McFarland will leave here Monday, and sail for Europe the 27th inst.

Insists That Actors Fit Roles Assigned Them

"Secrets of Paris," screen version of Eugene Sue's "The Mysteries of Paris," closes its second and last week at the Symphony Theater tomorrow.

Many times, when a director has an unusual story to work with, such as Sue's world-read novel, he is inclined not to be so particular about the cast, but not so with Whitman Bennett, director of "Secrets of Paris."

He insisted on men and women who, not only must physically resemble the characters in Sue's work of fiction, but who also must have the ability to live the characters they were portraying, and he spent months in assembling the cast which is now reliving on the screen the work of the famous French writer.

"Secrets of Paris" will be followed, starting Sunday, by William Farnum, who, after nearly three years absence from the screen, makes his first reappearance in Los Angeles at the Symphony in "Without Compromise," the sort of big, throbbing story that suits "Bill" Farnum so well and made him so universally popular.

ADD TO STAFF

Two Additions Made to West Coast Theaters' Forces

In line with a pretentious expansion program which was mapped out at the beginning of the new year, following a convention of the entire managerial personnel in session with the board of directors of the West Coast Theaters, Inc., who own, operate and control over sixty theaters in the Southland, two important announcements were made today by General Manager Harry C. Arthur.

Pertaining to the exploitation and general publicity of forthcoming attractions, it was announced by Mr. Arthur that Clem Pope, formerly managing director of the Symphony Theater, has been recently added to the West Coast forces.

It was also announced by Arthur that Charles A. Gom, formerly of the Los Angeles Express has joined the West Coast staff.

"FIRST FIFTY YEARS" AN ABSORBING PLAY

A unique and absorbing study of married life is "The First Fifty Years," Henry Myers's new drama now on view at the Egan Theater with Evelyn Vaughan and William S. Rainey in the two leading roles.

Myers has taken the always-vague subject, marriage, and has handled it without any gloves or sugar-coated phrases. He doesn't try to solve the perplexities of husband-wife existence; in fact he doesn't think there is any solution, other than the philosophy of tolerance, forebearance and indifference that comes with age.

The first fifty years are the hardest, so the hero and heroine who marry in 1872 go through the seven various episodes of the play to the golden wedding at the last.

Critics have called it a remarkable play, well constructed, interesting, smartly written and the work of the two players, Evelyn Vaughan and William S. Rainey is flawless.

DRAMA

THE PILGRIMAGE PLAY

DECISION SOON REGARDING ITS FUTURE

By Edwin Schallert

Within the next two weeks, the future of the Pilgrimage Play, the dramatic version of the life of Christ, which has been a matter of speculation ever since the death of Mrs. Christine Wetherill Stevenson, its founder, will probably be determined. A meeting is to be held in Philadelphia the 27th inst., at which will be present the relatives of the late Mrs. Stevenson, as well as several Californians who are interested in the future of the open-air pageant drama. Principal among the latter will be Mrs. Clara Stocker McCarthy, who recently went East to consult with Samuel Price Wetherill, brother of the the deceased, concerning the project. At the time of the forthcoming conference, it will probably be decided whether steps will be taken to permit the Pilgrimage Play to become a civic proposition, or whether it will remain a private enterprise.

The Pilgrimage Play was produced for three successive summers in an outdoor amphitheater, known as the El Camino Real Theater, located at the foot of Cahuenga Pass. It has been increasingly successful from year to year, and is regarded now as one of the important summer attractions of California. It is said that Mrs. Stevenson made no formal legal provision for its continuance upon her death, and consequently there has been some difficulty in the settling of the future conduct of the production. That it will be continued is undoubted, because of the important significance it has assumed in the life of the community.

During the three seasons past Mrs. Stevenson had personally supervised the presentation of the play. It had represented her life work and she had conducted a great deal of research in Palestine in an endeavor to attain a more realistic interpretation of the biblical happenings. The play has always been regarded as bringing a high spiritual inspiration to the audiences, and at the same time has been a drama of great beauty. Several hundred persons were usually engaged in the staging of the production and in playing the various roles.

Mrs. Stevenson died several months ago.

At the Metropolitan

The pictures which are to be shown during the opening weeks of Grauman Metropolitan Theater, have been selected, according to an announcement made yesterday by the Grauman management. The first, of course, will be Gloria Swanson's starring film, "My American Wife." In this Antonio Moreno and Walter Long have important supporting roles.

Following this will come "Nobody's Money," starring Jack Holt; "The Ne'er Do Well," from Rex Beach's story, with Thomas Meighan plus Lila Lee as leading woman; "Dark Secrets," starring Dorothy Dalton; "The White Flower," which was made in Hawaii, with Betty Compson in the stellar role; "Java Head," a George Melford production with Leatrice Joy, Jacqueline Logan, Raymond Hatton, George Fawcett and Albert Roscoe; "Racing Hearts," starring Agnes Ayres and "Bella Donna" with Pola Negri. Not all of these have been definitely decided on, bu the majority of them will be shown.

Valentino Denies Brother

Rodolph Valentino wires an emphatic denial to the report that he has a brother, named Tito Valentino playing in the pictures. "I have no relatives whatsoever in this country by that name or any other," he declares. Tito Valentino is named in the cast of "The Midnight Flower," a film production in seven reels, which is to have its premiere tonight at the Ambassador Theater.

Landis With Vitagraph

Cullen Landis has been signed by Vitagraph for one of the leading roles in "Masters of Men."

NEWS OF SOUTHERN COUNTIES

MEXICAN TELLS MURDER STORY

Admits Presence as Rancher Was Killed

Informant Caught Trying to Take Own Life

Third Man Involved Sought by El Centro Police

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

EL CENTRO, Jan. 18.—Caught in the act of attempting his own life by cutting his throat with a safety-razor blade that evidently had been smuggled to him, a Mexican prisoner held here in the County Jail in connection with the recent murder of Mike Fornasera, a rancher near Meloland, and the mutilation of his wife and three children, confessed he was present when the crime was committed and revealed evidence that resulted in the capture of J. J. Ortega, asserted by the prisoner to be the man who did the actual killing. He also gave the name of a third party whom he said was present. Deputy sheriffs today were expected to bring in this man.

Ortega is reported to be an American-born Mexican. He lives about four miles from the Fornasera home. The Sheriff's office today refused to confirm or deny the reports incident to the case, while the search for the other Mexican went on.

SUPPORTS STORY

The report is in accord with evidence given by one of the three children found forty-eight hours after the crime was committed, which proved the outrage to have been perpetrated by three Mexicans who were bent on plunder.

However, there have been conflicting reports about the motive for the crime, which was asserted by officers to be one of the most inhuman in the history of the country.

The rancher was found dead in the yard of his home with his head beaten almost to a pulp while his wife and three children were found inside the house with their heads mangled and lacerated. Two of the children had broken jaws. The mother is still in the hospital unable to talk. The case took on a new angle when the manner of the crime led to the belief on the part of many that it was the consummation of an Italian vendetta.

NEW ANGLES

With the reported arrest of Ortega fresh angles developed. It was rumored that Ortega was indebted to Fornasera for a considerable loan of money and this might have given rise to the crime. The Mexican who is reported to have confessed and given Ortega away is one of three who were taken into custody by Sheriff's forces shortly after the crime was discovered.

It is thought that the informant, whose name is withheld, became alarmed through fear of certain discovery of his implication in the affair and through fear attempted to commit suicide.

Angelenos Buy Santa Barbara Medical Spring

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SANTA BARBARA, Jan. 18. — W. A. Hamilton and Ben H. Rocke, Los Angeles capitalists, head a company which today bought the Veronica medicinal springs property, comprising 140 acres on the westerly boundary of the city, more than $250,000 being involved in the deal.

The new company proposes a national advertising campaign and large improvements here in marketing Veronica water. For thirty years the business has been managed by F. H. Kimball of this city and San Francisco, who, as president of the company, is known in the drug trade throughout the United States. Kimball plans a long sea voyage.

STREET PLAN PUSHED

Property Condemnation Sought In Santa Monica

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

SANTA MONICA, Jan. 17.—Determined that Trolleyway shall be widened by means of a bond issue a resolution was adopted by committeemen of the Chamber of Commerce requesting and demanding that the city at once begin action to have the necessary property condemned by the courts.

The action followed a report of Charles Hile, chairman of the committee on street openings who explained that opening of Trolleyway had been given every consideration and that the members of the committee unanimously had come to the conclusion that the only feasible method was to have condemnation proceedings begun at once.

The action of the committeemen is subject to indorsement of the board of directors of the Chamber, but there is little doubt in the minds of those favoring the project that the indorsement will be obtained.

CHANGES ARE MADE IN SANTA ANA BANK

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SANTA ANA, Jan. 15.—Following a meeting of the board of directors of the American National Bank, which was held yesterday and at which E. H. Richards was chosen to succeed Mayor John G. Mitchell as president, several changes were made in the staff. M. D. Clark, connected with the First National Bank of Anaheim, was elected cashier to succeed J. E. Bermann. Fleetwood Bell and Charles L. Cotant were elected vice-presidents, neither to be active at this time.

The new directors are E. B. Covington, M. S. Cloyes, Sterling Price, E. H. Richards, Fleeting Bell, Charles L. Cotant, C. E. Walker and John W. Norton.

BEGGAR'S PLEA MELTS JUDGE

Mercy Tempers Justice for Disabled War Veteran

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

ONTARIO, Jan. 18.—Justice is still tempered with mercy. Judge George R. Holbrook in the Police Court not only suspended the execution of a sentence of $10 fine or ten days in jail, but dug down into his pocket and handed the defendant 50 cents with which to buy something to eat.

H. C. Van Landingham, a disabled soldier, pleaded guilty to a charge of begging on the streets, but at the same time recited his efforts to get work, unsuccessful in account of his poor health.

His straightforward story melted the heart of the court.

RAISE FUND FOR BATTLE ON DRILLING

Long Beach Cemetery Plot Owners Prepare to Regain Burial Ground Property

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

LONG BEACH, Jan. 18. — The war of lot owners in Sunnyside Cemetery, in the heart of the Signal Hill oil field, to prevent desecration of graves by an oil-drilling company, was launched in earnest today when Attorney Walter J. Desmond, former postmaster, was named to lead the fight. Mr. Desmond has been retained by the Cemeteries Protective Association to force the oil operators to stop drilling activities. He is said to have volunteered his services.

The association, composed of persons who have relatives buried in Sunnyside Cemetery, is raising a fund with which to carry on the battle. A total of $1100 already has been subscribed, and additional money will be available soon. A mass meeting of burial-plot owners has been called for Monday night in the George Washington School.

Preparations for drilling are being made on a plot of ground which, until recently, was a part of the cemetery, it is charged. The property was sold by the Sunnyside Cemetery Association and then leased to a company, the identity of which has not been established. Efforts to prevent the operators from gaining access to the lease by appealing to the Cemetery Association to close its gates to the company's trucks failed recently, the association refusing to comply with the requests.

Efforts to launch a movement for the creation of a municipally owned cemetery far removed from oil wells will be taken up at Monday's mass meeting, it was said today. The Protective Association is headed by Dr. Ralph L. Taylor, V. A. Peeri and Wayne Foster.

REDISTRICT PLAN AT RIVERSIDE TO STAND

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

RIVERSIDE Jan. 18.—The recent redistricting of Riverside county by the Board of County Supervisors to equalize the population of the five districts, as required by a State law, will stand, regardless of protests by numerous residents, according to a letter today by Dist.-Atty. Loyal C. Kelley to County Auditor Charles O. Reid.

Mr. Reid was instructed to apportion taxes, according to the new arrangement of districts.

MERCHANTS IN BANQUET IN RIVERSIDE

Angeleno Store Head Gives Address on Credits Before Large Assembly

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

RIVERSIDE, Jan. 18.—Riverside Business Men's Association conducted their annual banquet last evening at Mission Inn, at which more than 100 merchants and women were present. Directors were elected by ballots mailed several weeks ago. They will elect officers at a meeting to be called soon by President V. C. Moore.

President Moore presided and spoke briefly on aims of the association. He introduced Mayor S. C. Evans, who acted as chairman.

L. M. Crosthwaite of Barker Brothers' store at Los Angeles, spoke on "Relationship of Credits to Sales and Publicity," during which he emphasized the importance of encouraging credit. But the merchants must be masters of the situation, or the traveling public will be, he asserted, adding that there is no middle ground.

Captive Leaps From Auto in Sight of Jail

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SANTA BARBARA, Jan. 18.—Tony Rose, alias Cruz, under arrest charged with burglary of homes in Carpinteria, leaped from the Sheriff's car in the heart of busy traffic in the business district this afternoon as he was being returned to the County Jail from examination in a township court, and escaped. After a hurried search, engaged in by every peace officer of this district, he was found in a chicken coop in the lower part of town. At the time of the escape Rose was in charge of Constable Talmadge of Carpinteria, who had removed the handcuffs from the prisoner because the jail was in sight. Officers declare the accused man is wanted in many cities for housebreaking.

SEWAGE COMMISSION IS RECOMMENDED

SANTA MONICA DISPOSAL PLANT IN BAD CONDITION, DOCTOR SAYS

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

SANTA MONICA, Jan. 17.—Recommendations that a sewage commission be appointed and an expert on the subject be employed as consulting engineer were contained in a report on sewage made at the Santa Monica-Ocean Park Chamber of Commerce committeeman dinner last night by Dr. J. S. Kelsey, chairman of the committee on sewage of that organization.

Dr. Kelsey stated that a complete inspection of the present plant revealed that it was not functioning in a manner necessary for sanitary results. Recommendations made, urged an adequate sewage disposal plant, chlorination treatment and screens and the establishment of a joint outfall with Venice.

OFFICERS WATCH FOR LOS ANGELES MAN

JOHN THEROFF DISAPPEARED 9TH INST., POLICE ARE TOLD

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

SANTA MONICA, Jan. 18.—The police have been requested by sons of John Theroff, 57 years of age, to keep a sharp lookout for their father, who disappeared from his home, 1051 South Flower street, Los Angeles, the 9th inst.

Henry Theroff informed police that his father had been ill for a number of years and was suffering from the hallucination that he was being persecuted. On the afternoon of the 9th his wife wanted to leave the house for a short stay and was told by her husband that if she left she would never return. She did not take the statement seriously, but when she returned found her husband had gone.

The son said his father often came to the Bay District. He is described as being a small man with brown hair and gray eyes. When he left he had $25 on his person.

WOMEN HELD FOR LARCENY

One With Many Aliases Battles Deputy Sheriffs at San Bernardino With Butcher Knife

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

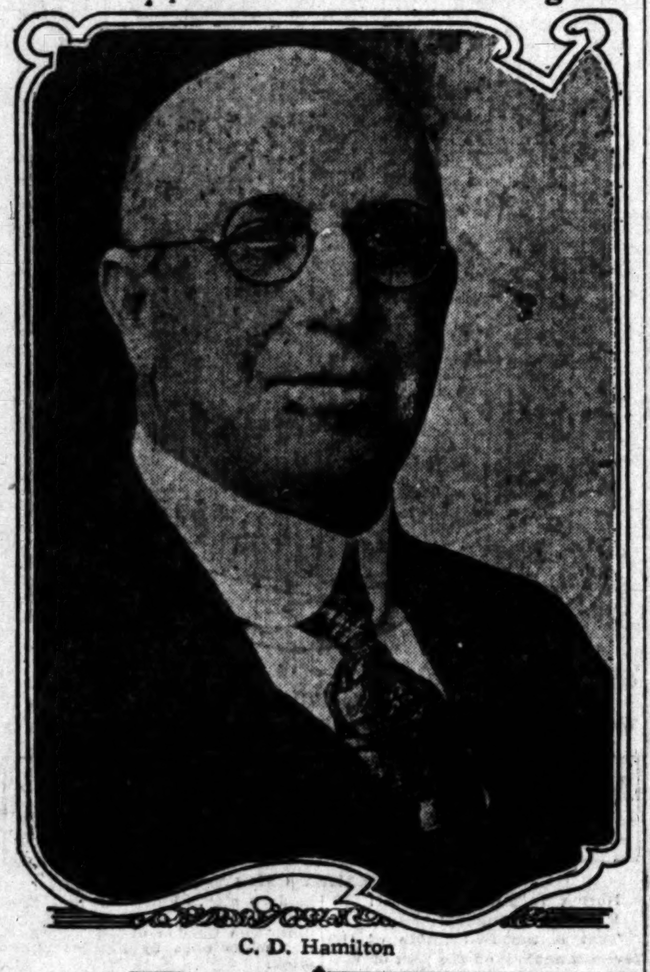
POMONA, Jan. 18.—Overpowered when she attacked Deputy Sheriffs Shay and Brown of San Bernardino with a butcher knife and then attempted to stab herself, Mrs. E. A. Graves, alias Mrs. R. Bruce, alias Mrs. Amelia Graves, was taken to the San Bernardino County Jail last night, where she is being held to answer to a charge of having stolen over $8000 worth of property from Mrs. Henderson Barnett, keeper of an apartment-house and proprietor of an art studio at San Bernardino.

With the woman when the officers took her was Miss Graves, alias Miss Bruce, alias Miss Webster, who also will be accused of grand larceny and burglary. Mrs. Barnett identified many articles found in possession of the two women as belonging to her.

The two woman had been under surveillance by local police and were being held on a charge of obtaining goods on false pretenses. They were arrested Tuesday evening as they were leaving the city on a Los Angeles-bound street car. Investigation revealed that they had made many purchases from local stores on credit, giving a different name and address in almost every instance. Much of the goods was returned to the business houses yesterday. The women had been stopping at an apartment-house at 138 West Holt avenue. Their screams could be heard for some distance about the neighborhood as the officers started with the pair to San Bernardino.

BANNING MAN HIGHLY HONORED

Made Supervisors' Chairman Again



C. D. Hamilton

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

RIVERSIDE, Jan. 18. — C. D. Hamilton of Banning has been re-elected chairman of the Board of Supervisors of Riverside county. He has been a Supervisor for eight years and has been chairman for four years. Only once before in the history of the county has a Supervisor been reelected to the chairmanship after continuous service in that capacity for four years.

Hamilton is an almond grower and was clerk of San Bernardino county twenty-four years ago.

INJUNCTION HALTS TRIAL

Magistrate's Liquor Case Dramatically Stopped by Superior Court Judge's Order

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

BAKERSFIELD, Jan. 18.—With a jury ready to proceed with the trial of A. Olivieri, 603 Sumner street, City Magistrate Baugman today was restrained by an order from Judge T. N. Harvey of Superior Court, Department Three, who issued a writ of prohibition to Irwin and Laird, counsel for Olivieri. The latter is charged with keeping and storing intoxicating liquors in a public place.

Under the writ of prohibition, a test will be made of the City Court's right to prosecute alleged violators of the prohibition laws under a special ordinance, which is said to conflict with the Wright Act and the Constitution of the State.

Delivery of the Superior Court writ was made in somewhat dramatic fashion, Attorney Laird bringing it into the Magistrate Court just as Judge Baughman was about to order the trial to proceed. The venire of jurymen was in attendance and city officers who participated in the arrest of Olivieri were present as witnesses.

Judge Harvey's writ of prohibition was not issued until 10 o'clock this morning, when court convened. Olivieri's trial had been set by Judge Baughman for the same hour. In record-breaking time Judge Harvey perused the petitions of Olivieri's counsel, signed the order and handed it to Attorney Laird. Rushing across the street from the Courthouse to the City Hall, Laird broke into the proceedings in Judge Baughman's court and presented the injunction.

Counsel for Olivieri contend in their petition the City Magistrate's Court is an Inferior Court, that it has no right to try cases in which infractions of the Eighteenth Amendment and the Wright Act are charged under the provisions of a special ordinance passed for that purpose, and which is in conflict with Section II, Article II of the State Constitution.

Olivieri was arrested on December 27 by officers M. E. Tice and G. C. Kayes on a charge of illegal possession of liquor. He was released on bail and in about half an hour again was arrested on a similar charge by officers Paul Shannon and M. A. Downe, who did not know of the first arrest. It is asserted that Olivieri on both occasions had liquor in his possession. The defendant offered a plea of not guilty.

Two Injured in Car Crash Near Santa Barbara

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

SANTA BARBARA, Jan. 17.—Oscar Singert and a companion, whose identity is unknown, are under surgeons' care at Cottage Hospital, having been injured severely on the State highway thirty miles north of Santa Barbara when their automobile overturned and crashed into a wall of earth. Motorists rescued the men from beneath their car which was badly wrecked. Both men were unconscious. Their condition is serious.

Singert says he and his companion are from Portland, Ore., and that he is western manager for a national concert bureau. He says the steering-knuckle on his car broke.

DUMPING OF SEWAGE TO BE FOUGHT

Santa Monica Officials Ask for Law Keeping Ocean Front Clear

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

SANTA MONICA, Jan. 18.—William H. Carter, commissioner of public works, John A. Morton, city engineer, and Henry E. Elrod, consulting engineer, after an inspection of sewage disposal all along the Santa Monica Bay shore and as far south as Long Beach, will ask Hugh Pomeroy, assemblyman from the sixty-second assembly district, to introduce an act forbidding dumping of sewage, under present conditions anywhere in the ocean along these shores.

To back this proposed legislation a report will be forwarded to the state board of health on conditions as the commissioner and engineer found them.

The commissioner told the city council that these conditions were disgusting although Santa Monica is 100 per cent better off than any other community in the entire bay region.

A chlorinator plant will be put into operation today and report has it that it will be 99 per cent efficient, bearing the verbal approval of the State Board of Health. When the Dorr screen is put in place a permit will be issued by the board. The commission expressed the opinion that while this would meet the needs for the present it does not alter the fact that sewage should not be dumped into the ocean in front of Santa Monica or any other city.

Judge Hervey Is Speaker at Redlands Bank

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

REDLANDS, Jan. 18.—Judge William Rhodes Hervey, executive vice-president of the Pacific Southwest Trust and Savings Bank, addressed the officers, directors and employees of the local branch yesterday on the subject "The Business of a Trust Company."

Judge Hervey has been interested in the trust business in California for twenty years, and for twelve years has been in charge of the trust department of the Pacific Southwest.

In his talk he brought out the possibilities of the trust business as it now is conducted by the larger banks and trust companies. He said that the trust company is the one institution with a soul. Its permanent characteristics enable it to handle a varied class of business which no other organization could undertake. It has the confidence of the people because there never has been an instance when the trust company has not conducted the business in a just and efficient manner to the best interests of the beneficiary.

CORONA FIRM ELECTS

Foothill Lemon Company Notified Crop Outlook Good

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

CORONA, Jan. 18.—At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Corona Foothill Lemon Company the following board of directors was elected: R. L. Willits, W. A. McIntosh, H. R. Case, George E. Snidecor, Stanley Linn, T. C. Jameson and W. C. Barth.

In the organization meeting the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: R. L. Willits, president; W. A. McIntosh, vice-president; H. R. Case, secretary; George E. Snidecor, treasurer; R. L. Hampton, manager, assistant secretary and treasurer.

The reports show the company has enjoyed a very prosperous year and the outlook for the ensuing year is very good. The crop outlook is even better this year than that of last year, the officials state.

BOX OF "BOOZE" FOOLS THIEF

Suspicious-Looking Package Taken from Freight Car Contained Dolls

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

VENTURA, Jan. 18. — There was a disappointed thief somewhere in this county a night or two ago. He stole from a freight car a large, well-made box, some three feet in length and in shape suggesting booze. He opened it and found it packed with kewpie dolls. He hastily abandoned it in an orchard near Santa Susana, where it was found yesterday. The box was consigned from a San Francisco firm to a New York store.

Association at Redlands Plans for Busy Year

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

REDLANDS, Jan. 18.—Plans for the greatest year in the history of the Young Women's Christian Association here were made at the close of the Association's most successful year at the annual meeting today. Announcement was made by Miss Fannie Langford of improvements to the building to provide rooms for the club work of the girls of the city. The annual meeting was preceded by a dinner.

The directors elected for the coming year were: Mrs. S. Guy Jones, Mrs. H. A. Westerbrook, Mrs. Rodney Cranmer, Miss Maude Barkelew, Miss Salome Rader, Miss Borghild Ericsen, Mrs. C. H. Clock and Mrs. Edson McLane. F. A. Leonard was elected to the advisory board.

Mrs. A. O. Childs, house secretary, reported on the plans for remodeling the building. The property here is valued at $40,000.

Moss Ethel Amis, general secretary, presented her report, showing the work in the various clubs, other activities and the attendance at the Asilomar conferences.

Report on Loans Indicates Great Ontario Growth

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

ONTARIO, Jan. 18.—Ontario's growth and prosperity is reflected in the report of J. O. Henderson, secretary of the organization, at the annual meeting of members of the People's Mutual Building and Loan Association, to the effect that loans have passed the $1,000,000, mark.

The secretary's report showed total loans outstanding to the amount of $1,047,500. The greater portion of this sum is loaned for the erection of new dwellings, the association being largely responsible for the building of more than 150 new residences in Ontario during the past year. The Building and Loan has been operating here for thirty-one years and has been one of the most important factors in the upbuilding of the city. Members of the association received as dividends and interest during the last year a total of $54,207.27, according to the report of Secretary Henderson.

H. I. Ross and C. B. Ford, retiring members of the board of directors, were re-elected unanimously and the board organized with A. P. Harwood, president; Charles Frankish, vice-president; J. O. Henderson, secretary; C. C. Peabody, assistant secretary, and E. H. Joliffe, attorney. Mr. Ross, Mr. Ford and Mr. Henderson were appointed members of the valuation committee.

FEDERAL ROAD MAN SURVEYS HIGHWAYS

KERN COUNTY SUPERVISORS PLAN DEVELOPMENT CAMPAIGN

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

BAKERSFIELD, Jan. 18. — Working in conjunction with members of the County Board of Supervisors, Jack Moskowits, senior highway engineer of the United States Bureau of Public Roads, San Francisco, is stationed at the county Courthouse for the next few days, completing a survey of county roads.

Moskowits said today that he probably would be able to finish the work mapped out within the present week, and that he then would return to the bureau headquarters in San Francisco.

The Federal engineer came to Bakersfield at the request of the local Board of Supervisors, which is engaged in road development, which requires co-operation with the governmental regional authorities.

POLICE SEEK BRUTAL PAIR

Two Ranch Hands Suspected of Torturing Aged Man and Stealing Money

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

PORTERVILLE, Jan. 18.—Officers of Tulare, Kern, Kings, Fresno and Los Angeles counties are searching for Sam Richeon and Bob Frasier, ranch hands, wanted for an attack on Constable Graham at Tipton last night and believed guilty of the boldest and most cruel robbery in the history of Tulare county, when M. Lynch, elderly rancher of Frasier Valley, was beaten, tortured and robbed of $250 and two pistols the night before.

Two men, believed to be Richeon and Frasier, came to the home of Mr. Lynch at supper time, bound, flogged and tortured him while they searched for his money. They threatened to place his feet in the live coals of the fireplace and to kill him, unless he revealed the hiding place of $50. Later they found $195 in gold in a trunk and left him bound on the bed.

Ivan Ball, to whom Mr. Lynch has rented his place since the death of his wife five years ago, arrived for work in the morning and rescued the old man. Search led to the Tipton vicinity. As Graham attempted to arrest Richeon and Frasier, Richeon inflicted a flesh wound on the officer and both men escaped. They are thought to be headed south and posses are scouring the country. Mr. Lynch is resting here with relatives.

SARAZEN AND HUTCHISON NOSED OUT BY ARMSTRONG AND MACBETH 1 U

MACBETH'S SPECTACULAR PUTTING WINS VICTORY

Wilshire Pair Overcome Huge Lead of Professional Stars by Great Exhibition of Golf

BY BOB LOCKE

Norman Macbeth and Scotty Armstrong yesterday afternoon at the Wilshire Country Club defeated Gene Sarazen and Jock Hutchison by a score of 1 up on the eighteenth hole. The local men played wonderful golf and toward the end of the match outplayed their big-league rivals.

The match started with a big gallery following the players from green to green. For the first five holes Gene and Jock played much better golf than the other two and as a result, at the eighth hole the pros had the Wilshire men four up with nine to go. At this point the local men tightened up, dropped a couple of birdies, halved a few holes and on the sixteenth green held the pros to the seventeenth with the score 1 up. Halving the last hole gave the club men the title for the day.

Gene Sarazen, national open champion, played great golf toward the first of the game but as they passed hole after hole Sarazen weakened on his putting. He also hooked a couple of drives that were not too good for his score.

Jock Hutchison looked the best of the four. Playing a steady, safe game, the jovial Scotsman played easily the best game. Caught in the sand trap on the seventh green he executed one of his stop shots that drew a round of applause from the spectators.

Macbeth, although somewhat wild on his iron shots did some fine driving and made some long putts that, had they failed, might have cost them the match.

Armstrong starred on the green with his consistent putting. Several times when the score was at the danger point he came through with a neat putt and the day was saved. On the whole, the local boys earned their match in a clean-cut fashion and not by luck at all.

The score by holes and total were as follows:

SECOND ROUND WILL TAKE OFF ON SUNDAY

The second round of the soccer schedule will start next Sunday at Exposition Park when the Los Angeles Athletic Club meets the fast Long Beach United team. Both these teams are game from the start and a close game will be seen.

Another initial game of note will be between the L. A. Uniteds and the Samson Tire Company. These two teams were high up in the scoring of the first half of the schedule and are anxious to fight it out in this frame.

LINCOLN IS WINNER IN TWO TILTS

Franklin Fives Drubbed Twice After Rough and Tumble Battles

By virtue of a pair of victories over the Franklin 130-pound and heavyweight quintets yesterday in the Lincoln gym, the Railsplitter lightweight and unlimited fives are calmly perched at the top of the city basketball leagues with two wins and no defeats. Coach Frank "Rabbit" Mallette's Lincoln crew finished on the long end of a 34-to-17 score while Leo Livernash's Emancipator babes triumphed over the Kiteflyer midgets, 16 to 6.

The battle between the unlimited fives was on the verge of becoming a battle royal when the final whistle stopped proceedings. But Pete Thompson and Jimmy McCue were responsible for twenty-eight Railsplitter points. Pruett caged the pellet for twelve of the Franklin fives.

The midget struggle went to Lincoln in easy fashion. Thomas and Briggs, guards for the winners, featured for the winners. Long looked good for the losers. The line-ups:

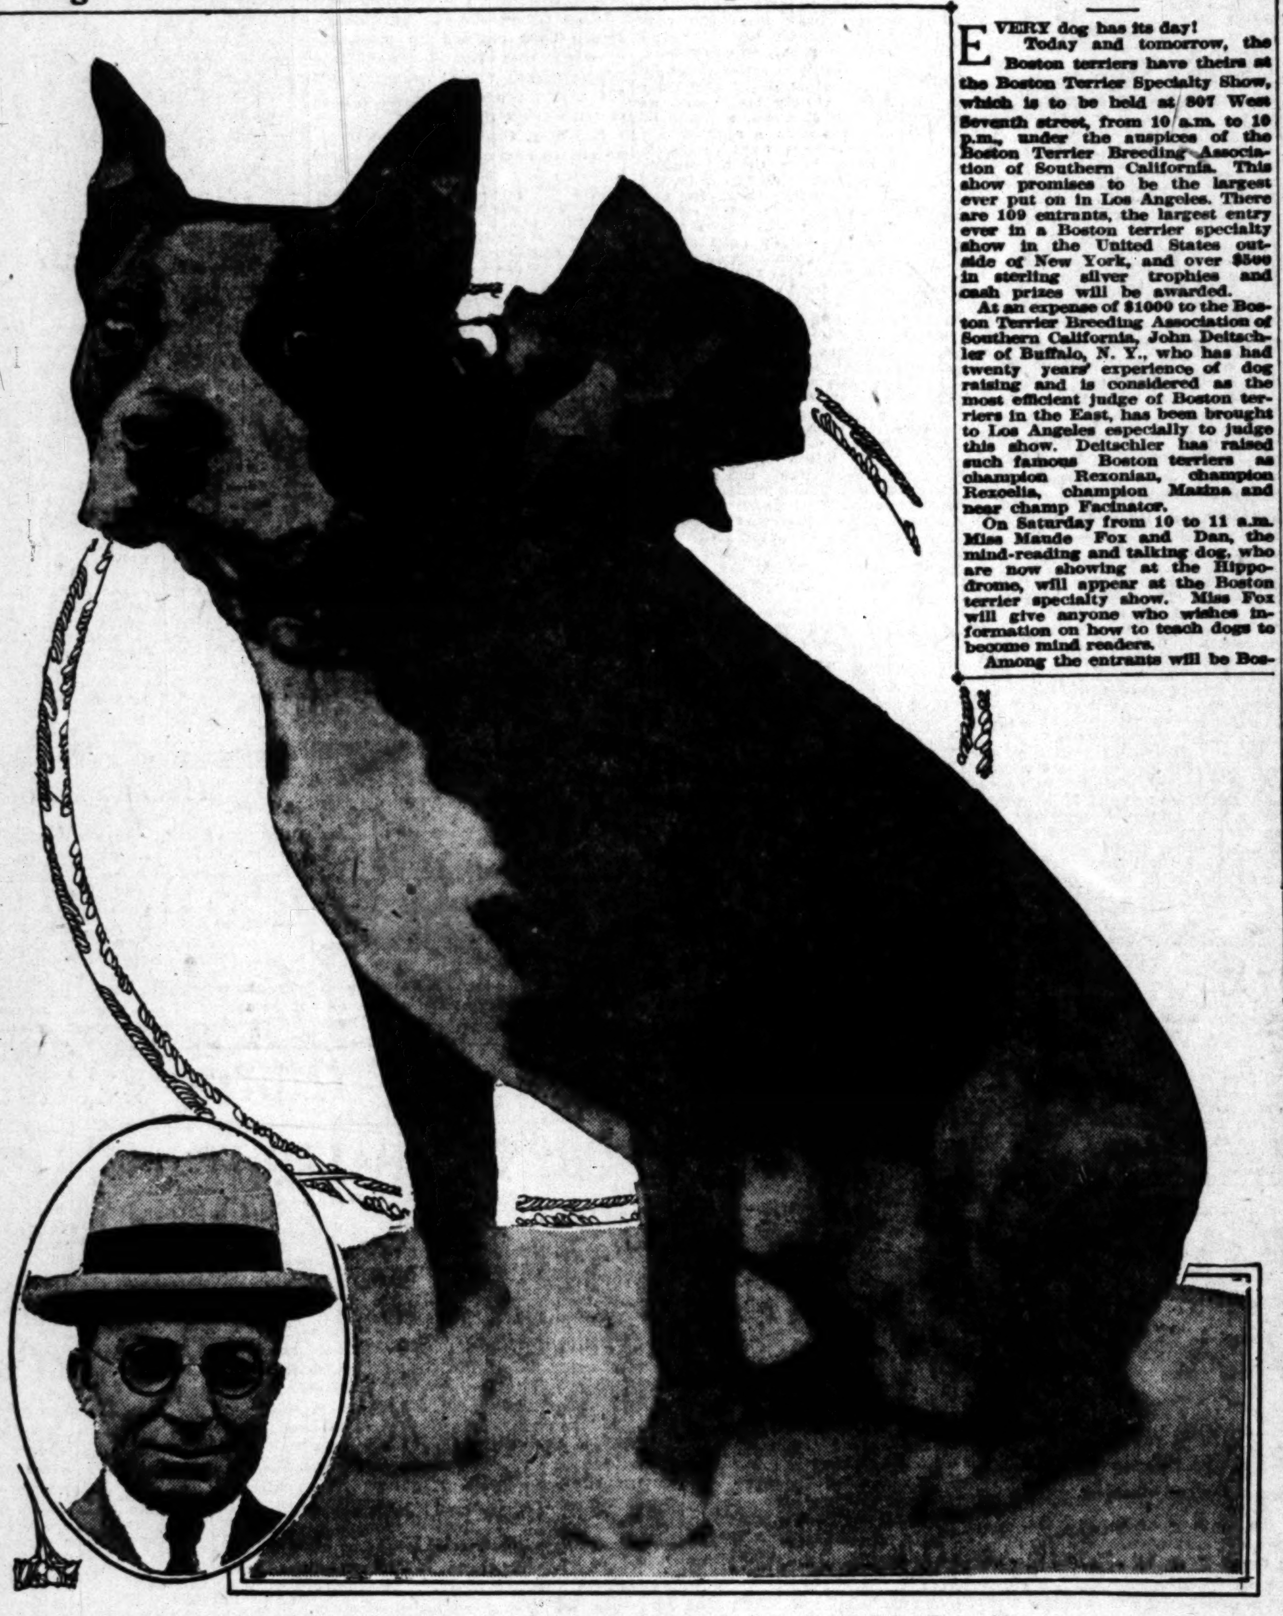
HOT DOG, THE BOSTON TERRIERS ARE WITH US

High-Powered Beantown Canines in Large Numbers on View at Show



Dan, the Dog that Reads Your Mind, and (insert) Judge John Deitschler

EVERY dog has its day!

Today and tomorrow, the Boston terriers have theirs at the Boston Terrier Specialty Show, which is to be held at 807 West Seventh street, from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m., under the auspices of the Boston Terrier Breeding Association of Southern California. This show promises to be the largest ever put on in Los Angeles. There are 109 entrants, the largest entry ever in a Boston terrier specialty show in the United States outside of New York, and over $500 in sterling silver trophies and cash prizes will be awarded.

At an expense of $1000 to the Boston Terrier Breeding Association of Southern California, John Deitschler of Buffalo, N. Y., who has had twenty years' experience of dog raising and is considered as the most efficient judge of Boston terriers in the East, has been brought to Los Angeles especially to judge this show. Deitschler has raised such famous Boston terriers as champion Rexonian, champion Rexcelia, champion Mazina and near champ Facinator.

On Saturday from 10 to 11 a.m. Miss Maude Fox and Dan, the mind-reading and talking dog, who are now showing at the Hippodrome, will appear at the Boston terrier specialty show. Miss Fox will give anyone who wishes information on how to teach dogs to become mind readers.

Among the entrants will be Boston terriers from Seattle, San Francisco, Stockton, Sacramento, Santa Barbara, Pasadena, Whittier and San Diego. Champion Lady Harmless, champion Arroyo Aztec, champion Onstad's Tommy Tucker, champion Tyron's Rejoice and Lady Tessie. Miss Florence Hutchinson of Seattle has brought two dogs here to enter the show. Mrs. R. Lowe of San Diego, Mr. W. S. Macy of Santa Barbara, Mr. Freeman Ford of Pasadena and Mrs. Ella Harris of Harris will also send in entrants. Mr. and Mrs. Max Sanborn of Whittier will enter Sanborn Scrap and their new dog, which they recently purchased in the East, Sanborn Statzette. Joseph Slocum of Whittier will be superintendent of the show.

POLO DEMONS ARE ON DECK

Harry East, New Mallet Star, Will Appear

Riverside Will Try to Put Midwick Down

Opening Game of Season on Next Sunday

The opening game of the 1923 polo season will be played on the grounds of the Midwick Country Club on Sunday afternoon at 2:30. The competing teams will be Midwick and the team representing the Riverside Polo Club.

On last Sunday, at Riverside, the crack Riverside team defeated Midwick by a score of 14 to 4. However, it must be stated that the Midwick team was crippled by the absence of two of its regular players, Lafayette Hughes who received a broken collar-bone in a recent practice game, and who will be out of the game for a period of several weeks to come, and Teddy Miller, who received a fracture in one of the small bones in his mallet hand. It is hoped, however, that Miller will be able to resume his place on the team in Sunday's game and with this fact assured, the Midwick polo followers feel certain of putting up a strong battle against the invading team. In addition to Miller, who plays at No. 2, the others in the Midwick line-up for Sunday's game will be J. A. Wigmore at No. 1, Arthur Perkins at No. 3, and Carleton Burke at back.

Harry East, the captain and mainstay of the Riverside team, has already proven himself a revelation to California polo fans. He is said to be the greatest player who has ever played in this part of the country, and is one of the highest rated players in the world. East plays the No. 2 position on his team and is playing in California for the first time this year as is also A. Albright, Jr., who plays at No. 1. Maj. Max. C. Fleischman, who is well-known to California polo followers, will play No. 3, and C. M. Dammers, a former Argentine player, will be at back for the Riverside ag gation.

It is expected by the polo c mittee at Midwick that there be a greater interest in the ga this year than ever before an is believed that they have been cessful in arranging for a pram which should prove of g interest to the general public assist greatly in increasing the ready large number of polo foll ers in this community.

Following the game on Sun a series of week-end matches be played continuously until middle of March, represen teams from the Del Monte Club, San Mateo Polo Club, Cardinals of San Francisco, Denver Polo Club, and three teams representing the 11th alry from Monterey, the 1st alry Division from Fort Bliss, and from Schofield barracks, Honolulu respectively.

With this schedule of game prospect, the sport-loving p in Los Angeles and vicinity be given an opportunity of se a larger number of good g than ever before in any one son.

PROS PREPARE FOR MATCHES

With less than a week to go before the Southern California open championships open, the plans for the biggest golfing affair in this part of the State are rapidly getting in shape. The course at Flintridge, where the matches are to be played, is in perfect condition and plans have been made for the best possible transportation to and from the course.

Probably the most prominent players to sign up are Gene Sarazen and Jock Hutchison. These two famous pros are the big favorites to cop off professional honors, but the public of Los Angeles has a lot of money that says some of the local pros will make the two stars run for their money. However, Monday will see to all that.

One of the best golfers in Los Angeles, who has been out of tournament play for some time, is scheduled to come back in this event. Dr. Paul Hunter, ex-California State amateur champion, has entered the tournament and, although he has not played in tournaments for some time, he is a great favorite to grab amateur titles. Hunter has been playing steadily and seems to be improving with each day of play.

Eddie Loos, pro at the Rancho Club, will be among those present when the players get the starter's gun on Monday. Loos, who led the field most of the way in the State affair, has been doing a lot of practicing and from reports from the club he has been studying Coueism. So day by day Eddie gets better and better. Loos is looked upon as a winning bet against the field and at the worst he will give all parties a close run.

TENNIS STARTS TOMORROW

Greatest Entry List for Some Time Signed up by Pasadena Racket Club

With one of the finest entry lists ever assembled for an invitational tennis tournament, the Pasadena Tennis Club will commence their first annual invitational tennis championship on their club courts Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Among the entrants will be found players of national reputation, including such well-known stars of the court as Maury McLaughlin, Harold Godshall, Cliff Herd, Bob Allen, Clarence Barker, Ken Hawks, Stan Welsh, Harold Dickenson, "Wyn" Mace, Miles Reinke, Paul Pickett and Howard Robinson, intermountain champion.

Play will start Saturday with the singles event which finds Miles Reinke meeting "Bun" Whinery, Herd fencing Donnell, Sinclair battling R. Houser and Dickenson crossing rackets with Harry Ashe in the feature matches of Saturday's program. Herd, Godshall, Barker and Allen all drew comparatively easy matches in the initial round and will not face strong opponents until Sunday.

Sunday there will be two rounds of singles and two doubles played. A beautiful loving cup will go to the winner of the singles event, while tennis suit cases will be offered by the club to the winners of the doubles championship. The tournament is a runner-up to the annual meeting of the club at which time plans for a new club and clubhouse will be discussed along with the election of officers and the presentation of the trophies. This meeting will be held the 29th inst.

Drawings were made yesterday by T. W. Perine, president of the club, and members of the tournament committee. Entrance fees must be paid on the court before an entrant starts a match and fifteen minutes only will be granted to a player before his match is registered as a default. Winners of all Saturday matches must appear at the club Sunday for doubles and second and third round singles. Following are the drawings and schedule of play.

Redlands and Chaffee Will Get Together

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

REDLANDS, Jan. 18.—Redlands high school basketball team will tangle with the Chaffey high quintet in the second game of the Citrus Belt basketball schedule for Redlands. The local team defeated San Bernardino in the first game two weeks ago but are looking forward to considerable scrap with Chaffey for the school always puts out a good basketball team.

Chaffey has lost to Riverside and with Pomona out of the schedule local fans are of the opinion that the game between Redlands and Pomona will be the deciding game of the season. San Bernardino has won the basketball championship for two or three years but will have a hard drag to come back this year.

Coach Smith of Redlands will use Reitzell and Maccubbin as forwards, Wise at center and Yost and Sutt as guards in the game against Chaffey.

PICKED JONES

st year I picked Jones as rica's best amateur player, Sweetser must be given pref- ce this year by right of might. tser not only is the champion, in winning the championship efeated Jones. This he accom- ed despite the fact that Jones perfect golf during their h at Brookline. Sweetser was d upon for super golf, and he ered it. Any fair-minded , therefore, must regard tser as just a little bit better Jones. And I say "just a lit- it better" because it would be possible to be better than s by any wider margin, as I Sweetser himself would ad-weetser has the same youth Jones has, and if anything he more physical strength than stocky Bobby. Sweetser is a of a boy, a pure-blooded An- axon from the mountains of ucky. He is what the Pied- section would call a moun- man. His big, handsome, physical makeup an- ces to all who behold him here is a mountaineer come into the lowlands for a look d.

MARKS AND GRIFFIN TO TANGLE UP

Coast Banty Champion Will Defend Laurels at Hollywood Tonight

Georgie Marks and "Dandy Dick" Griffin will clash in the principal attraction at the American Legion Hollywood arena tonight. Marks, who holds the bantamweight title of the Pacific Coast, expects the battle of his young life tonight, and is therefore trained to the minute. The Fort Worth boxer realizes that he must decisively defeat Marks and thereby knock Georgie off the throne upon which the little title-holder has been sitting so long. It is understood that the winner of tonight's fracas will be given a date some time in the near future with Johnny Buff, former world's champion, who is now in Los Angeles.

Matchmaker Frank Crowley has picked a pair of tough birds for the semi-wind-up in Sailor Billy Vincent and Bud Soules. These 145-pounders are real "knock'em dead" artists and should make it a battle over every foot of the four-round route.

Another hard-boiled duo, Willie O'Brien and Kid Moha, will meet in the special event at 126 pounds. Charley Sullivan is lined up with Danny Sirios at 138 pounds. Johnny Kenney will face Sid Bernard at 128 pounds. Benny Demske and Billy Morrisette, 158-pounders, clash in the second bout of the evening. Sailor Liston will make his second start at Hollywood tonight. This time out he meets Seaman Woods. George Blake will referee.

TIJUANA RESULTS

First race, five furlongs—Iris Girl (Long,) won; Badius (Glass,) second; Elmer W. (Slaughter,) third. Time, 1:03 3-5.

Second race, six furlongs—Vaughan Wells (Gerrell,) won; Cabin Creek (Carter,) second; Poacher (Petzold,) third. Time, 1:14 2-5.

Third race, six furlongs—Virgo (Martin,) won; Craven (D. Hurn,) second; Nebraska Lad (Petzold,) third. Time, 1:14 3-5.

Fourth race, mile and one furlong—Rhymer (Stevens,) won; Bessie Young (Wilson,) second; Dum (Petzold,) third. Time, 1:57 3-5.

Fifth race, one mile—Harry Budder (D. Hurn,) won; F. G. Corley (Fator,) second; Mayflower (Molter,) third. Time, 1:40.

Sixth race, one mile—Paisley (Carter,) won; Tassel (Taplin,) second; Bowsprit (C. Hurn,) third. Time, 1:41.

Seventh race, five furlongs—May Maslsby (Thomas,) won; Moringa (Carter,) second; Harrigan's Heir (Wilson,) third. Time 1:14 1-5.

Eighth race, mile and seventy yards—Louis (Stevens,) won; Katherine Rankin (Martin,) second; Black Thong (Petzold,) third. Time 1:46 2-5.

JOE BURNS AFTER FIGHTS IN SOUTH

Joe Burns, the San Francisco 122-pounder, writes that he will shortly be in Los Angeles after bouts. Burns will box in the north for a few weeks under the direction of Frank Tabor and "Moose" Tausig. Tabor and Tausig have a large booking-office in San Francisco for boxers.

GAMES TODAY

Pasadena at Long Beach.
Hollywood at Jefferson.
Manual Arts at Polytechnic.
Los Angeles High, bye.

Whether Long Beach High's unlimited basketball quintet will be ranked as a pennant contender or only an "also-ran" will be determined this afternoon when the Seasiders clash with the Pasadena five in the new Long Beach gymnasium. In the other City League casaba tilts on for today Jefferson will play host to Coach Fred Johnson's powerful Hollywood five, and Manual Arts and Polytechnic, both undefeated, meet in the Mechanics' huge gym.

Coach "Pinky" Griffith's Pasadena crew lost to the Hollywood cagemen, 41 to 23, last Friday, and while at present the Bulldogs do not appear as dangerous contenders for City League hoop honors, they will be a mighty tough morsel for the Jackrabbits to start in on. Long Beach will have the advantage of having the home court, but the Pasadenans should make it a regular battle.

Coach Kienholz's starting five will probably be Price and Anderson at forward, Bennett at center and Eaton and Don Hill at guard. Price and Anderson were regulars on last year's Jackrabbit quintet and the other three know enough about basketball that they understand they're to shoot the ball and not the referee, although in some cases the latter course is preferable. Collins and Berlinbaugh, forwards; Coburn, center, and Graves and Downs, guards, were the Pasadena players that opened up against Hollywood last week and will probably get the nod from "Pinky" Griffith to start today.

POLY AND MANUAL

The Poly-Manual Arts fracas will be interesting, inasmuch as it will bring together a pair of undefeated combinations. Coach Motts Blair's Artisans, city champs of 1922, are favored to put the greasy skids under Brennen's Mechanics and are expected to have the latter bunch yelling for rosin before the roar of the battle dies down. Miller, Redfern and Riley form a mean scoring trio and Poly rooters will no doubt find this out some time this afternoon. Wren and Boelter have been the best point producers for the Blue and Gold entry in previous contests.

Jefferson will probably show more stuff against Hollywood than it did against Poly last week, as Laraneta and Jackson, a brace of lettermen, and Rice, a regular this year, all of whom were ineligible against Poly, have their scholarship on the right side of the ledger and will be putting it on for the Democrats against the Movie Kids. With the addition of these three vets Coach Costello's boys should put up a right smart appearance.

The real battles of the day, however, should be provided by the 130-pound (or supposedly 130-pound) quintets of the same combination of schools. Poly and Manual Arts are claiming lightweight squads which are supposed to be the elephant's luggage, and when the two crews of bantams get together a sweet battle is prognosticated to result. Simpson, Price and Atherton are the stars of the Poly squad, while Jannsen and Johnston look like the hippo's hips for the Toiler midgets. The Hollywood and Jefferson midgets and the Long Beach and Pasadena bantams are also slated to put on gilt-edge combats. The 130-pounders will provide the amusement preceding the unlimited brawls.

SALT LAKE CLUB ISN'T FOR SALE

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SALT LAKE CITY (Utah) Jan. 18.—The franchise of the Salt Lake Pacific Coast League baseball club is not for sale, President William Lane said today in answer to reports emanating from San Bernardino that Sam Agnew was angling for the team. President Lane returned to Salt Lake City this morning from the annual league meeting at Portland, Or.

SAILORS TAKE ON CLUBMEN

Battling Tars Will be Featured in Next Contests With L.A.A.C. Scrappers

The next fistic card at the Los Angeles Athletic Club will be held Thursday evening and the bill will be composed of eight snappy tilts.

One of the interesting features of the program is the number of sailor scrappers who will appear. There will be eight of Uncle Sam's Navy battlers on hand and some good bouts should result.

Local boxing followers will watch with interest the work of Al Hagberg, a newcomer here who is a middleweight being groomed by George Blake. Hagberg has the earmarks of developing into one of the hardest hitting middleweights the L.A.A.C. has had in years. Sailor McDonough has been obtained to oppose Hagberg in his first start here.

Joe Pimental, the dynamite socking bantamweight, has won the right to appear in the main event class. Matchmaker Blake announces that Pimental will start against Sailor Picianno of the good ship U.S.S. Mississippi. Pimental recently stopped rugged Sailor Boltz and due to his dandy showing he has drawn a worthy adversary in Picianno.

Joe Schlocker, the popular L.A.A.C. lightweight, will box the semi-wind-up with Sailor Walsh, U.S.S. Mississippi. The sailor is said to be a hard hitter and he will open both guns on Schlocker when they mix. A heavyweight scrap will bring together Sailor Bott and Frank Piarulli.

Two other attractive contests will be featured by Fidel LaBarba vs. Sailor Reyes and Manuel Martines vs. Sailor Searles. LaBarba and Martinez have tough jobs out out for them and they will have to be in the best of shape to win.

The complete bill:

William Zukie vs. Sailor Ryan, U.S.S. Idaho, 140 pounds.

John Barry vs. Sailor Jones, U.S.S. Idaho, 145 pounds.

Frank Piarulli vs. Sailor Bott, U.S.S. Mississippi, heavyweight.

Al Hagberg vs. Sailor Nuernick, U.S.S. Idaho, 158 pounds.

M. Martinez vs. Sailor Searles, U.S.S. Idaho, 120 pounds.

Fidel LaBarba vs. Sailor Reyes, U.S.S. Idaho, 110 pounds.

Joe Schlocker vs. Sailor Walsh, U.S.S. Mississippi, 135 pounds.

Joe Pimental vs. Sailor Picianno, U.S.S. Mississippi, 125 pounds.

JOHN LEYTON IN TIE FOR LEAD

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 18.—John Leyton of St. Louis, a world's champion at three-cushion billiards, defeated Otto Reiselt of this city in two games by the scores of 50 to 41 and 50 to 34. By these victories Leyton goes into a tie for first place with Tiff Denton, of Kansas City, for the national interstate three-cushion championship.

HORSEMEN TO MEET

The executive committee of the Southern California Horse Show Association will meet tonight to discuss plans for the second annual horse show to be held here in the near future.
the near-future.

NINE CARS LOST DURING THE DAY

The following cars were taken from the streets of Los Angeles yesterday:

Anyone seeing any of the above cars will please notify the police department or the auto theft bureau of the Automobile Club of Southern California.

Should it come to war between the majors and minors, a course which probably will be avoided after mature deliberation, contrary to a quite general belief, the Pacific Coast League's comparative isolation will be of no strategic or other advantage.

In fact, if there is any advantage as between the Coasters and the American Association and the International League, geographically speaking, it would appear to rest with the two latter. Particularly is this true if the ultimate aim of the theoretical war is to gain major-league rating, a standard which it would be necessary to attain if the war is to bring any profitable result to the minors.

The American Association and International League, snuggled close to the majors, interwoven with them territorially, are in a position to strike at the very vitals of the big fellows.

That is, they could invade major-league territory, and only by that course could they become majors in the true sense of the word. The Coast League is geographically prevented from doing this, and yet is not far enough away to make its players secure from big league raids. The American League became a major when it struck deep into National League territory. There is a vast difference between merely being independent and being major.

Were prairie schooners the only means of transportation, Coast baseball would be wholly safe and independent and could paddle its own canoe, regardless of the rest of the world. But there is nothing more specious than the argument frequently advanced by presumably informed baseball men that the Coast League's position peculiarly fits it for outlawry and third major league claims. It is an isolation insufficient to insure it against raids on its players, and yet an isolation great enough to prevent it from penetrating or annexing enemy territory. So it really is a disadvantage. The American Association and International League might combine, drop four of the smaller cities from each circuit and place four clubs in big league towns. In that way alone can a bona fide third major league be created. The Coast League, not in a position to do this, can become chemically independent, but can become a major league only by the normal and natural process of growth, specifically adding something like 3,000,000 inhabitants to the eight cities of the circuit.

Limitless enthusiasm is preferable to dead dormancy, but full faith in the future is a better foundation than false claims for the present. Kidding ourselves, we are in danger of kidding the public, and that is bad for the ultimate success of any proposition.

This league is one of the three big minors, and the writer would judge, after having witnessed the play in all three, that the Coast organization is a trifle faster than the other two, but this is purely a matter of personal opinion. In fact, the close result of the one East vs. West series, with the visitors suffering the handicap of a new climate and no support, leaves the matter open to argument. But it is a good league with the big advantage of a temperate climate, and the disadvantage of some exceedingly long jumps which are physically and financially exhausting. It plays as good ball as is to be found outside the majors, pays liberal salaries and is growing as the country grows. In some respects it has reached a point equal or possibly in advance of where the majors were fifteen years ago. And on that basis what a wonderful future the next fifteen years may unfold!

Meantime and naturally there is a division of opinion. Some hold there is a countrywide community of interest in baseball to which the Coast League can ill afford to become wholly alien, and per contra. And each side is entitled to an expression of its honest opinion.

SAN DIEGO TO MEET LOCALS

Speedy Southern Club Due Here for Two Tilts

Kant-Skores Threaten City League Aggregations

"Lefty" Cruze is Pride of Palomar Ball Outfit

BY JOE BUSH

When the speedy San Diego club pulls into town for a two-game series with the Los Angeles colored White Sox at the Sox park Saturday and Sunday, three big-league scouts will be on the team's trail looking for prospects. The southerners have cleaned up most everything that has invaded San Diego, except "Red" Oldham's All Stars, and are out to grab a pair of wins from the Sox.

However, the local entry will be no set-up and might put the well-known skids under the San Diego squad. Both of the tilts between the two speedy clubs are expected to bring out some good baseball and large crowds are figured on to see the contests.

Not much was expected of the Kant-Skore Pistons when they recently took the L. A. Japanese club's place in the City League, but Manager Burrow's crew have the anxious eyes of all the other city circuit managers on them at present. Taking the Japanese team's four defeats will probably rob the Kant-Skores out of the pennant as they have won five in a row and are dangerous contenders for the pennant in the municipal loop.

B. Kirby is one reason why the Kant-Skores are what they are today and their regular catcher, Mahoney, who had his thumb badly injured by a foul tip recently, is expected to strengthen the club next Sunday when he resumes his duties behind the plate.

Lynwood's 13 to 8 win over Downey was leading the county circuit in a row for the Emsco lads and goes to show how hard it is for a club to get out of a slump. Downey was leading the County circuit then Norwalk, Palomar and Lynwood tripped the Downey club in rapid succession.

The addition of Ray Wilhite, former Glendora twirler, to the Latin Cubs' roster seems to have made Edgar Baxter's club a dangerous aggregation. Last Sunday the Cubs pulled the Fraternal Brotherhood nine out of first place in the City League.

Taggart, the third sacker of the Redondo-Hermosa Merchants, has been going great guns around the hot corners. The Hermosa infield knocked down several drives recently that were labeled for sure hits.

STAGE GIRL IS DOUBLE CHAMP

Miss Robbie Folsom

MISS BOBBIE FOLSOM, who is warbling "blues" at the Orpheum at a great rate these days, has two sport championships to her credit, of which she is very proud, and which she is prepared to defend while here, if anyone desires to challenge her. She is the all-around stage women's champion swimmer—barring, of course, such professionals as Annette Kellermann — and she also holds the international championship for stage women golfers. During her stay her, which is for a fortnight, Miss Folsom will be glad to take on a match with any other women of stage affiliations, and will also meet in a friendly way any girl who may desire to stage a special match with her at golf or at swimming. Meanwhile, she is driving her car from one course to another, and from one beach to another, trying out all of them.

FORMER RAH RAH PITCHER SIGNED

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

HONOLULU (T. H.) Jan. 18.—Neil Blaisdell, who formerly pitched at St. Louis College here, has been signed for a tryout with the Chicago White Sox, according to J. A. Beaven, local sport promoter, in an address made at a banquet given the major league players who have just returned from a tour of the Orient. It was stated Blaisdell probably would leave for Chicago May 1.

McGRAW'S THIRTY YEARS IN BASEBALL

ORATOR BALLS IT ALL UP

Makes "Bust" at Banquet Given in Honor of Pitcher; Mustache Era in Game; Joke on Ump

"MY THIRTY YEARS IN BASEBALL"
Article XIII
By JOHN J. McGRAW,
Manager of the New York Giants, world's baseball champions, 1921-22.
[Copyright, 1923, by the Christy Walsh Syndicate.]

After the sensational season in which the Orioles won their first championship the newspapers all over the country made us famous. By attributing it to new methods, they were so carried away with the inside batting work of our team that they printed many stories to the effect that we had won the pennant without having to depend upon our pitchers.

As a matter of fact, our pitchers did good work, but this was the cue for a lot of stories in the newspapers. Before that pitchers always had been given all the credit. This was supposed to be something new.

Our team was asked to visit the home town of one of the pitchers—McMahon, I think it was—for a big reception to be given in his honor. All of us were eager to hear ourselves extolled as well, so we went in full force. The little town talked nothing but baseball for two or three days—the coming of the now famous Orioles.

To make the affair even more impressive the committee had invited the Congressman of the district to make the address of welcome. He was noted as a famous orator, but, as you will see, knew very little about baseball or its players. Just the same he pretended to. He came all loaded for a great speech, so he thought.

QUOTES CLIPPINGS

Being shy of information this oratorical Congressman had secured clippings from the papers which told of how we had won without the aid of our pitchers. He didn't even realize that this big reception was given as a boost for McMahon by the home town.

The stage of the public hall was decorated with flags and baseball emblems. All of our players were seated in a semicircle facing the audience. The master of ceremonies sat in the middle with the Congressman—the big punch of the meeting—at his right. We all tried our best to look dignified and important. McMahon and the other pitchers were grouped immediately behind the speaker. I can see that picture to this day. And, as I see the picture, all of us wore mustaches. That was the thing in baseball then. I had a big black one which looked very impressive—to me with my weight of 128 pounds. Robbie had a fancy one, very carefully twisted up at the ends.

BIG LEAGUE STUFF

After a few words the master of ceremonies introduced the Congressman. We all got out for some big league stuff in the way of oratory.

"Ladies and gentlemen," began the Congressman, "you are now looking upon the greatest collection of athletes that the world has ever known. They form what is known as the Baltimore Orioles, the greatest, most picturesque and most spectacular baseball club in history. They have honored us by coming here to break bread with our humble townfolk. We consider that more of an honor than they can understand. Little do you realize what this growth of an athletic game and the presence of its most noted exponents means to our coming young manhood. (Applause.)

"In my arduous duties at the National Capitol it may be that you think that I have had no time to give to baseball. But you are wrong. I devote much time to it. I study it and I respect it. I appreciate it. I know what this collection of sterling athletes has done. I realize how they have won. These men, despite handicaps, have won a championship. The glory and wonder of that achievement, though, is what they have won with practically no pitching staff at all—the worst pitchers in baseball!"

ARE STUNNED

McMahon and Doc Pond who had been leaning forward in anticipation of the climax almost fell out of their chairs. The crowd was stunned for a moment and then broke out laughing.

The great orator did not know that the whole show was given in honor of McMahon. He had tried to bull his way through by reading the papers—Washington papers.

The show was a bust. The next election the Congressman lost that county.

It was several seasons before we got through kidding our pitching staff about that speech.

And speaking of mustaches, I must tell you one on Wilbert Robinson.

As I have said Robbie was always careful about his mustache having that snappy upward twist at the ends.

Tim Hurst, the umpire, who died some years ago, never thought much of mustaches. He shot many a witty crack at the players about these appendages. Tim, as you know, perhaps, never took any back talk from a player. If he did the player suffered in the consequent repartee.

One day Robbie was catching and there was a Boston runner on first. By a quick move Robbie shot the ball down to the bag and the runner, apparently, was blocked off the bag.

But Hurst did not call him out. He merely spread out his hand, indicating that the runner was safe. There was a big howl from the crowd.

"What's the matter with you, Tim?" Robbie demanded to know. "Are you blind? Why, I had that man frozen off the bag. There wasn't a chance for him to get back. I tell you he was frozen off!"

"All right, Old Timer," said Tim in that cutting voice, at the same time reaching over and twisting Robbie's mustache, "we'll call it one man froze in the game. Now, let's go."

For a moment Robbie was so dumfounded that he silently went on playing. But the further he went the madder he got. Back at the bench the players started kidding him. But for us stopping him I think he would have killed Hurst if he'd have had a chance in the next two or three innings. It was weeks before he got over the indignation of having had his mustache twisted—and by an umpire at that. To this day if anyone says anything about a runner being frozen off first it gets a laugh out of Robbie.

We had more fun with umpires in those days than we do now.

In Washington the games were always started at half past four in the afternoon so as to get the crowd from the various State departments. As a result of this we often ran into darkness and there were constant rows about the games being called.

Clarkson, I think it was, was pitching one day and Robbie catching. Jack Kerns was umpiring. Kerns would never call a game on account of darkness if he could help it. We used to quarrel with him incessantly. On this day it really was getting too dark to play, but Kerns was obstinate.

The pitchers in those days had a habit of sucking lemons between innings to keep their mouths from getting dry. Several of these discarded lemons were on the bench. Clarkson picked up one and started to the box to pitch another inning after Kerns had again refused to call the game. He left the ball on the bench.

Taking a big wind-up Clarkson whipped the lemon over the plate and Robbie caught it.

"Strike one!" Kerns called.

"Look what you called," Robbie said, showing him the lemon. "The ball's on the bench."

"Game called on account of darkness," Kerns immediately announced. That was enough proof for him.

Robbie had a great way in those days of arguing with the umpire quietly instead of showing him up before the crowd. It worked, too.

At the risk of being tiresome and garrulous I must tell one more.

SHIPPING and Los Angeles Harbor NEWS

HARBOR STATION ORDERED

Quarantine Facilities to be Provided at $30,000 Cost; Will Boost Port Business

Construction of a $30,000 marine quarantine station will be begun on the southeast end of Dead Man's Island by the harbor department as soon as authorization is secured from the War Department.

Harbor Engineer J. W. Ludlow was instructed yesterday to prepare plans and estimates for the new structure. He pointed out that the new station will give Los Angeles Harbor its badly needed facilities for handling oriental freight and passenger traffic which heretofore has gone to San Francisco.

"Hereafter, when a foreign vessel reaches this port bearing contagion in her cargo or among her crew," said Mr. Ludlow, "she can be disinfected and then undergo cargo discharge. At present we are forced to send such a vessel to San Francisco, thus losing the entire cargo.

"Every Asiatic who enters a port of the United States must first be quarantined and his clothing and belongings fumigated," he continued.

"Because we have not the facilities Los Angeles has not been a full port of entry, but will enjoy all these privileges with the construction of the new station."

Harbor department officials are now in communication with the quarantine bureau of the United States Public Health Service relative to the construction and equipment of the station at this port.

Ten thousand cases of gasoline for Australia will be loaded on the Swayne & Hoyt liner Vinita at the outer harbor terminal on the 22nd inst., it was announced last night by Hugh Patrick Fitzpatrick, Southern California manager for Swayne & Hoyt. The shipment will represent the largest case gasoline exportation from Los Angeles in many months.

The steamer Herman Frasch, which today will complete the discharge here of 7500 tons of sulphur from Sabine, Tex., has been chartered by the Canadian-American Shipping Company to carry a full lumber cargo from the Fraser River to New York.

Capt. Louis Black, superintendent of the Wilmington Transportation Company, and Herbert E. Pickering, port superintendent for Swayne & Hoyt, are seriously ill at their homes at the port. Both men are suffering from influenza attacks.

The Swedish motorship Balboa of the Johnson Line fleet, came in from Europe yesterday with 2700 tons of cargo for Los Angeles. Included in her local items were 1500 tons of wood pulp, 500 tons of pig iron, 100 tons of news print from Gothenburg, 10,000 cases of glass and 100 cases of extra plate-glass from Antwerp.

Sale of the United American liner Minnesotan, once rated as the finest craft in the Pacific, was announced in dispatches received from New York yesterday. The Minnesotan, used as a troop transport during the World War, was reported sold to a junk firm.

Fifteen hundred tons of news print and several hundred tons of general cargo came in from the north yesterday on the motorship Babinda.

Sale of the Shipping Board freighter Lake Pepin, 2800 tons, to the Hammond Lumber Company, was announced yesterday. The craft will be reconditioned before being placed in the lumber trade between northern ports and Los Angeles. Another new craft that will ply out of this port is the steamer West Cavanal, purchased at a United States marshal's sale at Bayonne last week by the Garland Steamship Company, a new [illegible] concern.

Young Man Builds Up Fortune of $500,000 and Then Gets Into Trouble

Prosperity went to the head of Phillip Robbins, according to a report filed yesterday by Probation Officer Neily in Judge Reeve's Superior Court. Robbins was accused of grand larceny of three bonds valued at $3000, of the Midlands Counties Gas Company from N. M. Newmark, treasurer of the Federated Jewish Charities.

The defendant had pleaded guilty and applied for probation. According to information furnished the court Robbins, now 29 years old, had gone into business at 21, and built a fortune of $500,000. Later his fortune was lost and he went into bankruptcy, it was said.

The defendant was denied probation and sentenced to San Quentin for from one to ten years, after the court had lectured him.

"You are not the type of man to continue such offenses," said the court. "You are intelligent and have unusual ability. You are not entitled to any consideration for probation."

M. G. Phillips, defense attorney, made a strong plea for the defendant, and obtained a stay of execution of judgment for five days. It was stated to the court by the probation officer that the defendant is accused of failure to support a six-year-old child. He was divorced from his wife three years ago.

WIFE SAID TO HAVE PREFERRED BOARDER

Miriam Barnes's preference for the company of H. H. Simpson, a boarder in their home, was asserted by Dwight Barnes in a cross-complaint for divorce filed yesterday.

Mrs. Barnes filed suit recently charging cruelty. In the husband's counter-action he declared that Simpson had addressed Mrs. Barnes as "the dearest on earth," that Mrs. Barnes went to the beach with him, and that she remarked she would rather live with Simpson than with the plaintiff.

INDUSTRIAL BODY AGAIN NAMES RICE

Association Prevails Upon President to Accept Post Once More

The election of the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association yesterday resulted in the selection of I. H. Rice as president for his fifth term, and F. J. Zeehandelaar as secretary for his twenty-sixth year. P. J. McDonald was chosen first vice-president, W. E. Chamberlain second vice-president and H. F. Stewart was re-elected treasurer. C. A. Fultz was reappointed manager and Oscar Lawler, the association attorney.

Fear that Mr. Rice might not accept another term prompted a large group of the members to send him a letter which said:

"Realizing the splendid work which the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association has accomplished, and is still pursuing under your guidance, for the development and prosperity of this city, we hereby strongly urge you to accept the leadership of the association for another term.

"We appreciate the fact that you have given liberally of your time, your thoughts and your energies to the upbuilding of this community, and that you have made sacrifices by your unselfish devotion to your duties as president of the association, but we feel that no man is better qualified to continue the work that has been so successful during your term."

This letter was signed by the following firms and individuals:

J. A. Graves, J. E. Fishburn, J. M. Schneider, R. W. Pridham, B W. Robinson, R. W. Burnham, R. L. Craig & Co., Simpson-Ashby Company, Bishop Company, E. W. Murphy, W. E. Howard, George H. Snyder, C. LOVE NOTES FROM RIVAL WIN DECREE

Wife Granted Divorce on Presenting Missives by "Other Woman"

A number of pathetic love notes asserted to have been sent to her husband by the "other woman" won a divorce yesterday for Mrs. Charlotte McInturff from Andrew A. McInturff in Judge Summerfield's Superior Court.

One of the letters, signed by "Kitty," read:

"Mc Dear Boy:

"I wrote you when I was in trouble. You have not seen fit to answer. I must have help. I am sick, starving, destitute. Either I hear from you ar I'll take the long, long trail. I won't go home—to what was once my home. My heart is broken."

The other note, also from "Kitty," read:

"Mc Dear Boy:

"How long must I wait? You told me to have faith in you; that you never would be found wanting. I have faith and I am trying so hard to keep it."

Mrs. McInturff declared she found the love missives among her husband's belongings after he had deserted her. She made several attempts to find him, she said, but failed. She was represented by Attorneys Adair and Adair.

APPEAL ON LARCENY CHARGE DISMISSED

The District Court of Appeal yesterday, in Division One, dismissed the appeal from the Superior Court of Howard E. Kelly, convicted of larceny last October. Kelly, together with Charles Pierce, said to be a partner in crime, was accused of breaking into the warehouse of the A. T. Frye Company, in the industrial district and of removing an electric motor valued at $200 from the Baker Iron Works.

Following his conviction on the larceny charge, Kelly's motion for a new trial was denied. Attorneys for the State moved the dismissal of the appeal on the technicality that the papers filed in the Appellate Court did not show the grounds on which an appeal may be based.

WALL STREET NEWS

BY MONITOR

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

[Copyright, 1923, Public Ledger.]

NEW YORK, Jan. 18.—Packard Motor which crossed 14 today, continues as the speculative leader of the motor group. While rumors persist that the recent strength in this issue has been due to buying for the account of Durant interests, the fact that earnings are supposed to be running at the rate of about $5 per share on the entire outstanding amount of common stock should be sufficient warrant for a market valuation of $14 per share. It is pointed out that operations for the three months ended November 30, which constitutes the first quarter of the current fiscal year for Packard, equalled nearly $1 per share after preferred dividends taxes and all other charges. That quarter was part of what is normally considered the off-season in the automobile trade, and it is a practical certainty that operations at the present time and for several months to come should easily exceed this rate. Therefore, estimated earnings of $5 per share on the common appear decidedly conservative.

Sentiment in the stock market was cheered considerably by the absence of unfavorable developments in the Franco-German flare-up. For instance, Baldwin and Studebaker, acknowledged leaders of the speculative group, rallied several points from yesterday's lows. In view of the fact that professional operators were naturally seeking to move these two issues in advance of any other movement, the rally attracted quite a following.

Apparently Anaconda stockholders do not relish the thought of an additional 3,000,000 shares of stock coming on the market, and immediate consideration of the conversion feature of the new debenture bonds issued by this company, brought a reaction to 45 1-8. Selling on such a weak basis was decidedly short-sighted, as was evidenced by a late rally which carried the issue back to 48. It is true that the outstanding stock of Anaconda may be doubled, but none of this new stock will come into the market excepting in exchange for bonds. Accepting the obligations and fixed charges imposed by the additional $150,000,000 of new bonds, stockholders receive in return control of the very valuable Chile Copper Company. This is an asset which will be utilized to its fullest extent by Anaconda and one which should render operations of American Brass more profitable. Furthermore each block of Anaconda stock thus coming on the market will retire a corresponding amount of bonds, and while decreasing the stock equity to a small extent, automatically increases the property of the company by such bond retirement in exact proportion.

Preferred stockholders of Republic Iron and Steel were apparently impressed by the action of directors in resuming dividend payments yesterday. The early jump which carried this issue from 90 to 90 3-4 was only a reflection of this action. What is decidedly more important to the market as a whole, is the fact that in paying this dividend Republic announces that earnings for the last quarter of 1922 were twice the preferred dividend requirements for the period. At the same time, it is learned that operations of Lackawanna for the same period also showed a profit over fixed charges. With the independents thus working out of the depths, it seems as though the market has been well advised in looking for a very optimistic showing by the Steel Corporation when its report of operations for the same quarter will be made public later this month.

Crude rubber, which a year ago at this time was selling for less than 15 cents per pound, has been advancing by leaps and bounds of late, but today established a new high record at 35 cents. This advance is due almost entirely to the after-effects of the Stevenson plan for the restriction of output at primary points which went into effect on Nov. 1, 1922. Since that time there has been much discussion in Washington and London of the possible political effects of this move, which is declared to have been aimed mainly at American rubber consumers. As the matter now stands, the maximum of possible supply seems wholly inadequate to meet the minimum of probable demand.

DAILY MARKET LETTER OF THE
NEW YORK COMMERCIAL

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

NEW YORK, Jan. 18.—Wholesale grocers and other distributors are changing their opinions on the dried fruit situation and instead of holding off they are now entering the market, picking up a car whenever they think that they can buy right. Under existing market conditions, it appears that California dried fruits will be good property later in the spring.

Thus far the buying of the distributors has not extended to California to an appreciable extent, although buyers are on the lookout for attractive offerings. The volume of retail buying of dried fruits has shown a material increase during the past several days.

Distributors are looking for a sharp increase in spot prices when present holdings are cleaned up. Coast operators, it is pointed out, are holding firm with the exception of a few forced sellers and with spot prices considerably under replacement values, the local market must advance to meet the views of California holders.

ORANGES HOLDING

There was a good demand for Florida oranges, with no material change in prices. Sales totaled 6700 boxes, prices ranging from $2.75 to $6.38 per box, according to size and quality. Florida grapefruit recovered, the market advancing 15 cents per box, the market ranging $1.75 to $5.38. Tangerines were firm, prices ranging from $1.13 to $3.19 per half box.

California oranges were doing better on 150s and smaller, and were easier in spots on 126s and larger. Sales totaled seven cars of navels, prices ranging $2.60 to $6.40. One car of California lemons was sold at $5 to $6.45 per box.

TOMATOES ARE OUT OF LINE

Prices on Maryland futures tomatoes continue to come in, canners showing some divergence of opinion as to prices. The latest basis to be named is 60 cents for standard 1s, 90 cents for 2s and $1.30 for 3s, all f.o.b. cannery.

Indiana packers are offering futures at 65 cents for standard 1s, 95 cents for standard 2s, $1.30 for standard 3s and $4.50 for standard 10s, with extra standards quoted at $1 for 2s and $1.40 for 3s. These prices are out of line with the market here.

For prompt shipment, Indiana tomato canners quote 2s at $1, 3s at $1.50 and 10s at $5.75, offering fancy puree at 75 cents for 1s and $3.75 for 10s. The spot canned foods market was quiet today.

RAW SUGAR

More active demand for raw sugars today came at the expense of lower prices. At the close of trading a further decline had been named in Cuban raw sugar to 3 1-4 cents, cost and freight to 5.02 cents delivered. The American and the Federal secured 30,000 to 40,000 bags of Cuban raw sugars at 3 1-4 cents and freight for January shipment.

Although refiners maintained list prices up to a late hour, it was said that the American was accepting orders at 6.80 cents late in the day.

Notwithstanding the further decline in actual raw sugars, the market for raw sugar futures is rather strongly maintained on appearance of fairly good trade buying from various directions. At the opening today contracts were 1 to 2 points lower and by the close the list here had only reacted some 3 to 7 points for active months. Sales were estimated at 16,000 tons, which included switches from May to September at a difference of 18 points and July to September at a spread of 6 points.

EUROPE BUYS COFFEE

European buying through Wall-street connections was an early feature of the coffee futures market, call prices being 3 points lower to an advance of 6 points. After initial trades had been made in March and May at 10.60 and 10.18, respectively, the market recovered some 13 and 10 points, respectively, in late dealings, principally as the result of short coverings. In the afternoon the market advanced 5 to 10 points easily on outside and trade buying. At the close trade buying had put the active months up some 8 to 13 points.

Trading in teas is of fair volume. The outlook generally continues to favor high tea values since the position of the foreign markets will not permit of offers at anything approximating the current spot levels. Better grades of Formosa tea are meeting good demand at 25 cents a pound and upward, while Congo teas are being purchased on account of attractiveness of price in contrast with the high levels ruling for nearly all other varieties.

RICE IS POPULAR

With prices for domestic rice strongly maintained in all the leading primary points it is regarded unlikely that there will be material concessions from the existing quotations for spot material. All advices from the foreign markets would indicate that rice is becoming more and more popular and that it is being used to a larger extent as the most economical food staple available.

The tone on pea beans is very favorable and 8¾ cents is a conservative price. Marrow quiet. Pea kidneys more or less unsettled. Lima beans firmer. Peas of all kinds were quiet. Lentils dull.

The temper of the butter market changed from weakness to firmness accompanied by an advance of ½ cent on top grades of creamery.

Call sales for spot delivery were 39 tubs extra creamery, 36, 25, 100, 25, 25, 100, 25, 25, 25, 25, 25 and 25 all at 52 cents; 25 tubs at 51 3-4 cents per pound.

EGGS HOLD EVEN

The egg market shows very little if any change. Trade so far this week has been equal to the demand for selected grades and easy clearances have been effected.

Call sales were five cases f. g. firsts, 39 cents; fifty cases Washington whites, extra firsts, 50 cents; fifty cases No. 1 pullets, 39½ cents, 100 Washington extra firsts 49½ cents. Fifty at 47½ cents; twenty-five cases f.g. firsts 41 cents; Pacific Coast white extras, fifty at 51 cents; white extra firsts, forty-eight and a half at 49½ cents; firsts, forty-six at 48 cents; mediums, forty at 42 cents; No. 1 pullets, thirty-eight and a half at 39½ cents; No. 2, thirty-six at 38 cents; other western and Southern white, forty-two at 47 cents.

Copper dropped to 14 5-8 cents for electrolytic delivered through the next three months. This was accomplished by one or two producers letting down the bars under pressure of light demand. The export price fell to 14.60 cents a pound f.a.s. New York and sales as low as 14½ cents have been reported.

In London standard advanced 2s 6d to sixty-three pounds, 10s for spot and to sixty-four pounds, 2s 6d for futures while electrolytic was up 5s to seventy pounds, 15s for futures.

ZINC WEAKENS

Business in zinc died down again the market weakened and the price for prompt delivery dropped 5 points to 6.90 cents, St. Louis. February, March and April are available at 6.85 cents and 6.80 cents a pound. In London spot advanced 5s to thirty-five pounds, 12s 6d but futures were unchanged at thirty-three pounds, 10s.

A further increase of 10 cents a barrel in all grades of eastern crude oil except Corning and Ragland was announced today by Joseph Seep Purchasing Agency, Pittsburg. This is the third advance in prices of these grades within three weeks. The new price for Pennsylvania crude is $3.45 per barrel. The Ohio Oil Company yesterday announced an advance of 10 cents a barrel in posted prices of the following: Central and Wyoming and Montana grades of crude oil, including Grass Creek, Elk Basin, Big Muddy, Rock Creek and Mule Creek. The new prices include Waterloo, $1.45; Grass Creeks, $1.70; Elk Basin, $1.70; Big Muddy, $1.25; Rock Creek, $1.35 and Mule Creek, $1.10 per barrel at the wells.

BONDS STEADIED

Good absorption of foreign bonds in the face of rather free offerings steadied the bond market in general, although last prices were under the high of the session. Several foreign loans touched new lows, but rallies were not infrequent and the market did not stay down. Belgian 7½s and 8s again reached new low ground. French 7½s scored a gain of 1-4, after dipping sharply, but hte remainder of the French issues closed lower. British bonds were heavily traded, the 5½s of 1929 moving up 1-8 and the 5½s of 1937 off ⅛.

Very narrow trading ruled in the Liberty loans, the 3½s furnishing the only excitement, moving up 20 points in a quiet market.

The balance of the list was off 4 to up 4 points.

Chile Copper issues failed to derive much benefit from the quick oversubscription of the Anaconda issues in connection with the taking over of control in the Chile company. Prices were down for the day. Steel issues were active with the strength in stocks and oil bonds reflected to some extent further advances in crude-oil prices.

LIGHT FIRE FINES HIT IN REPORT

Forest and Brush Blazes in Last Year Cause Damage of $605,555 in County

Forest and brush fires during 1922, in Los Angeles county caused total damage of $605,555, according to a report filed with the Board of Supervisors yesterday by Stuart J. Flintham, county fire warden. There were 311 fires which burned over a total acreage of 25,917, but 50 per cent of the number were controlled before they had burned over one acre, and 75 per cent before they had burned over two acres.

Two large fires caused most of the damage, one in the Duquesne-Mint Canyon section and one at Santa Monica. Less than $100,000 of the damage was covered by insurance.

Seventy-five cases were prosecuted for setting fires and convictions were obtained in seventy-two. Mr. Flintham complained in his report that fines inflicted were inadequate and declared if larger fines were assessed more care would be exercised.

Half of the fires, he reported, were caused by carelessness, and were started either by reckless burning of brush or by cigars and cigarets thrown by smokers from automobiles.

Thief Smashes Window, Escapes With Jewelry

Hurling a brick through the show window of the Nate Meyer Company jewelry store at 600½ West Sixth street, a daring thief early yesterday morning snatched eighteen $75 watches and thirteen $109 platinum and white-gold wrist watches from the window and escaped. He also obtained a diamond scarf pin valued at $500.

Detectives Gruey and Murray are investigating the robbery.

WIFE FOND OF OTHER MEN, MATE CHARGES

Assertions that his wife was too fond of the society of other men were contained in the divorce complaint of Samuel F. Newland against Irene Marie Newland, filed yesterday.

The plaintiff named William Hunt and Collins Hardin as companions of Mrs. Newland at dances and cafes. He charged that she hugged and kissed Hunt and took joyrides with Hardin.

Export Demand Slackens and Grains Decline

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CHICAGO, Jan. 18.—While bearish sentiment amongst local traders was very pronounced in wheat, good support was received on all the breaks. May led the decline and closed ⅝c lower on the slow export demand and the bearish construction placed on the foreign situation, while the new crop futures were ⅛c lower to ⅛c higher on the forecast for a cold wave in the Southwest and continued dry weather in that section. Corn was ¼@⅜c lower, oats unchanged to ⅛c higher and rye ⅝@⅝c lower.

Wheat prices held within a range of 1c. Local longs and pit traders generally sold on a decline of ⅝@1d in Liverpool, where pressure of new crop Argentina grain is gradually increasing, but below 1.19 for May there was persistent buying by commission houses, which tended to make local operators act with extreme caution on the bear side. Above 1.19 offerings increased and the bulk of trade during the day was between 1.18¾@1.19¼.

Dry-weather reports from the Southwest and from Nebraska are increasing and with a cold wave forecasted without the crop being protected from snow some damage is anticipated. There has been no general rain in Kansas in eight weeks. Export demand continues distinctly slow, the foreign exchange situation having considerable influence. January wheat sold at 1.14¾@1.15, or 4c under May. Milling demand here was fair.

A majority of the pit element went out of their long corn at the start, when May dropped to 72@72⅛c in sympathy with wheat, but on the break commission houses absorbed the offerings on resting orders and short covering and some assistance from local bulls carried values up ⅜@½ from the bottom. The undertone, however, was rather heavy despite any material pressure of cash grain. Basis in the sample market eased ¼@½ as compared with May toward the last, with receipts 343 cars. Export demand very slow. Dry and hot weather in Argentina attracted attention, but failed to bring in buying orders of consequence. Outside markets outbid Chicago 1¼@3¼c per bushel.

Oats showed independent action and, while easy at times with corn, advanced above the previous day's finish at one time on scattered buying. Trade, however, was not large and prices had a range of ¼@⅜c, the latter on May. Receipts, 94 cars.

Numerous stop-loss orders were uncovered in rye on an early break, but the latter did not get very far and, with buying by houses with eastern connections, a small rally came toward the last. Norway was credited with having bought 250,000 bushels at the seaboard. The two northwestern markets had 53 cars.

PRODUCE MARKET

There were no new developments in yesterday's trading. The market generally was steady with few price changes. Bunched vegetables are in heavier supply and the market easier. Apples are selling freely at unchanged prices. Citrus fruits are moving fairly well, but grapes are cleaning up slowly. Tomatoes are scarcer and selling higher, with only a few lots of local tomatoes showing good quality.

MARKET REVIEW

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

NEW YORK, Jan. 18.—Today's substantial recovery on the stock exchange was an evident consequence of the failure of Tuesday's and Wednesday's "rumors" regarding the Ruhr situation to materialize. The day's advance ran to two or three points in numerous active shares. But the focus of financial interest was again foreign exchange. On that market, rates at first declined rapidly; sterling going to the lowest in three weeks and francs to the lowest in more than a month, bringing sterling 4 1-8c and francs ½ cent below the high points of last week.

This further decline was largely in response to the early movement on the European markets where French exchange on London went almost to the high level of November. The market turned, however, when European trading ceased; an abrupt recovery ensued which carried rates on practically every market above yesterday's closings, the final quotations being near the highest of the day. No specific news could be pointed to as the cause for this reversal of form. It was apparently one of those quick turns which occur in a highly speculative market which has "discounted" or "overdiscounted" events, some of which did not happen, and which recognizes possibilities of a sudden change in the character of the situation.

The German mark struggled up with the other exchanges but only after touching a "new low record" of 42 ten thousandths of a cent, at which price an American dollar bill will buy nearly 24,000 marks and an American cent 238.

At today's low mark the international value of the mark had been more than cut in two since Saturday. Under such circumstances and with the German currency on practically the same footing as the Polish mark, today's action of the Reichsbank in raising the discount rate to 12 per cent was meaningless. Probably that action was inspired more by the panic over the French advance than by any idea of affecting the credit market for the bank's rediscounts were being actually reduced at the opening of the year.

No change in our own banking position was indicated by the Federal Reserve return. It shows that outstanding Federal Reserve notes have been reduced $247,292,000 since the last week of December as against $213,800,000 reduction in the same period a year ago. Somewhat more striking was the last week's increase of $1,294,000 in rediscounts, whereas the same week last year brought reduction of $72,367,000.

Probably the course of French paper currency issues will be watched more closely than ever this year, in view both of the Ruhr experiment and of the modification of last year's formal agreement for 2,000,000,000 francs reduction annually. During the two weeks ending January 4, the French banks note circulation increased 1,377,000,000. A week ago it was reduced $8,800,000; in the last week further reduction of 306,300,000 was made. The December expansion has not yet been canceled but this is doing fairly well.

In the corresponding periods a year ago the outstanding circulation was first increased 1,200,000,000, then reduced 641,000,000. The real point of interest is that this reduction and the government's repayment in the three last weeks of 700,000,000 francs of its debt to the bank, have occurred when strong inducement existed for the opposite policy. One of the first announcements of the German authorities in the face of the Ruhr crisis was that they would make it the occasion for greatly increased paper inflation.

CHICAGO, Jan. 18.—Crude oil prices were given another boost today in both eastern and western producing fields. While the recent successive price advances are expected to mean comfortable profits for the oil-producing companies, they foreshadow higher priced gasoline for the American motorist next summer.

Pennsylvania crude oil was advanced today 10 cents to $3.45 a barrel, while similar advances were announced on the principal Wyoming and southern oils. It was reported in the Wyoming field that the principal refiners will make a substantial advance in the price of gasoline on February 1. The daily average gross crude oil production of the United States decreased 1150 barrels for the week ended January 13, totaling 1,751,350, compared with 1,752,500 barrels in the preceding week.

Despite Europe's crises and alarms, the foreign trade of this country moves along very comfortably. Exports in December were valued at $344,000,000, compared with $296,198,373 in December, 1921, and $233,195,638 in December, 1913. While the December total was lower than in October and November, the two big cotton exporting months, it was higher than the total for each of the other nine months of 1922. The total value of our exports for 1922 was $3,381,516,735, compared with $4,485,031,356 in 1921, and $2,484,018,292 in 1913.

Last year the United States added a net gain of $238,294,891 to its gold holdings and also $7,99,367 to its silver stock. In 1921 the excess of gold and silver imports was $667,356,920 and $11,667,273 respectively.

The general level of American wholesale prices in December showed no change from November, although the tendency was upward; but the December average was 11½ per cent above that of December, 1921. The Bureau of Labor index of prices shows an increase of 56 per cent above the average during 1913, the last pre-war year.

METAL MARKETS

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CLEVELAND, Jan. 18.—Daily Metal Trade today says: "Chicago steel mills find increasing difficulty in finding place for new orders from farm implement and car builders since their books were filled. Structural steel awards continue to gain and building prospects improve. Quotations on plates, bars and shapes are advancing and purchasing for second quarter delivery is not discouraged. New England pig iron receipts are limited by railroad embargoes. Copper holds to 14⅝c at New York. Zinc is easier at 6.85c to 6.90c, but lead is firm at 7.60c to 7.65c, St. Louis. Tin 38⅝c."

Denver Metals

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

DENVER, Jan. 18.—Silver, American, 99⅝; London, 65⅛d; lead, 7.50; copper, per pound, 14⅝c; zinc, 7.02; tungsten, per unit, 7.75@8.25.

New York Metals

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Jan. 18.—Copper quiet; electrolytic spot and nearby, 14⅝@14⅞. Futures, 14¾.

Tin easy. Spot and near-by, 38.50. Futures, 38.75. Iron steady, unchanged. Lead steady. Spot, 7.50@7.75. Zinc quiet. East St. Louis spot and near-by delivery, 6.85@6.90. Antimony, spot, 6.85.

LONDON MARKET

[BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

LONDON, Jan. 18.—The Ruhr deadlock and the adjournment of Washington negotiations prompted dealers to quote lower prices at the opening of the stock exchange today, giving the markets a heavy appearance. A greater degree of confidence supervened, however, resulting in the recovery of a good proportion of the earlier losses, with a strong tone prevailing at the close in rubbers and the gilt-edged section. Dollar rails were irregular. British American Tobacco were 57s. Oils rallied after a dull opening. Shells, 3 31-32; Mexican Eagle, 3 1-32; Mexican Corporation was again changing hands freely at 10s 6d. Hudson's Bay 7s 6d. Frisco Mines of Mexico were 14s.

The glut of loanable credit was distinctly more pronounced in the market. Overnight money was 1¼ to 1½. Discount rates were unchanged at 1⅝ to 2. Foreign exchanges: New York, 4.63½; Paris, 70.35; Berlin, 105,000.

BACKUS TO GO EAST

LIVE-STOCK MARKETS AT VARIOUS CENTERS

Los Angeles

[Furnished by Federal-State Live-Stock Market News Service, 1023 Pacific Finance Building, Los Angeles.]

Receipts and disposition of live stock at Los Angeles Union Stockyards:

Thursday's estimated receipts: Cattle, 1050; calves, none; hogs, 850; sheep, none.

Actual receipts Wednesday, January 17: Cattle, 378; calves, 71; hogs, 98; sheep, none.

Disposition Wednesday, January 17: Los Angeles packers, 376 cattle, 71 calves, 1059 hogs; other killers, 19 hogs; feeders, 91 hogs.

Cattle—The market opened with liberal receipts and was quotably steady on both steers and cows. Demand was fairly broad for all classes. Three loads of good corn, ensilage and hay fed steers, averaging 1120 pounds, from Inyo County, California, cashed at 8.00, top for the day. Two loads of medium and good fed Montanas, averaging 1065 pounds, scored 7.50, while two loads from a local feed yard, with an average of 1027 pounds, went at the same figure. One hundred head of aged Mexican steers, loaded from the San Joaquin Valley, averaging 907 pounds, sold at 6.50. Five loads of Arizona stocker steers, mostly 2-year-olds, averaging 581 pounds, sold at 5.25, with ten, averaging 533 pounds, out at 4.50.

Two loads of good northern fed cows, averaging 1159 pounds, cashed at 6.10. Two loads of good Montana cows, with an average of 1194 pounds, went at 6.00. One load of Wyomings, averaging 1003 pounds, scored 5.60. Two loads of medium grade sold at 5.35. Two loads from Wyoming of common grade, averaging 904 pounds, sold at 4.15.

Calves—No receipts. Supply does not fill demand for good quality vealers. Market quotably strong.

Hogs—Demand has not kept pace with liberal receipts. Market showed no recuperation from declines suffered at mid-week. Three loads of Colorado hogs, averaging 179 pounds, sold at 9.40. One load of good Idahos sold at 9.30. Several loads of desirable killing quality remained unsold at a late hour.

Sheep and Lambs—No receipts in the ovine division. While good handy weight lambs are wanted, the market is hardly quotable on as strong a price basis as recently, owing to recent declines at eastern markets.

Quotations, based upon sales at the Los Angeles Union Stockyards, follow:

Cattle—Beef steers, good grade, 7.65@8.40; medium grade, 6.50@7.65; common, 5.50@6.50. Beef cows, good grade, 5.60@6.25; medium grade, 4.75@5.50; common, 3.75@4.75; canners and cutters, 1.50@3.50; bologna and butcher bulls, 2.75@3.50; feeder steers, 5.00@6.75.

Calves—150 to 200 pounds, medium, good and choice, 8.25@9.00; 200 to 250 pounds, 7.50@8.50; 250 to 300 pounds, 7.00@8.25; over 300 pounds, 6.00@7.00.

Hogs—150 to 200 pounds, 8.50@9.50; 200 to 250 pounds, 8.00@9.50; 110 to 200 pounds, 8.00@9.15; over 300 pounds, 7.75@8.00; smooth sows, 7.50@8.25; rough sows, 7.00@7.50; feeder pigs, 8.00@8.50.

Sheep and Lambs—(Full-wooled.) Lambs, 84 pounds down, good and choice, 14.00@14.50; medium, 13.25@14.00; medium and good ewes, 5.00@7.00; yearling wethers, medium, good and choice, 9.50@11.50; aged wethers, 7.50@8.50.

BUSINESS NEWS OF BUSY MARTS

Oil Company Reports Steady Production Growth

Vegetable Growers Victims of Transportation

Alfalfa Surplus in Southwest Being Absorbed

Based on reports of heavy earnings for the first six months of the fiscal year ended December 31, and on satisfactory results from an intensive drilling campaign, the common stock of the General Petroleum Corporation is registering evidence of steady buying in quotations on the Los Angeles Stock Exchange. Although the company is paying 8 per cent on the stock as a regular rate, it was learned yesterday that some of this is predicated on the belief that earnings are large enough to warrant the payment of an extra dividend, but no confirmation of this report could be secured from officials here.

The condition of the company for the six-months' period ended December 31 will be disclosed to stockholders in a report to be mailed in a few days. Earnings are said of to be of record size in the financial history of the company, and are the result of favorable contracts and a generous volume of production. The average daily production is authoritatively stated to be 39,000 barrels, with 5000 barrels shut in from the wells in the Midway field. The average in December was 44,000 barrels, and when two wells are completed around the end of the month, it is expected that the daily production will range around the 50,000-barrel mark. At the present figures, General Petroleum compares favorably with Union Oil of California and California Petroleum.

General Petroleum is operating thirty-five strings of tools in Southern California now, of which twenty-seven are drilling in the Santa Fe Springs territory, and eleven in Signal Hill. Springs No. 2 is expected in around the end of the month and Santa Fe No. 61 will be completed early in February, both of which are forecast on a 5000-barrel basis.

Of the company's wells in Southern California, ninety-eight are in production at the present time. Wells are located in the Redondo, Signal Hill, Santa Fe Springs, Brea, Ventura and other districts. Valuable properties also are held in Kern and Fresno counties.

In order to properly handle the expanding volume of crude oil that the General Petroleum pipe lines from Signal Hill and Santa Fe Springs are carrying, the company reported in December that three concrete reservoirs were under constuction at Wilmington, one having a capacity of 1,750,000 barrels, and believed to be the largest in the world. The other two receptacles will hold 500,000 barrels each. Oil in storage as of December amounted to 3,400,000 barrels as compared with 2,400,000 barrels on July 31.

POOR RETURNS

Vegetable growers in Southern California are receiving poor returns this year from their crops largely because of inadequate transportation service and high railroad rates to the eastern markets, declared the head of a well-known marketing agency yesterday. In the case of celery and cauliflower growers, the returns are hardly sufficient to pay cost of production, while lettuce men in the Imperial Valley are faring somewhat better.

California vegetable growers ship annually about 30,000 cars of produce to eastern markets, or about 60 per cent of the total amount sold in this country. Before the war, it is asserted that railroad rates were on a basis which allowed the growers a fair return for their crops, but in the last four years the conditions have been reversed, and the industry is threatened with destruction. The situation was aggravated particularly this year by the car shortage and the alleged poor service given after the cars had been loaded. Although prices on California vegetables were better than usual, the high rates and the losses accruing from deteriorated goods through delayed shipments have proved a

BUOYANT SENTIMENT LIFTS COTTON HIGHER

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

NEW YORK, Jan. 18.—Sentiment in today's cotton market was buoyantly bullish, based on the sharply higher Liverpool opening and new high prices were reached here since early in 1921. The maximum rise was over 60 points and final prices were only 1 to 5 off from the day's highs. The improved spot demand in Liverpool was responsible for the rise there of the second consecutive day and Liverpool houses, with the South, were principal buyers here. Southern spot markets continued firm, following our rise closely. Near the close the demand broadened out and the list closed firm, up 55 to 61 points.

Spot was steady 55 points advance, 28.15 for middling upland.

Southern markets: Galveston 28.05, 50 points advance; New Orleans 27.63, 38 points advance; Savannah 28.56, 50 points advance; Norfolk 28.25, 50 points advance; Memphis 27.75, unchanged; Houston 28.05, 55 points advance; Little Rock 27.75, 50 points advance.

DAILY TRADE TALK

Anti-Grouch Squad Latest Innovation; European Situation; Johnson to Succeed Dodge?

BY CHAPIN HALL

A wise employer in Los Angeles has organized a "worry squad."

It really is an "anti-grouch squad," for its purpose in life is to eliminate worry and thus raise the standard of service rendered by employees of the institution in question; reduce errors; speed up the work, and establish an atmosphere of cheerful optimism.

Personal troubles held in leash by employees cause columns of figures to be added wrong; cause accident of various kinds; spoil materials and machinery, and alienate friends.

Nearly every error of this nature is said to reveal someone in trouble, the straightening out of which is the job of the squad.

There is never a case, according to this pathfinder, that could not be solved and lightened.

"It's a fine investment," he says, "for the personal troubles of employees will show up in the profit-and-loss account on the debit side of the ledger. That is the wrong place to deal with them. The right way is to locate anxiety before it causes disaster to the individual, which is often preceded or followed by disaster to the institution."

Another practical aspect of this work is the loyalty it creates in the employee. Think what such a plan might save the individual concern, the city, county, State or nation, if this unnecessary wastage was reduced only 10 to 25 per cent in 1923.

EUROPEAN SITUATION

A strange situation exists in the attitude of American business toward the conditions now existing in France, Germany and the Balkans. On the face of the returns the stock market should be demoralized and export trade at sixes and sevens. Based upon the manner of thinking in pre-war days pessimism should be the dominant note. Actually it is not. As a matter of fact the financial writers and economic reviewers of the country agree that the next six months, at least, is to be a period of continued development.

We have either retired behind the elusive phrase "splendid isolation," or the market believes that the present status is merely a little difference of opinion between friends rather than a potential storehouse of high explosive. Neither explanation will do, and this forces us back upon a theory advanced by a Chicago analyst, who says that there is a feeling in big business circles throughout the East that Washington knows more than is being disseminated, and that the reparations question is much nearer solution than is indicated by the threatening gestures now being made in the Ruhr.

If this is not the case and affairs in Europe go from bad to worse it is obvious that the effect thereof will eventually find reflection in this country, for anyone who harbors the opinion that European conditions are not pertinent. is referred to the following compilation by B. C. Forbes which leads the economist for McDonnell & Co., to ask, "what would the country do with that surplus added to the present excess of supplies?" Europe, despite the allegation of pending bankruptcy, bought three-fourths of the total of twenty leading exported articles, chiefly products of the farms and mines, and something like one-half of the total exports of the United States last year.

	U. S. Exports, 1922.	U. S. European Purchases.
20 selected articles	$2,000,000,000	$1,500,000,000
Meats total	113,000,000	97,000,000
Wheat	280,000,000	210,000,000
Corn	160,000,000	51,000,000
Flour	97,000,000	55,000,000
Cotton	596,000,000	490,000,000
Gasoline	117,000,000	74,000,000
Lubricating oils	78,000,000	57,000,000
Copper	88,000,000	68,000,000
Sugar	77,000,000	62,000,000
Canned goods	16,000,000	14,000,000
Prunes	10,000,000	8,000,000
Tobacco exports	157,000,000	129,000,000

The opposite side of the picture is set forth by the Mechanics and Metals National Bank of New York, which says that "if it be true that the 'best prophet of the future is the past,' the outlook for the United States in 1923 should be one of progress, for notwithstanding the contradictory trend of events last year in many parts of the [illegible] the record of this country, as regards both business and finance stands in sharp contrast with [illegible] of other countries, and has encouraged the picturing of a bright outlook on the part of those who have the temerity now to make public predictions.

"Because this country is resourceful and has a vast opportunity within itself for development and expansion; because it has escaped the trade paralysis, unemployment, currency inflation, budget deficits, and social disquiet which blight other countries; because it has successfully passed through a period of adjustment from war-time to peace-time industry; because it has emerged from a period of severe deflation—because, in short, it is sound in its foundations and shows tangible evidences of real and substantial economic strength, optimistic prophecy is far more general regarding the United States than any other country which occupies a large place on the map of the world.

"We are better off at the beginning of 1923 in an economic sense than we were a year ago; there is no involuntary unemployment, wages are high, and credit is readily obtainable."

DODGE TO GO

The suggestion made by several appreciative Los Angeles bankers that Gov. Richardson retain the services of Jonathan S. Dodge as State Superintendent of Banks has failed in effectiveness, according to recent Sacramento advices, and the popular chief is apparently to be replaced as a matter of "political expediency." Reports indicate the appointment of J. F. Johnson of San Bernardino to fill the post, possibly about February 1.

NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

NEW YORK, Jan. 18.—Discouraged by their inability to bring out more stocks in their recent drive, bear interests virtually abandoned their operations on the short side in today's stock market and operators for the advance had little difficulty in bidding up prices. Net gains of 1 to 2 points were common at the close with a number of specialties recording substantially higher gains.

Bullish interests were encouraged by the less bellicose nature of the foreign news dispatches and the continued improvement in domestic conditions as reflected in increased car loadings, particularly of general merchandise, higher crude oil prices, resumption of dividends by Republic Steel preferred, and the high rate of production and stiffening price tendency in the steel industry, the good showing being made by industrial companies in their current earnings statements and the continuance of low money rates.

Foreign exchanges were inclined to weakness, but largely for individual reasons. Demand sterling closed around last night's final quotation, $4.65, early weakness being attributed to the failure of the British debt mission to reach an agreement with United States government representatives before their departure home. The weakness in francs reflects the doubt of the financial community as to France's ability to collect her reparations payments by force while the further slump of German marks to .0042 cents each mirrors the seeming hopelessness of stabilizing the German unit of currency. Closing exchange rates were at or near the high levels of the day, marks rallying to .0047 cents.

One of the features of the stock market was the heavy trading in Anaconda, which was depressed nearly 3 points to 45¼ and then snapped back to 48, recovering all its loss. Selling of this issue apparently was based on the speculative belief that the heavy fixed charges involved in the recent $150,000,000 financing program for the acquisition of the majority stock of Chile would materially deter its return to a dividend basis. The day's sales aggregated approximately 60,000 shares.

Republic Steel issues made a good response to the unexpected resumption of dividends on the preferred stock, the common gaining 1⅞ points and the preferred 2⅝. Other steels advanced in sympathy, United States Steel common rising nearly a point to 106⅞; Bethlehem B rising 1⅜, Crucible, 1⅜; Replogle, 1¼; Sloss Sheffield, 2½, and Gulf States Steel, 2⅝.

Heavy short covering undoubtedly accelerated the advance in Baldwin, which closed 2⅝ higher at 134, as against yesterday's low of 129¾. Studebaker registered a net gain of 2 points, closing at 115⅞. Some of the other well-known industrial issues to rise a point or more were United States Retail Stores, Continental Can, Fisher Body, American Tobacco B, United Fruit, Corn Products, General Cigar, Postum Cereal, Otis Elevator, Reynolds Spring, Chicago Pneumatic Tool and Ohio Fuel, the last named gaining 5½ points.

Most of the oil shares made a favorable response to another increase in Pennsylvania crude prices, but except in the case of Cosden, which advanced 1¼, and Oklahoma Producers and Refiners, up 1⅛, the volume of business was comparatively light. Motors were active at higher prices, Hudson, Hupp and Chandler gaining at least a point. Rail shares again lagged behind the rest of the list, but Canadian Pacific, Lackawanna, Lehigh Valley, Southern common and preferred, Pere Marquette common and preferred, and St. Louis Southwestern gained 1 to 2 points. Call money held at 4 per cent throughout the day. Time money was only moderately active, with a slightly easier tone, some thirty-day loans again being arranged at 4¼ and at 4½ for sixty and ninety days. Bankers offered plenty of funds at 4¾ for the longer maturities, but brokers are holding out for 4½.

Twenty industrials averaged 98.09. Net gain 1.04. High, 1922, 103.43. Low, 78.59.

Twenty railroads averaged 84.90. Net gain .37. High, 1922, 93.99. Low, 73.43.

The City of Fullerton, one of the oldest and most important cities in Orange County, is situated about twenty-five miles southeast of Los Angeles. The surrounding territory is unusually fertile and produces large quantities of citrus fruits, walnuts and sugar beets. The stability of this community is evidenced by its four banks with combined resources of about four million.
These bonds are offered subject to approval of legality by our attorneys.

LOS ANGELES EXCHANGE

United States Royalties touched a new high yesterday on the Los Angeles Stock Exchange at 70, although the market as a whole was quiet and uninteresting. The volume of sales in United States Royalties was comparatively light, but buying power was present in sufficient strength to move the stock upward. United Eastern stood out as the leader in the mining list, selling at 2.00, a 5-cent decline from the previous day's substantial gain.

General Petroleum occupied the attention of oil traders on the basis of high earnings and improved production. The stock held firm at 80⅝, with a strong undertone apparent. Union Oil Associates at 47¼ was up ¼ of a point.

Mining prices were irregular. Black Range lost 3 cents on a closing quotation of 18, Nellie dropped 1 cent at 10 and Telluride at 29½ was unchanged. Oatman Combination advanced ½ cent to 8½ and Oatman Gold declined ⅛ to 14½.

In the industrial and public utility group, twenty shares of Merchants' National Bank stock sold at 200, an advance of 2 points over the previous closing bid price. Southern California Edison common was quoted at 104¼, up ¼ of a point.

Following are the closing quotations and sales:

serious blow to the growers, it is claimed.

An effort will be made in Chicago next week following the conclusion of the fruit jobbers' convention to reach an agreement with representatives from eastern and western railroads for better service. The shippers have ceased to ask for lower rates, and are centering their efforts on demands for improved and efficient schedules to Chicago, New York and other distributing centers. If this relief is provided, it is believed that the vegetable industry will be able to come back next year in much better shape.

The cauliflower crop in Southern California is above normal this year, and the quality is reported to be good. The celery crop is nearing completion, with about 500 cars remaining to be moved. The lettuce season in the Imperial Valley is at its height, and good quality and a firm demand are bringing prices that will net the growers slight amounts above production costs.

ALFALFA SURPLUS

That the marketable surplus of alfalfa is being rapidly consumed is indicated by a recent survey by Department of Agriculture investigators. The surplus as reported on December 15 showed that about 65 per cent of the supply had been marketed as compared with 45 per cent for the corresponding period of last year. Drought in the Southwest which curtailed the production of alfalfa, is believed to be responsible for the unusually heavy demand for alfalfa in that section, and has caused a substantial movement from the western producing territory into the southwestern market centers.

WIRE SERVICE

Because of the expansion in the general volume of business, Hunter, Dulin & Co. announce the installation of private wire service between their Los Angeles and San Francisco offices. Direct connections will be maintained with their New York and Chicago correspondents.

NEW OFFICER

Howard N. Martin & Co. announce the election of Otis D. Dolan as vice-president in charge of sales. Mr. Dolan has been with the firm since its organization and is well known in investment circles.

REGULAR DIVIDEND

Payment of the regular annual dividend of 6 per cent on the outstanding preferred stock is announced by the Celite Company of California. The dividend was paid January 15.

PAYS DIVIDEND

Announcement of the payment of the first regular dividend of 8 per cent on the outstanding stock is made by the directors of the Securities Loan and Discount Company. The dividend was paid on January 15 to stockholders of record December 31, 1922.

The Securities Loan and Discount Company absorbed the Motor Securities Company in August, 1922, and has been able to conduct operations at a profit sufficient to warrant dividend payments after doing business for one quarter. Officers of the company are W. W. Charles, president; J. S. Mertz, first vice-president and general manager; J. H. Thomas, second vice-president; William O. Harris, third vice-president; W. H. Green, secretary-treasurer, and A. Otis Birch, E. G. Otis, J. O. Smith, A. A. Wilson, G. W. Haight, Lynn C. Buxton, directors; Frank P. Cooper, fiscal agent.

CORONA BANK GROWS

What is said to be the largest volume of business in the history of the institution is reported by the First National Bank of Corona in the annual report of operations for the past year. According to George E. Snidecor, president of the bank, business has been so good that the bank registered a satisfactory growth in deposits, and paid dividends of 10 per cent.

The board of new directors elected for the ensuing year is composed of T. O. Andrews, L. L. Andrews, T. V. Ashcroft, D. W. Glenn, Frank S. Johnson, George E. Snidecor, Fred E. Snidecor, G. W. Waterbury and R. L. Willits. Officers chosen are George E. Snidecor, president; F. S. Johnson, vice-president; F. E. Snidecor, cashier; J. D. Hudson, assistant cashier; C. C. Harrington, auditor.

CRUDE PRICES ADVANCED

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

DALLAS (Tex.) Jan. 18.—Purchasing prices of crude oil in Kansas, Oklahoma and Texas were again advanced today by the Magnolia Petroleum Company 5c a barrel on oils under 28 degrees gravity and 10c a barrel above 28 gravity. Thrall (Tex.) crude and Corsicana (Tex.) light were increased 10c a barrel to $1.70 and $1.20, respectively, and Corsicana heavy 5c to the new price of 70c.

Earning Pow
Depends on Business Effici

THE earning power of any financial institution is, in a large measure, dependent upon the efficiency of its management. Success does not merely happen; it has a Cause, and the cause is almost invariably the business ability of the men directing the activities of the institution.

In the personnel of the Federal Discount Corporation, the most important factor for success must be efficient furniture executives, for the corporation's primary purpose is the discounting of first-class commercial furniture paper. Discount companies are financial institutions. Therefore, they must have prominent financiers and bankers. The banking personnel of the Federal Discount Corporation needs no introduction. Lawyers must pass upon legal questions. In this department we are equally strong.

The investment feature in this corporation is unusually attractive. It is in the discount business today and all money received from its sale of stock are being put to work earning dividends that offer substantial profits to the investor. If you will but make an inquiry, you will find the attractive investment features that make this offering.

Columbia Steel Corporation

15-Year First Mortgage 7% Sinking Fund Gold Bonds
(Series A)

Dated February 1, 1923 Due February 1,

Interest payable February 1 and August 1. Principal and interest payable at the offices of the Mercantile Trust Company of California, San Francisco, and of Dillon, Read & Co., New York. Coupon bonds in denominations of $1000 and $500 interchangeable, with provision for registration of principal. Callable as a whole or in part for sinking fund on any interest date on thirty days' notice at 105 and accrued interest during the first three years, less 1% for each three-year period or part thereof thereafter. Authorized issue $10,000,000. Present issue: Series A, $4,000,000. Interest payable without deduction for any Federal normal income tax up to 2%. Present Pennsylvania four-mill tax refunded.

Mercantile Trust Company of California, San Francisco, Trustee

Mr. W. E. Creed, President of the Corporation, summarizes as follows his letter to us regarding these bonds:

The Columbia Steel Corporation has been organized to manufacture steel on the Pacific Coast, beginning with the development of raw materials and carrying on manufacture to finished steel products. It is acquiring all the properties of the Columbia Steel Company, which now manufactures steel castings, bars and billets. It proposes to extend these properties to include wire, nail, rod and sheet mills. In order to produce pig iron for its own requirements and the Pacific Coast market, it is acquiring coal and limestone properties in Utah and proposes to construct there a blast furnace and by-product coke ovens.

The bonds are to be secured by direct first mortgage lien on all physical properties now owned and hereafter acquired. The total cost to the corporation of all properties upon which these bonds will presently be a first mortgage lien, including expenditures of approximately $6,500,000 now to be made thereon, will be approximately $10,878,000, or more than 2½ times the principal amount of the first mortgage bonds now to be issued.

The Columbia Steel Company, whose present business is only a small part of that which will be conducted by the corporation, has shown in the five years and eleven months ended November 30, 1922, average annual earnings, after interest and depreciation but before Federal taxes, of $564,066, or twice the annual interest requirements of these bonds. Mr. John W. Reynders in a report to the corporation estimates that when the new plants are in full operation net annual income available for interest and Federal taxes will exceed $2,000,000, or more than seven times the annual interest requirements of these bonds.

The management of the Columbia Steel Company, which has a record of successful accomplishment, will be in charge of the corporation's affairs. Messrs. W. E. Creed, Herbert Fleishhacker, John S. Drum, W. W. Crocker and J. D. Grant, directors of the corporation, and their associates have subscribed for $3,250,000 of preferred stock at par to be paid in cash to provide the corporation with additional funds for its construction program and working capital for its enlarged operations and to discharge purchase money obligations of approximately $750,000.

We offer these bonds when, as and if issued and received by us, and subject to approval of legality by counsel. Interim receipts of Dillon, Read & Co., or temporary bonds exchangeable for definitive bonds will be deliverable about Feb. 5,

Price 100 and Accrued Interest. To Yield 7%

BOND QUOTATIONS

PRICES ARE DEPRESSED

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Jan. 18.—Liquidation of foreign bonds and the lively competition afforded by the large volume of new offerings continued to prove a depressing effect on prices in today's bond market although on no part of the list was the reaction as sharp as yesterday's.

New low records were again established by Belgian 6s, 7½s and 8s; French 8s, Soissons 6s, Prague 8s and Serbian 8s, the losses running from fractions to 2 points. Final prices showed slight recovery. Swedish 6s dropped 2 1-4, Bolivian 8s, 1 5-8 and Brazil 7s 1⅛. Uruguay 8s, Cuban Railroad 5s and Danish municipal 8s, series A, all moved to higher ground.

A gain of 20 cents on $100 in Liberty 3½s featured the United States government group, other issues of which showed losses of a few cents.

Railroad mortgages were mixed with the speculative liens, showing the best recuperative power. International and Great Northern adjustment 6s, Canadian Pacific 4s, Illinois Central refunding 4s and Norfolk and Western convertible 6s dropped 1 to 1½ points, whereas Texas and Pacific firsts gained 2 3-4 and Erie convertible 4s, series A and D; Frisco 4s, Pennsylvania 5s, "Soo" 6½s and Southern Railway 4s rose 1 to 1 3-8.

A break of 2 3-4 points in Chile Copper 7s was easily the outstanding feature in the industrial division, other weak spots in which were American Smelting 5s and Francisco Sugar 7½s. Virginia-Carolina Chemical 7½s and Wilson convertble 6s each moved up 1 point. Brookly nRapid Transit stamped 7s and Denver Gas 5s were the weak spots among the public utilities, while Interborough stamped 6s and 7s closed higher.

Total sales (par value) were $11,535,000.

NEW YORK, Jan. 18.—Following are the closing bond quotations on the New York Stock Exchange. Furnished by Logan & Bryan.

PUZZLING TAX PROBLEMS SOLVED

BY JOHN G. HERNDON, JR.

[Copyright, 1923, Public Ledger.]

[This is one of a series of articles on income tax problems of vital concern to the public. Others will follow.]

Under date of Dec. 16, 1922, a treasury decision was promulgated as follows:

"A claim for credit or refund of an amount of income, war profits or excess-profits tax erroneously or illegally collected may be allowed after five years from the date when the return was due, even though such claim is not filed by the taxpayer until after the expiration of the five years, if such claim is presented to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue within four years next after the payment of the tax."

For example, if a taxpayer showed on his 1917 return liability for a certain amount of tax which he paid during the year 1918, and if he received notice in 1919 of a still further sum due on his 1917 return, he will be granted, under the decision here quoted, a period of four years from the date when he paid the additional assessment within which he will be allowed to file a claim for the refund of such additional tax, if it was erroneously assessed.

Taxpayers are cautioned to bear in mind that the returns for 1917 were due to be filed on or before March 1, 1918, not March 15, and that, therefore, claims for the refund of 1917 tax or credits for the overpayment of 1917 tax must be filed on or before the expiration of five years from March 1, 1918.

There seems to be considerable doubt also in the minds of certain administrative officials whether a claim for refund can be made for any cause other than that specifically stated in the claim itself. Extreme care, therefore, should be exercised by taxpayers in the preparation of claims for refund, setting forth therein all of the reasons why they believe they are entitled to a refund.

If a taxpayer's books of account have been examined for 1917 and a refund or credit on account of 1917 overpayment of taxes is due him, he should file a claim before March 1, 1923, for such refund or credit as the case may be. Moreover, it is well to bear in mind that, although an additional tax has been recommended, a final analysis might show that a refund was actually due. The taxpayer must be on the alert to protect himself in such a case by having the claim filed in due form before the time limit expires for the receipt of such claims. An illustration in point may be of value.

The X Company on its return for 1917 showed that it owed $5000 tax, which was paid June 15, 1918. During 1920 the corporation was advised that, as a result of an office audit of its 1917 return, an additional tax in the sum of $2000 was due. This tax was likewise paid within ten days after it was actually assessed. In 1922 a revenue agent examined the books of the corporation and, as a result of proposed changes in its income and capital, recommended a still further tax of $5000. Last month the taxpayer received word that the report of the revenue agent had been approved and would be made the basis of an assessment of additional tax unless within thirty days exceptions were taken in proper form.

The revenue agent was, as a matter of fact, so much in error that it now appears no additional tax will be due and that the 1917 tax has already been overpaid $500.

Unless, however, the corporation files a claim for the refund of this overpayment of tax within four years from the date when the additional tax was assessed it will lose its right to recover that amount.

DAY BY DAY IN EVERY WAY

They're Getting Better and Better

No. 1 is blazing a trail to the "Big Meyer pay," and right this minute is looking like the "shark's elbow" at 4275 feet.

The boys are pouring the fog to No. 3 today.

And No. 2 is the same old dear that lays the golden egg every day and never even cackles. She's laying up another fat dividend check for you again this month.

No. 4 is the prodigal son of the family, but we'll kill the fatted calf very soon now to celebrate the incoming of this wayward child.

It won't be long now until the birth of my new offer, and what I mean you're going to like it. So try and be ready to take advantage of it the moment I spring it, for it's going to be short and sweet.

Let Your New Investments Earn 12%—Plus

Some cautious investors who usually purchase Mortgages and Preferred Stocks and do not participate in the profits of the business, are not accustomed to the idea that an Industrial Investment paying 12% Annually can be a Sound and Seasoned Investment, and not a Speculation.

Seven Years of Remarkable Success

In back of the Common Stock offering of the Rio Grande Oil (Refining) Company, El Paso, Texas.

Each $1000.00 of the original investment (January, 1916,) has earned and the holder has received to date, $11,000 in stock dividends, and $4800.00 cash.

Present invested capital over $500,000. Book value after paying the above dividends is considerably above par. Annual sales approximately $2,500,000.

This Company confines its operations to refining and marketing. The management will continue under the men who have achieved so great success.

For the purpose of building its third refinery, to be located in Los Angeles, a block of its Common Stock will be sold at par $100 per share.

The Directors have established a policy of Cash Dividends at the rate of 12% annually (3% Quarterly,) and stock dividends as surplus accumulates.

ESPEE RATE RAISING DATE IS POSTPONED

SAN FRANCISCO, OAKLAND AND SACRAMENTO WIN FIRST DOWN IN SKIRMISH

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 18.—San Francisco, Oakland and Sacramento shippers won the first skirmish in a contest to prevent an increase in freight rates to California and Southern Oregon points today when the Interstate Commerce Commission telegraphed to the Railroad Commission a postponement of the recent Interstate Commerce Commission order raising rates from February 24, the effective date fixed, to April 24. The order was directed against the Southern Pacific Company and was made as the result of a request of the Railroad Commission for a postponement of the effective date.

By enforcement of the terms of the order San Francisco, Oakland and Sacramento shippers would lose the trade advantage they now hold in rates to California mountain points north of Red Bluff and would be placed upon the same competitive basis as Portland.

Representatives of the California merchants assert the haul from San Francisco to California mountain points costs the railroads less than the haul from Portland to the same territory. Upon this point the State Railroad Commission will ask for a rescinding of the rate order of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

LOUISIANAN PAYS $100 FOR CARRYING CONCEALED WEAPONS

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CHICAGO, Jan. 18.—James Kavanaugh Smith of Jonesville, La., who came to Chicago to attend the goods roads show, today found the path of the gun-toter a hard one. Mr. Smith, who is in the construction business, says he is a friend of Capt. Skipwith, head of the Ku Klux Klan in Morehouse parish.

This morning, after taking in sights of Chicago, Mr. Smith went to a restaurant in West Madison street. He did not approve of the manners of Fred Wells, a negro porter in the restaurant.

Smith told the porter he didn't like his looks and the remarks of the negro caused him to become angry.

Smith pulled out his pistol and fired three shots. The bullets, however, failed to find their mark.

Mr. Smith was taken to the hoosegow and today in the South Clark Police Station he was fined $100 and costs for carrying concealed weapons.

The Profiteers

by E. PHILLIPS OPPENHEIM

SYNOPSIS OF PREVIOUS INSTALLMENTS

John Philip Wingate, a prominent figure in New York's Wall Street, has an enemy of years' standing in Peter Phipps who heads British and Imperial Granaries in England. The B. and I., as Phipps's company is known in the stock market, has for its purpose the cornering of the country's wheat and to date has succeeded, with a consequent shortage of bread throughout England. Wingate comes to England, meets Kendrick, his London broker, and announces his intention of breaking Phipps on the market. At a social gathering Wingate renews a war-time friendship with Lady Dredlinton whom he had met in France. The fact that Lady Dredlinton is unhappy does not escape the attention of Wingate and because he secretly loves her he searches for the cause, and finds it in Lord Dredlinton, her husband, a member of the B. and I. board. Wingate calls on Andrew Slate, a friend of his college days, whose business of law practice is confined to the manipulation and defense of questionable characters, and retains him as part of his future plans. Lady Dredlinton and Wingate meet again.

"Josephine, if you please," she said, "and all the friendship you care to claim. There, see how rapidly we have progressed! You have been here barely a quarter of an hour and I have given you what really means a great deal to me."

"I shall prize it," he assured her, "and I shall justify it."

They began to talk of their first meeting, of the doctors and friends whom they had known together. The time slipped away. It was nearly 7 o'clock when he rose to leave. Even then she seemed loath to let him go.

"What are you doing this evening?" she inquired.

"Nothing," he answered promptly.

"Come back and dine here," she begged. "I warn you, no one is coming, but I think you had better meet Henry, and, to proceed to the more selfish part of it all, I rather dread a tete-a-tete dinner this evening. Will you be very good-natured and come?"

He held her hands and looked into her eyes.

"Josephine," he asked, "do you think it needs any good nature on my part?"

She met his gaze frankly enough at first, smiling gratefully at his ready acceptance. And then a curious change came. She felt her heart begin to beat faster, the strange intrusion of a new element into her life and thoughts and being. It was shining out of her eyes, something which made her a little afraid, yet ridiculously light-hearted. Suddenly she felt the color burning in her cheeks. She withdrew her hands, lost her presence of mind, and found it again at the sound of the servant's approaching footsteps.

"About 8 o'clock, then," she said. "A dinner coat will do unless you are going on somewhere. Henry will be so glad to meet you."

"It will give me great pleasure to meet Lord Dredlinton," Wingate murmured, as he made his farewell bow.

CHAPTER VI

Dredlinton House, before which Wingate presented himself punctually at 8 o'clock that evening, had a somber, almost deserted, appearance. The great bell which he pealed seemed to ring through empty space. His footsteps echoed strangely in the lofty white stone hall as he followed the butler into a small anteroom, from which, however, he was rescued a few minutes later by Josephine's maid.

"Her ladyship will be glad if you will come to the boudoir," she invited. "Dinner is to be served there. If monsieur will follow me."

Wingate passed up the famous staircase, around which was a little semicircle of closed doors, and was ushered into a small apartment on the first floor, through the shielded windows of which he caught glimpses of green trees. The room was like a little fairy chamber, decorated in white and the faintest shade of mauve. In the center, a white and gold round table was prepared for the service of dinner, some wonderful cut glass and a little bunch of mauve sweet peas its only decoration.

"Her ladyship will be down in a moment," the maid announced, as she lowered the blind a little more to keep out the last gleam of sunlight. "If monsieur will be seated."

Wingate ignored the silent invitation of the voluptuous little settee with its pile of cushions. He stood instead upon the hearthrug, gazing around him. The room, in its way, was a revelation. Josephine, ever since their first meeting at Etaples, had always seemed to him to carry with her a faint suggestion of sadness, which everything in this little apartment seemed to contradict. The silverpoint etchings upon the wall were of the school of Helleu, delicate but daring, exquisite in workmanship and design, the last word in the expression of modern life and love. A study of Psyche, in white marble, fascinated him, with its wonderful outline and sense of arrested motion. The atmosphere appeared to him intensely feminine and yet strange. He realised suddenly that it contained no knick-nacks—nothing, in short, but books and flowers. Perhaps his greatest surprise, however, came at the opening of the door. It seemed at first that he was confronted by a stranger. The woman who entered in a perfectly white gown of some clinging material with a single row of pearls around her neck, with ringless fingers and plainly coiled hair, seemed like the ghost of her own girlhood. It was only when she smiled, a smile which, curiously enough, seemed to bring back something of that aging sadness into her face, that he found himself able to readjust his tangled impressions. Then he realised that she was no longer a girl, that she was indeed a woman, beautiful, graceful, serious, with all the charm of her greater physical and spiritual maturity.

"Please don't think," she begged, as she sank into the settee by which he was standing, "that I have inveigled you here under false pretenses. Henry took the trouble to ring me up from the city this morning to say that he should be dining at home—such an unusual event that I took it for granted that it meant a tete-a-tete—I don't quite know why I treat you with such an extraordinary amount of confidence," she went on, "but I feel that I must and it helps me so much. A tete-a-tete dinner with my husband would have been insupportable. I should have had to telephone to Sarah Baldwin if you had not been available. Sarah would probably have been engaged, and then I should have had to have gone to bed with a headache."

"You don't imagine," he asked, smiling, "that I am disappointed at your husband's absence?"

"I hope not," she answered, raising her eyes to his for a moment.

"Let me imitate your adorable frankness," he begged. "I hope your husband's absence this evening is not because he objects to meeting me?"

"Of course not," she replied, wonderingly. "Why on earth should he object to meeting you?"

"You probably don't know," Wingate replied, "that I am in a sort of way the declared enemy of the British and Imperial Granaries—Phipps's latest escapade—of which your husband is a director."

"I am sure that would not have made the slightest difference," she replied. "As a matter of fact, he had no idea that you were coming this evening—I had no opportunity of telling him. A servant rang up from the club, half an hour ago, to say that he would not be home. Come, here is dinner. Will you sit there?" she invited, indicating the chair which a trim parlor maid was holding. "I hope you can eat quite simple things. One scarcely knows what to order, this hot weather."

Wingate took his place, and the conversation merged into those indefinite channels necessitated by the presence of servants. The dinner, simple though it was, was perfect—iced consomme, a lobster mayonnaise, cold cutlets and asparagus. Presently the little movable sideboard, with its dainty collection of cold dishes and salads, was wheeled outside by the solitary maid who waited upon them, and nothing was left upon the table but a delicately shaped Venetian decanter of Chateau Yquem, liqueurs in tiny bottles, the coffee served in a jug of beaten copper, and an ivory box of cigarettes. With the closing of the door, a different atmosphere seemed immediately created. They smiled into one another's eyes in mutual appreciation.

"I was dying to send Laura away," she confessed. "Why do servants get on one's nerves so when one wants to talk? I don't think I ever noticed it before so much."

"Nor I," he admitted. "Now we are alone, there is a sort of luxury in thinking one may open any one of those subjects I want so much to discuss with you, and perhaps a greater luxury still is the lingering, the feeling that unless one chooses one need say nothing and yet be understood."

"Sympathetic person!" she sighed. "Tell me, by the by, did you notice an air of desertion in the lower part of the house?"

"There seemed to be echoes," he admitted. "I noticed it more this afternoon."

AGREEMENT SETTLES MURRAY ESTATE ROW

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 18.—The last of a series of contests over the estate of James A. Murray, Montana, Washington and California mining and real estate magnate, was settled today out of court, according to an official announcement by both sides. The estate is valued at approximately $3,000,000.

The contest is on the calendar of the Superior Court at Salinas, Monterey county, for next Monday. It is expected that the court will be notified at that time that the action has been settled by agreement. Murray maintained a home at Monterey.

The contest was instituted by Alexander Murray of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., and Maurice, Joseph and Raymond Murray of Scranton, Pa., sons of T. J. Murray, deceased, who was a brother of James A. Murray. They sued for one-tenth of the estate.

Most of the property is included in the Monidah Trust Company, and covers mining properties near Butte, and real estate holdings in Seattle, Tacoma and California points.

The distribution of the estate is expected to follow the agreement arrived at today.

Terms of the settlement were not made public.

HOT WATER
A Cure for Kitchen Cares

All the hot water you want when you want it—heated as it runs fresh from the main.

HUMPHREY Automatic Gas Water Heater

is truly a wonderful household convenience. It can be installed easily, in any out-of-the-way place—usually in the basement—and will supply not only the kitchen, but the laundry, bathroom and bedroom washstands with piping hot water. It burns gas—the clean, cheap fuel. Absolutely automatic. Open any hot water faucet and you get hot water instantly. Close the faucet and the gas shuts off, and expense stops. Think what such automatic service means in caring for general cleanliness and health.

Let us explain and demonstrate this wonderful heater.

EACH SLAYER SUSPECT TO VIEW MURDER SCENE

ger Clark Agrees to Go to San Diego to Aid Investigation Into Dancer's Death

Roger Clark, under arrest in connection with the murder of Fritzi Mann, late last night agreed to go to San Diego "to clear up this mystery." The story he told of his movements Sunday night has not convinced Chief of Police James Patrick of San Diego that he is innocent, and the Chief stated that the similarity between Clark's handwriting and that on the register of the Blue Sea Cottage, near La Jolla, is remarkable.

Chief Patrick is checking a report that Miss Mann was to meet a Miss Minor, first name unknown, in a downtown Los Angeles hotel on the 4th inst., when a consultation was to be held regarding her condition.

This is being done at the instance of Dr. Lewis Jacobs, held in San Diego pending the investigation. According to Jacobs, Miss Mann failed to meet Miss Minor, and returned to San Diego. He says he saw her the day following, and saw her for the last time on the Friday before her death, when he had dinner with her at the U. S. Grant Hotel in San Diego.

The man who murdered Miss Mann is believed to be the one who registered at the cottage shortly after dark Sunday in company with Miss Mann.

San Diego police discovered that they left the cottage twice, the first time at 7:30 p.m., returning to leave again about 10:30 p.m. The point where the girl's body was found Monday is only four miles from the cottages at La Jolla.

The man who registered as "Wise Johnstone and wife" was described as pale and dark, a description which fits Clark. A gray overcoat and a dark hat correspond to clothing found in Clark's room.

ALIBI IS SOUGHT

Al Flowers, prominent figure in San Diego, however, told San Diego police last night that Clark was with his stepdaughter Gladys, from 7:30 p.m. until "about 11 p.m." Clark told Chief Patrick that he did not leave the Flowers home until after midnight. The Chief is inclined to believe the substantiating statement of Mr. Flowers, but will first have Clark face the clerk of the Blue Sea Cottages.

Dispatches from Reno stated that Clark was granted a divorce there from Mrs. Clark last July on grounds of extreme cruelty. Mrs. Clark's residence was given as San Diego. Upon receiving the decree Clark was said to have left for New York.

A small pillow, with embroidered flowers upon it, was discovered in the rear seat of Clark's car yesterday, and was turned over to Chief Patrick in order that he might trace Clark's movements by ascertaining its source.

CHECK UP STATEMENTS

Accompanying Chief Patrick were Deputy Sheriff George H. Thomas, and County Detective Frank A. Wisler. They were busy last night in checking statements of both Clark and Dr. Jacobs.

"That man Roger Clark! He's the man. Oh, my child! Mother's heart is broken forever. I came to San Diego to be happy and my innocent child was murdered."

Mrs. Amelia Mann, mother of Fritzi Mann, yesterday collapsed on the witness stand at the inquest held in San Diego while shouting the foregoing accusations against Roger V. B. Clark, arrested here by Detective Sergeant Trainor yesterday.

Her testimony was but one of a series of links in a chain of circumstantial evidence which wove itself about Clark with lightning-like rapidity following his arrest.

William Mann, brother of the dead dancer, declared that Clark had made statements to naval officers offering $1000 for an introduction to Fritzi Mann. He further declared under oath that his mother felt that Clark was responsible for her daughter's condition revealed at the autopsy.

COTTAGE LOCATED

In the meantime San Diego police had located a cottage where it is believed Miss Mann and her companion spent at least part of Sun-

ONG BEACH AN GIVEN JUDGESHIP

Ralph M. Clock Chosen by Governor to Succeed Judge Myers

Long Beach received its first [illegible] on the Superior Court [illegible] yesterday when Gov. Richardson of Sacramento appointed Ralph M. Clock to succeed Judge [illegible]. Judge Myers recently was elevated to the Supreme Court.

Ralph M. Clock
New Superior Court Judge.

Judge Clock is a member of the firm of Clock, McWhinney and [illegible], and has been practicing [illegible] years in Long Beach, where he is a prominent figure in legal [illegible] circles. He is a director in the Western Savings Bank and the Exchange National Bank, [illegible] large stockholder in several Long Beach concerns, including [illegible] Cargo Corporation, and has [illegible] oil holdings in the Signal [illegible] district.

Judge Clock was born in Hampton, [illegible], and studied in the University of Minnesota and in Drake University. He is a graduate of the latter institution.

He lives at 2767 Ocean Boulevard, Long Beach, and has a wife and one son. Mrs. Clock is State [illegible] of the P.E.O., a prominent women's secret organization. Judge and Mrs. Clock were at [illegible] when the appointment was announced.

No Long Beach man ever before has held a place on the Superior Court bench in Los Angeles county, it is said.

ALUABLE BUILDING IS SOLD

California Market in South Spring Street Goes to Syndicate

The sale of the California Market Building, located at 342-852 South Spring street, to a syndicate of local business men was announced yesterday by Joe Toplitzky, [illegible]. The deal involved the sale of the building, a modern [illegible] structure, one-story in height, recently built at a cost of more than $200,000, and the assignment of a ground lease which has ninety-nine years to run. The consideration was not given out, but it is understood that the deal involved in excess of $500,000.

The leasehold was formerly held by the late J. S. Torrance, who acquired a fifty-year lease from [illegible] Beteilier in 1905. The present improvements were made by Mr. Torrance. Under the original lease, the property was leased by Mr. Torrance at a ground rental of $500 per month until 1920, after which the rental was increased to $600 per month, on a basis of 6 per cent on a valuation of approximately $100,000. The ground is conservatively valued at the present time at $350,000, an increase of 300 per cent over the valuation of 1905. The property has a frontage of 121 feet on Spring street, with a depth of [illegible] feet. It was purchased by the syndicate as an investment, and no immediate changes are contemplated. Both parties to the deal were represented by Mr. Toplitzky.

OUR NEW PARTNER-HAWAIIAN ISLANDS

Now that the Hawaiian Islands are linked with Los Angeles by a direct steamship line, local travelers, capitalists, business men and the public generally are eager to know all that Hawaii is, what it does, what it offers and what it needs. To answer these questions authoritatively, The Times asked Lorin A. Thurston, publisher of the Honolulu Advertiser, to give local people the benefit of his wide knowledge and keen observation. He has written a tremendously interesting article, crisp and full of facts, which will appear in the forthcoming issue of the Sunday Times Illustrated Magazine. A pictorial accompaniment will appear in the Sunday Times Rotogravure Section of the same date—a full page of typical Hawaiian Island pictures.

Other features, picked at random, to appear among the 200 pages in next Sunday's issue of The Times:

A Real Giant for Los Angeles!

The largest perfectly formed man in the world succumbs to the lure of Southern California. He wears a No. 20 shoe, stands 8 feet 9 inches high, and in order to avoid an avalanche of questions on the part of neighbors and others, he tells through the Sunday Times what everyone wants to ask him—how he eats, dresses, sleeps, acts, and how it feels to be a giant among pigmies.

Four Injured When Plane is Wrecked at Catalina; Two Escape Unhurt

Lieut. William H. Rohrback of in another part of the plane, had stantly and three lieutenants and a gunner were seriously hurt yesterday when the seaplane F5L2 smashed into a rocky beach in attempting to rise from Avalon Harbor, Catalina Island.

The seaplane had been spotting for target practice with her sister plane, F5L3, for the battleship Mississippi, when heavy fog forced the two planes down. They took refuge in Avalon Harbor and were starting to get under way for San Diego at 3:30 p.m., when the accident occurred.

Lieut. Rohrback was in the forward cockpit with Lieut. H. S. Woodman when the seaplane struck. Lieut. Rohrback's skull was fractured and his neck was broken by the impact, and Lieut. Woodman had both ankles broken.

Lieut. M. B. Gardner, who was in another patr of the plane, had his right ankle broken; Lieut. L. B. Brix was severely cut and bruised, and Gunner W. M. Cole had his left leg crushed. Two mechanics and a radio operator were other occupants. They were slightly hurt. Lieuts. Gardner and Woodman and Gunner Cole were transferred from the steamer Avalon to the Submarine Base hospital at Los Angeles Harbor for treatment.

The F5L3 anchored alongside the wrecked plane and will remain there until today, it was said.

Lieut. Rohrback's home was at Norfolk, Va. His body will be removed today to San Diego on a destroyer, for burial.

WILL INCREASE SALARIES

Finance Committee to Aid Policemen, Firemen, City Engineer's Force

Policemen, firemen and members of the municipal engineering department are to receive an increase in their salaries, it was decided yesterday, after a session of the Finance Committee of the City Council which lasted throughout yesterday afternoon.

One important point, the amount of the increase, will be settled at a meeting to be held this morning, the committee announced. The committee is agreed that the increase shall be made, but reached no decision yesterday as to how much additional salary can be given from the funds available.

Councilman Mushet, member of the committee, declared: "There is no question that the increase will be granted. The only issue left to decide is how much it shall be."

Chief of Police Oaks and Fire Chief Scott both anxiously awaited the committee's decision, and were disappointed that the amount had not been agreed

REALTY DEALER ENDS HIS LIFE

Despondent, it is supposed, over financial troubles, W. C. Bartley, 35 years of age, of 929 West Seventy-fifth street, took poison yesterday and died in an ambulance on the way to Receiving Hospital. Bartley was a real estate dealer. His landlady, Mrs. S. C. Brown, found him ill and called in Dr. H. A. Squires of 2047 La Salle street, who administered first aid and called for the ambulance. Bartley's sister, Mrs. Ethel Cryderman, lives at Los Angeles Harbor.

NOTED BIBLE STUDENT HERE

Dr. William Evans, Popularizer of Holy Book, Arrives for Lecture Course

Heralding as the foremost Bible teacher of the country and as the man who has popularized the Bible for the average business man, Rev. Dr. William Evans, author and lecturer of note, arrived in Los Angeles yesterday to conduct a three weeks' lecture course in conjunction with the plan of three local churches to show the inter-relationship of the Bible and modern problem. Dr. Evans comes direct from Chattanooga, Tenn., where his addresses are reported to have drawn large crowds and excited much favorable comment.

SPEAKS SUNDAY

Dr. Evans will open his series of lectures Sunday morning from the pulpit of the Westlake Presbyterian Church, Grand View avenue near Ninth street. His topic for the morning address will be "Is it Any Use to Pray?" At three o'clock in the afternoon he will lecture on "The Christian and Modern Amusements" while his night address will have the subject "Whom Did Jesus Say He Was?"

The following week Dr. Evans will conduct similar meetings at the First United Presbyterian Church, at the intersection of Figueora and Ninth Streets. From February 4 to February 11 he will speak at the Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church (South) at the intersection of Twelfth and Flower Streets. Services on Sunday will be conducted at 11 a. m., 3 p. m. and 7:30 p. m., and on week days at 3 and 7 p. m.

HAS WRITTEN BOOKS

Dr Evans is the author of sixteen books, authority on the Bible and is considered an eminent Hebrew scholar, having majored in Hebrew for his doctor of philosophy degree at the University of Chicago. One of his most noted efforts "Through the Bible Book by Book," has introduced the Bible into thousands of homes for daily reading and thought, according to Rev. Gustav Briegleb, pastor of the Westlake Presbyterian Church where Dr. Evans holds his initial sermon Sunday.

Dr. Evans has spent more than twenty-five years studying the English Bible and also has traveled extensively in the Holy Land. His chief aim in his lectures through the country has been to stimulate interest in the Bible for the ordinary individual by showing its teachings in the relation to modern social and economic problems.

Following his work here Dr. Evans will leave for Miami, Fla., where with William Jennings Bryan he will deliver a series of addresses at a conference there. Dr. Evans appeared in Los Angeles several years ago, speaking in the Bible Institute Auditorium on Hope street.

TODAYS BIBLE TEXT

THE NEW COMMANDMENT:—Jesus said:—A new commandment I give unto you, That ye love one another; as I have loved you, that ye also love one another. By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another.—John xiii: 34, 35.

POLICE SEE MURDER IN BARKER FIRE

Believe Watchman Was Slain and Flames Set to Hide Crime

Suspicion that J. E. Koch, watchman in the Barker Brothers' warehouse that burned Wednesday night, was murdered and that the fire was of incendiary origin led to an all-day investigation yesterday by Detective Sergeants Taylor of the arson squad and Cline of the homicide squad.

Fire Chief Scott reported to the police that Koch's head had been crushed, and that he believed the man had been killed before the fire, instead of being burned to death. He said also that firemen reported two men having fled from the building during the progress of the fire, and that Patrolman William Stephens declared he heard two explosions in the warehouse before the fire broke out.

The warehouse was at the intersection of Palmetto and Hewitt avenues, and the fire did several hundred thousand dollars' damage, according to revised estimates yesterday. Koch's body was found on the fourth floor, partly covered by a rug. The fire chief said he had a fractured skull. Koch lived in Atwater Park and leaves a widow and one child.

WIFE THINKS MISSING HUSBAND IS DEAD

Application asking that her long-missing husband be declared officially dead was filed in the County Clerk's office yesterday by Mrs. Mabel Livingston. Her husband, David L. Livingston, disappeared from his home on Aug. 31, 1910. All trace of him has been lost, she says, despite a long search. She asks that her maiden name be restored her.

The Livingstons were married June 24, 1910. She is represented by Attorney Joseph J. Rifkind.

MAKE DOPE MAN DIG OWN GRAVE

Victim Suspected of Giving Aid in Arrests

State Department Notified of Mexicali Murder

Civil War Among Smugglers Follows Killing

Because he was suspected of having given information which led to the arrest Sunday of Jose Vidal, alias Manuel Sanchez and the seizure of $30,000 worth of cocaine, Roy Gibson, an American negro, often has been arrested on drug charges, yesterday was taken into the desert near Mexicali, forced to dig his own grave, and then was murdered by other members of the border ring of dope smugglers.

Word of the murder and of the State of civil war now existing among the drug smugglers of the border, was received here yesterday in telegrams sent to State Board of Pharmacy operators and Los Angeles detectives who participated in Sunday's raid.

NOTIFY STATE DEPARTMENT

Chief of Police Joe Hardwick of Calexico, who sent the telegrams, added that the State Department at Washington had been notified of Gibson's murder. His wires also stated that Gibson was innocent of having played the informer—a declaration agreed with by Richard Earl, State Pharmacy Board inspector, and the other men who made the raid.

In the early dawn yesterday on a lonely spot on the desert near Mexicali, infuriated smugglers ordered Gibson to dig his own grave and then shot him. His lifeless body toppled into the shallow hole and was scantily covered by earth, Chief Hardwick informed Inspector Earl.

Gibson was well known along the border between Tijuana and Mexicali, according to officials at Calexico and had been under arrest a number of times in connection with narcotic smuggling.

ARREST RING LEADER

The arrest in Calexico Sunday of Vidal, known affectionately by the border dope runners as "Peppe," took one of the most energetic members of the powerful organization. Inspector Earl, with Detective Sergeants Littlejohn and Hamilton, of the Los Angeles police department, captured him in the home of a distant relative who is an American citizen but high in Mexican official life at Mexicali. The Amercan is believed by the arresting officers to have been ignorant of Vidal's activities.

With Vidal held to answer to a charge of violation of the Harrison Act and his bail fixed at $5000 in El Centro Tuesday, smuggler leaders began a stealthy search for the person who had delivered "Peppe" into the hands of the law.

For some reason they picked upon the American negro as Vidal's betrayer, Chief Hardwick asserted, and his execution was ordered.

Inspector Earl declared yesterday that he did not know Gibson and that the negro had no part in the capture of the arch-drug runner.

JEALOUS LOVER SLAYS WOMAN

Turns Gun on Self After Act; Will Die

Letter Says He Feared She Would Become Addict

Victim Kept Company With Dope Fiend, Charge

To save Mrs. Florence Hopkinson from becoming a drug fiend, "a fate worse than death" as he called it in a letter of explanation to her sons, Louis W. McKernnan yesterday killed her with a bullet through the brain and then turned the weapon on himself. The shooting took place in a flat at 722 East Twenty-second street, where the woman lived with her two sons. McKernnan lived at 1007½ South Maple avenue. At Reception Hospital, where he was taken, he was believed to be dying from a pistol shot wound in his right temple.

McKernnan formerly worked for the Crescent Creamery Company. He was married and had two children, but planned, according to the letter mentioned, to get a divorce and marry Mrs. Hopkinson. The letter declared Mrs. Hopkinson's acceptance of attentions from another man, whom the writer called a "dope fiend," was the cause of the shooting.

ARRIVES IN AUTO

The slayer came to Mrs. Hopkinson's apartment yesterday morning in his car, from which he had removed the rear license plate and the registration certificate, with the purpose, the police believe, of making easier his escape if his death plans should miscarry. What went on in the apartment is not known, but about an hour after the shooting is believed to have taken place, Patrolman Walton entered at the request of neighbors and found the woman dead and the man unconscious on the floor. The neighbors told the officer they heard a disturbance in the flat, but there were no signs of a struggle and the police believe McKernnan took his victim unawares.

Both Mrs. Hopkinson's sons, Raymond and Harold, were working at the time. The police located the latter, who declared McKernnan had been bothering his mother for weeks and she had decided to have no more to do with him.

In McKernnan's clothing were found two letters, one addressed, apparently, to his mother, Mrs. Helen Tomney of Newark, N. J., and speaking of his children, Dorothy and Jack; the other "To Raymond and Harold." The latter letter, which was dated the 17th inst., read:

"This will act as an excuse for the act I am going to commit tomorrow.

"Florence kept asking me to come back to her and promised to act on the square and go with no one but me if I would only come back to her. She only yesterday was planning when she could get married, counting the time when I could get my divorce.

"Then tonight she was out with

PROTEST BASE REMOVAL

Council Forwards Resolution to Navy Secretary, Senators and Representative, Giving Views

Acting on instructions from the City Council, Councilman Langdon yesterday forwarded to Secretary of the Navy Denby, Senators Shortridge and Johnson and Representative Lineberger, at Washington, telegrams protesting against the adoption of the report of the naval board on shore stations. This board, of which Rear-Admiral Rodman is chairman, recommended the removal of the Submarine Base from Los Angeles Harbor to San Diego. Councilman Langdon's telegram was as follows:

"The Rodman naval board on shore stations having, according to newspaper dispatches published in this city, recommended the removal of the Submarine Base from Los Angeles Harbor to San Diego, the Council of the city of Los Angeles this day adopted a resolution protesting against any action being taken which would remove said base from Los Angeles Harbor.

"This protest is based on the fact that the city of Los Angeles has given the Navy valuable space at the harbor without cost for its use as a temporary base, with the expectation and hope that the permanent base would be located here on a site of 146 acres already set aside by the city for this purpose and approved by various naval boards.

GARLAND IS "MOST USEFUL"

Development Association Head Awarded Realty Board Watch at Annual Dinner

The service watch awarded annually by the Los Angeles Realty Board to the citizen of Los Angeles who has rendered the most distinguished service to the city was presented last night to William May Garland, president of the Community Development Association, when the board held its annual dinner at the Ambassador.

In awarding the watch to Mr. Garland, the board departed from its custom of excluding realtors as eligible candidates for the honor, but the departure was explained by Frank Ryan, retiring president of the board, who made the presentation speech.

Mr. Ryan in the presence of the 500 guests told of the work done by Mr. Garland as president of the Community Development Association, an organization of newspapers in the city for the promotion of the civic welfare of Los Angeles, and also of Mr. Garland's work as a member of the International Olympiad Committee. The latter has necessitated two European trips, both of which have been made at Mr. Garland's expense, and calls for another trip to be made in April.

WORK FOR STADIUM

The speaker also stressed the efforts of Mr. Garland in promoting the Los Angeles Stadium, now nearing completion in Exposition Park, and his untiring co-operation in any project which furthered or bettered the city's welfare.

Mr. Garland was overwhelmed by surprise when the watch was given him, since heretofore he has been the person who awarded the watch to the person selected by the Realty Board. In thanking the board briefly, he declared that anything he had done for the city has been inspired by his love for Los Angeles, and that he has not been an aspirant or considered

Cafe Bandit Is Identified by Hold-up Victim

William Cummings and Irving Hade, who were captured last night after a spectacular hold-up of the Hoffman Cafe, were believed by detectives to have been responsible for many similar crimes, after the identification of Cummings yesterday by one of his victims.

H. E. Tryday, plumber, 1208 West Washington street, identified Cummings as one of two bandits who on the 1st inst., held him up in his place of business and locked him in a closet after taking a diamond stickpin valued at $500 and $90 in currency.

Detective Sergeants Cato and Cahill, who are investigating the case, plan to have other victims of hold-ups look the two men over in an effort to identify them as bandits responsible for many robberies during the past few months.

WIFE DIVORCES "ENOCH ARDEN"

Husband Returns to Find Mate Again Wedded

Former "Better Half" Says He Threatened Her

Another Enoch Arden case with a few modern frills came to light yesterday in Judge Summerfield's department of the Superior Court during the hearing of the annulment suit instituted by Mrs. Elizabeth Hays against John Hays. The annulment proceedings were begun by the woman after her previous husband, G. H. Van Eck, whom she had thought dead, reappeared at her home.

Unlike the character in the famous story, however, Van Eck did not turn away from the window with bowed head and heavy heart, but was so "ding-busted mean" that he threatened his former wife, she testified.

Six years ago, Mrs. Van Eck or Hays testified, she quarreled with her husband and he left her. Sometime later she read in a San Francisco newspaper that "G. H. Van Eck" was dead. Believing the dead man to be her husband, she said, she consented to marry Hays. They were married at Santa Ana.

"I told John Hays at the time he was calling on me that if he was willing to take a chance on Mr. Van Eck being dead I was. So we got married. Then later Van Eck showed up, much to my surprise. He didn't come back because he loved me, but because he was so ding-busted mean. I'm going to get a divorce from him," she declared.

Judge Summerfield then asked Mrs. Van Eck if she would marry Hays again.

"If he is a good boy I will marry him again," was the smiling response. "He's on probation now."

Mr. Hays, grinning, interjected that he would continue to be good. The marriage was annuled.

Husband Tells Court of Wife's Porch Signals

Flashes made by turning on and off the front porch light were the signals used by Mrs. Gertrude E. Hitchcock to denote that her husband was not home that evening, Earle A. Hitchcock asserted yesterday in a suit for divorce filed in the Superior Court.

When the light flashed, Hitchcock asserted, Mrs. Hitchcock would receive a visit from a man whom she introduced to neighbors as "Uncle Will." Once Hitchcock found stubs of two or three personally rolled cigarets, he said, and asked an expalnation.

"My sister must have rolled them," he asserts his wife replied.

"Uncle Will" was a frequent visitor, Hitchcock declares.

himself eligible for the honor bestowed upon him.

CLOCK FOR RYAN

Frank Ryan, retiring president, was presented with a handsome desk clock in recognition of his services to the board during his two consecutive terms as president.

Clinton E. Miller, chairman of the evening, introduced Irving H. Rice, president of the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association, Frasier O. Reed, president of the State Association of Real Estate Boards, and Sylvester Wheeler, past president of the Chamber of Commerce. Martin G. Hart was then installed as president of the realty board for 1922.

James Schermerkorn of Detroit, Mich., the principal speaker, talked on "The Soul of a City."

Preceding Mr. Schermerhorn's talk, the annual report of the retiring president was presented by Mr. Ryan, who laid emphasis upon the service which the organization has rendered to the State, the city, and to its membership. Mr. Ryan pointed out that for the good of California, local realtors sought and accomplished an intercity friendship movement with the San Francisco board to bring about teamwork and co-operation between the two principal cities of the State.

RESULT OF PLAN

This plan has resulted in the holding of five meetings between the boards of the two cities. The realtors' caravan to the national convention of realty boards at San Francisco last summer, through which several hundred eastern realtors were given an opportunity to view California under the most favorable conditions, also was touched upon by Mr. Ryan. Service to the city was outlined in the part which the board has taken in civic problems, and under the head of service to members. Mr. Ryan told of the bringing of Tom Ingersoll, for eleven years secretary of the national association, to Los Angeles to take charge of the secretaryship of the local organization, the installation of a map room and information bureau, appraisal activities, publications, and real estate education through the universities.

PAST ACHIEVEMENTS

Mr. Hart, the new president, said that two decades of honorable traditions and splendid achievement have been handed down to the new administration, which also becomes direct successor, he declared, to the benefits of two unusually effective years during which Mr. Ryan was president. Mr. Hart said that he felt the responsibility keenly, and that it was encumbent upon his administration to make 1922 an even better year for the organization.

Cities of the country are keen in commercial competition, they produce slogans and statistics, but cities do not have songs, Mr. Schermerhorn said, for the reason that the city has no soul, or if it has it does not express itself tangibly.

Cities can grow prosperous on the products of their factories, and while there is money to be made in subdivisions, great office buildings and other enterprises, the soul side of city-building means a spirit of brotherliness, neighborliness, humanity and civic zeal, and in these qualities true civic greatness lies.

"Los Angeles, beautiful in body, enchanting in outward grace, cannot live unto herself alone," he said. "What you, only a little lower than the angels, do with the golden sunlight that passes through the spectroscope of the scenario, concerns all Christendom nearly. Los Angeles becomes recreated 20,000,000 fold daily through the cinema; it lives 33,000,000 times anew through the daily press. Amazingly significant what manner of city Los Angeles becomes day by day.

"The breath of life breathed into the dust of the earth made man a living soul. The breath of human service and benefaction, breathed into the products of soil and sky, will make of Los Angeles a city with a soul!"

The board's first service watch was awarded to Harry Haldeman two years ago, and the second watch was awarded last year to Harry Chandler.

Girl Returning From School Is Felled, Robbed

Isabel Hancock, 17 years of age, 8237 Fountain avenue, Hollywood, was knocked down by a bandit as she was returning home from school yesterday evening, and robbed of $11.50. Hollywood police were notified.

The attack occurred at Havenhurst avenue and Sunset Boulevard. Miss Hancock said the bandit was unarmed. He leaped from behind a tree, she said. He then took the contents of her vanity bag and fled, police were told.

Detectives Hutchins and Becker of the Hollywood station were detailed to the case.

Held for Fritzi Mann's Death

TAKE CLARK TO SLAYING SCENE

day night. The owner of the Blue Sea Cottages identified the body of Miss Mann as that of a girl who had registered at one of his cottages Sunday night with a male companion. "W. Johnston and wife" appeared on the register.

The man who registered as "W. Johnston" appeared very nervous, according to the owner of the cottage. In the room were found articles of clothing, identified by the mother as belonging to the dancer, and a partially filled bottle of whisky which had a peculiar odor. Chemists took the dregs from the bottle and will analyze to ascertain if the fluid contained drugs.

Early yesterday afternoon Detective Chadwick, of the San Diego police, found a blanket on the beach near the spot where the body of Miss Mann was found. It was identified by the cottage owner as one taken from the cottage. San Diego police believe that the blanket was used to wrap the body of the dancer when it was removed from the cottage to the beach.

DENIES GUILT

In the meantime Clark, who was held at the local City Jail for Chief of Police Patrick, maintained his innocence. He admitted knowing the dead dancer but stated he had not seen her since November 7.

He stated that with a party of friends, including William Heitzen and J. O. Eddy, he had motored to Ensenada last Saturday. He later left Ensenada and returned to San Diego, arriving Saturday night, he declared. There he went to a party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Al Flowers, 4096 First street, San Diego, spent the evening there and then went to the Hotel Maryland, according to his statement. He maintained he rang for ice water twice during the night and stated records of the hotel would show this and prove that he had not left there during the night. He stated he arose at 8 a.m., Sunday, left San Diego at 11:40 a.m. and arrived at Los Angeles at 4:30 p.m.

In making his statement Clark first declared he had arrived here at "4:30 o'clock Monday." Later he corrected himself and stated he meant to say "Sunday."

Against the seemingly bonafide alibi furnished by the men under arrest police had unearthed several discrepancies in his story and were busy checking all details.

A Marmon automobile owned by Clark was seized as evidence and certain marks were found on the car which police scrutinized closely. On the seat cushion stains were found which police believe were blood stains. The plate glass over the speedometer and the clock was broken and there was a dent on the rear body and marks of grayish, sandy rock which could have resulted from a shap impact with a rock or cliff.

From the management of the La Casa de Flores Hotel, corner of West Adams and Grand avenue, where Clark was arrested, Detective Sergt. Trainor learned that Clark had cashed a check for $250 on Tuesday and told the management he was leaving for New York Wednesday.

ROOM SEARCHED

His room in the hotel was searched and almost all of his wearing apparel was found in a trunk which he kept in the room. His linen just had been returned from the laundry and but one letter was found in the room. The letter asked "where he was living" and was signed "Mother."

From all but one picture hook on the wall pictures were hung, but the nature of the picture removed could not be ascertained.

Besides the trunk which contained his wearing apparel there was another in the room which was locked. Neither bore Clark's initials, one being labeled "W.G.R." and the other "M.E.E."

The management of the hotel stated that Clark paid a deposit on a room November 4 and moved his belongings there on December 8. He left the hotel last Friday and registered again Monday at 2 p.m.

The arrest of Clark was brought about by an anonymous telephone call to the San Pedro police. Late Wednesday night a man called the San Pedro station and told them they should arrest Roger Clark, living at 240 West Adams street. The party calling the police stated that he had indorsed a large check for Clark and that he feared he was going to leave the city.

POLICE NOTIFIED

Los Angeles police were notified early yesterday and also Chief of Police Patrick of San Diego. Orders were given to arrest Clark and Detective Sergt. Trainor was sent to the address given.

He waited for some time before Clark appeared. According to Detective Trainor, Clark did not stop his car in front of the hotel where he was living, but halted it in front of 405 West Adams street. He started toward the house at that address, but was stopped by Trainor, who informed him he was wanted at the police station.

Clark explained that he had driven his car to 405 West Adams street because a friend living there was quite ill and he desired to ascertain her condition.

On his person when searched at the police station were found two hotel pass-keys. One was for Room 544 Maryland Hotel, San Diego, the second for Room 832, U. S. Grant Hotel, San Diego.

Clark informed officers he was engaged in promoting agricultural motion-pictures in Mexico, that he was the scion of a wealthy New York family, and that he had been formerly head-buyer of print paper for a New York newspaper. He stated he was divorced and that his former wife was living at 2962 B street, San Diego.

ADMITS ACQUAINTANCE

Questioned regarding his acquaintance with Miss Mann he admitted knowing her and stated he had "gone out with Fritzie and her mother early in November." He claimed he had seen her only twice, the first time at a benefit she gave for her invalid sister. The second time he was with her he said she attempted to borrow $75 from him to use in obtaining medical attention for her sister. He refused the loan, he declared.

In San Diego police questioned Dr. L. L. Jacobs for two hours yesterday and following the quiz he was placed under arrest on orders of Chief of Police Patrick pending further investigation into the murder of Miss Mann. Dr. Jacobs retained an attorney and refused to give out any statement.

Police there were also checking on Clark's story told to police here and in interviewing Al Flowers, at whose home Clark declared he spent a night, found that this was disputed.

"Clark's statement that he spent the night at my home is not true," Flowers declared. "He called the house by telephone about 7:45 p.m. Sunday and asked my stepdaughter, Miss Gladys Taylor, to take dinner with him. She accepted and Clark called for her at 8 p.m., bringing her home at 11 o'clock. I understand they dined at the Maryland Hotel. Immediately after bringing my daughter home Clark departed."

The inquest over the body of Fritzi Mann was held in San Diego yesterday afternoon at the Smith-Goodbody funeral chapel. After hearing the evidence the jury brought in an open verdict: "That Fritzi Mann met her death on January 14 by drowning in the Pacific Ocean near Torrey Pines under circumstances unknown to this jury."

William Mann, the brother, stated in his testimony that Clark took his sister to Tijuana on November 1, calling for her early in the morning. He further stated that the couple had met early in October.

Dr. John Shea, autopsy surgeon, testified that Miss Mann was about to become a mother and had been in a delicate condition for more than four months. The brother was not satisfied with this deduction and instructed Coroner Kelley to employ physicians for additional information.

Dr. Shea told of the bruise over the right eye of the girl, which he said had been inflicted before death and had been sufficient to produce unconsciousness. The inquest was conducted by Dist.-Atty. Chester Kentley and Coroner S. C. Kelley.

A gold bar pin, identified by the mother, was found by John Bloodworth of Del Mar, 100 yards from the beach where he found the body, according to his testimony. Investigators there believe that the pin was dropped at the point from which the girl was carried to the ocean and thrown in.

William Heitzen, who, according to Clark's statement to the police would prove that he (Clark) spent Sunday night in the Maryland Hotel, was questioned by police last night and told a story which did not coincide in all of its details with the one told by Clark.

Heitzen declared he had met Clark three months ago and that later they made a trip to Mexico. Last Friday both went to Ensenada and while there took some motion-pictures. They returned to San Diego Sunday and engaged room 328 in the Maryland Hotel for the night. At 8:30 o'clock Clark left the hotel, he declared, and he further stated he understood he was going to see Gladys Flowers. This was the last he saw of Clark until the following morning. When he awoke Clark was in the bed with him.

"From 8:30 p.m. Sunday until 7 a.m. Monday I cannot give any information as to Clark's whereabouts," he stated.

Heitzen declared the theory held by police that the bloodstains on the rear cushions of Clark's automobile were incriminating evidence was false.

"On our return trip from San Diego we found a man by the road who had been injured in an accident. We took him in the car and left him at the Receiving Hospital. He had suffered a cut about the head and the wound was bleeding. This explains the bloodstains, I think."

Clark, according to police, stated that Heitzen awoke when he entered the hotel room late Sunday night.

The proprietor of a drug store near the La Casa de Flores Hotel is said to have informed detectives that Clark had made several purchases of sleeping powders during the past few days.

upon. Chief Oaks is desirous of obtaining an increase of $30 a month for the men of his department.

The rise of $30 per month has been recommended to the finance committee by the Crime Commission of Los Angeles and an earnest request was made on the committee members by representatives of the commission last night that action, so far as the police are concerned, be deferred until the commission has an opportunity to confer with the committee and the other members of the Council. Invitations have been issued to these officials to meet with the Crime Commission next Tuesday to consider the subject.

The Crime Commission was fathered by the Community Development Association, composed of many of the most prominent business and professional men of the city. The commission is composed of the publishers of the five daily newspapers and six other directors of the Community Development Association. Maj. Walter K. Tuller is chairman.

The Merchants and Manufacturers Association at their meeting yesterday instructed F. J. Zeehandelaar, secretary of the Association, to write a letter to the City Council recommending that the wages of the police be increased in order to attract and hold a better class of men on the police force.

During the discussion which preceded this instruction, it was pointed out that until a larger and better police force can be recruited no relief can be expected from the orgy of crime which is prevalent throughout the city at the present time.

"Now boys, you know I have always loved Florence and you know what I have done for her. To do me this way is more than I can stand, so I have decided to take her with me to a world we know nothing of, but which I hope is not half as cruel as this one has proved to be.

"May you boys find it in your heart to forgive me, for I believe I am saving her from a fate worse than death, for this fellow will not only make a dope fiend out of her, and I would rather see her dead any time.

"Please have the authorities notify my sister, Mrs. Corinne Simpson Wilson, 4701 Fourteenth avenue, N. E., Seattle, Wash., and she will see to my burial as well as look after the children. Remember, boys, I think of you both as though you were my own and trust you will forgive me.

"With kindest regards to you both and also your grandmother, I am your friend, L. W. McKernnan."

Both McKernnan and his victim were about of an age, approximately 45 years. Surgeons estimated Mrs. Hopkinson had been dead about an hour when found.

Two piano solos were presented by Lulu Mueller, a student of Joseffy of New York up to two years ago, when she came to California to live. She has been heard from frequently in recital work. At present she is a member of the faculty at Page Military Academy and at the Davis Musical College. She earned a large measure of commendation last night for superb expression in "Hungarian Rhapsodie in F Sharp Minor," by Dohnanyi, and MacDowell's "Concert Etude."

Again last night Dr. Eugene Francis Storke, whose inimical delivery and meaty subjects are awaited eagerly each week from KHJ by listeners-in who have a keen appreciation of gems from the philosophy of life, entertained his invisible audience with a lecture, "The Soul of the Soil." Excerpts follow:

One of those intimate juvenile-adult conversations which the youthful listeners-in on KHJ's children's period from 6:45 to 7:30 p.m., have come to look for almost as impatiently as they await for Christmas morning, made up the major part of the early evening broadcast last night.

Little Nona Clapp proved that interesting things often come in small packages. Although she had almost to rise on tiptoe to get her mouth on a level with the microphone on the table, she entered into conversation and repartee with "Uncle John" that was as interesting as it was spontaneous. Little Nona recited and also sang a little song.

Emerson Frome, who says he is almost 6 years old, and who has aspirations which his foster mother—he is an orphan—and his teacher, Marshall Stedman, believe promises to be fruitful, again displayed his talents during the bedtime period by reciting several of his teacher's poetic writings, and also by joining in with "Uncle John" and little Nona Clapp in more or less impromptu discussions.

OTHER ENTERTAINERS

Two other juveniles, though several years older than either Nona or Emerson, gave the kiddies musical entertainment. Betty Graves, violinist, with Mildred Lowe at the piano, rendered "Arioso," by Bohm; "Serenade," by Czerwonky; "Orientale," by Cui, and "Why Should I Cry Over You" that would have been worthy of artists many years their senior.

Four soprano solos and a brief address on the new issue of United States saving certificates, made by Tenney Williams, formed the afternoon broadcast. Mary Alice Whipple, accompanied by Olive Brockett, gave individuality to Stickles's "Who Knows," Strickland's "Spring Is a Lady," Brahe's "I Passed by Your Window" and "Care Selve" from "Atlanta," by Handel. Miss Whipple possesses the ability to give colorful interpretation to her solos which makes them stand out in any program.

Radioland had a taste of radio unrestrained during the afternoon concert, when Miss Brockett and Miss Whipple were taken before the microphone and, without having knowledge that they were "on the air," were engaged in a conversation which had as its theme the fact that Miss Brockett thought giving a radio concert was marked by too much quietude.

Whitworth, will sing "Depuis Le Jour," from opera "Louise," by Charpentier; "Care Selve," by Handel; "Snowflakes," by Albert Mallison; "Welcome, Sweet Spring," from "The Morning of the Year," by Cadman; "I Know Where a Garden Grows," by John H. Densmore. Mrs. T. A. Whitmore, pianist, will play "Tarentella," by Johnson. Dick Kennedy, accordion soloist, will play "Spirit of Independence March," "Naughty Waltz," "All by Myself" and "O Sole Mio," by Di Capua. Vassar Girls' Orchestra—Isabel Chandler, violinist and leader; Edith Davis, cornetist; Kathleen Ormston, drums; "Peggy" La Cource, pianist, and Lucille Brynilson, saxophonist, will play "Without You," "Carolina in the Morning," "When the Leaves Come Tumbling Down," "Tomorrow I'll be in Dixie," "Swanee Smiles," "Take Me Back to My Carolina Home," "Homesick," "Chicago," "Rose of the Rio Grande," "I'll Build a Stairway to Paradise," "Lost a Wonderful Girl," and "Martha." Fred L. Dendy, reader, will read "A Time to Weep," "Crossed Fingers," by Strickland Gilliland; "American for Me," by Van Dyke. News items.

Girls' Silk Dresses, $25.00

Silks for the Spring—They Assume Position of Pre-eminence in the Girls' Store for Friday

—A position of which they are rightfully deserving.

—For these Silk Dresses for girls who wear sizes 12 to 17 almost beggar association with price—they are so lovely. They have an unmistakable touch of "distinctiveness"—a fascination which supersedes price.

—And then, when one knows that they are so unordinarily low priced as $25.00, the surprise is pleasant.

—Taffeta—always a favorite of The Spring—takes to much tucking and perkiness.

—Patterned Materials—the new note in fashion for spring—assume the straighter, plainer lines and let designs be accent enough.

—Lovely Crepes—fall in graceful drapes, and soft folds. Many soft pleatings are found among the trimmings.

—Among the colors: One finds, of course, the ever desirable black and blues and browns—but also such new shades for the new season as Almond Green, Sandalwood, Madeline, Rose and Jade.

—The High School and College-Girls' Section, Bullock's Fifth Floor.

DESIGNING PERSONS

Most all of the styles and fashions in gowns and garments made for women are designed by men. After all there are more designing men than women. The trouble is that the designing woman cuts the widest swath.

LINE IS NAUGHTY

An Illinois judge sent a man to jail for six months for cursing Central. The girl said the language made her faint. The girls are harder than that out this way. If they fainted at a cross word some of them would be kept in a trance most of the time.

THE DIFFERENCE

Sweet Geraldine lustily and heartily damned the newspaper men who wanted to ask about her divorce. What change time hath wrought! She never cursed the press when she was doing pictures in Hollywood. She was as amiable and approachable as a chocolate eclaire.

THE SMUGGLERS

The city of Detroit is said to be consuming an average of more than 400,000 bottles of Canadian beer every week. This is a pint for every inhabitant. The slogan of light wines and beer must have quite a run there in spite of the fact that Michigan was dry before Volstead came into the game.

CIRCLES OF CRIME

Our criminals seem to be in active training for the great competitions—who shall be first to break into the new jail and who will be last to break out of the old one? Anyhow, things are stirring in the circles of felony and misdemeanor. The officers are rounding 'em up in blocks of five to fifty and the proposition to utilize Mt. Baldy for a rock pile for the usage of vagabonds is being considered by the committee on ways and means.

REPORTING PROGRESS

Some of this Coue stuff reads like the advertising matter for these character builders who train subscribers to look their employer steadily in the eye and by sheer intellectual prowess compel him to double their pay. When they sit in a poker game with a measly pair of treys they keep repeating to themselves: "I have a full house and it is getting fuller and fuller every minute." Sometimes they can get away with it. If they do the method is a success. So with the Coue cures. When they are real cures they are a success. Everything helps.

RETRENCHMENT

In connection with a retrenchment program there is a bill before the Assembly which would reduce the State Railroad Commission from five to three members and cut their pay from $8000 to $6000 a year. It is submitted as a protest against the action of Gov. Stephens in packing the commission with his political favorites and countenancing its extravagances. It is certain that several of the commissions will have to be placed on a hard-tack basis if real economies in State government are to be effected. Some of the commissions should be required to show cause for their existence. At present there seems no just warrant for their raids upon the treasury.

CRIME SANATORIUMS

A majority of modern statists agree that our penitentiary system is far from satisfactory, yet few attempts to ameliorate conditions have met with startling success.

The "honor system" for prisoners broke down so often that its continuance is no longer considered prudent. Coddling prisoners has proved more disastrous than cudgelling them. Prison chaplains and well-meaning visitors have been unable to install religion behind the bars.

All we have made of the modern jail is a cage for confining dangerous characters. It serves the one object—and that, of course, a vital one—of making the republic safer for its law-abiding citizens.

As a reformatory, however, the modern penitentiary hardly comes up to specifications. Fifty-seven per cent of our prison population is made up of "repeaters," and these repeaters are responsible for 91 per cent of the crime committed.

Obviously if we could devise a penitentiary system that did not turn loose "repeaters" on the world, we should more than double its present usefulness to society. This at one blow would cut the prison population by more than half and pretty nearly cause an ebb tide in the present wave of crime. Can this be done?

Louis Victor Eytinge believes it can. He has served a long term in a State penitentiary, he has made good, he is a man of unusual intelligence and has made this subject a life study. So he can speak with authority.

From his experience he divides criminals into two classes, one of which requires treatment in a hospital or asylum and the other schooling in some useful occupation. Neither class should be turned loose on the public till completely cured, the proof of the cure being their ability and willingness to earn an honest living.

In other words, instead of jails and penitentiaries we should have psychological hospitals and crime sanatoriums. But to make these succeed we must first have a new set of physicians to diagnose and treat the disease of crime. And it may take some time to establish this new school.

TAXATION WITHOUT REPRESENTATION

For two years the people of Southern California have been forced to endure the tyranny of taxation without adequate representation in the State Legislature. While the constitution specifically provides that there shall be a redistricting of the Senate and Assembly districts on a population basis after each Federal census, the Legislature two years ago flatly refused to obey this constitutional mandate, thus robbing Los Angeles alone of seven additional Assemblymen and two Senators.

This incident is but one of many of the tyrannies of the Johnson-Stephens State machine. Johnson is in Washington, Stephens is in retirement; but the rights of the people of Southern California are still denied them. There is no parallel for such injustice in the history of the American commonwealths.

No one contests the mandatory provision of the constitution; but the machine politicians of the north get together with the representatives of the counties that would lose by the reapportionment and say, "Let's stand pat." As the redistricting must be done by legislative action the representatives from the southern part of the State find themselves in a minority. No way has yet been found to mandamus the Legislature to obey the constitutional mandate.

Such a tyranny of a majority is the negation of justice; but it exists and will continue to exist until Southern California protests strongly enough and effectively enough to secure its constitutional rights.

Our crime, in the eyes of the north, is that we are growing too rapidly. The increase in population south of the Tehachapi in the decade between 1910 and 1920 has overwhelmed the northerners. Under the constitution there can be but forty Senatorial districts and eighty Assembly districts. If Los Angeles gets seven additional Assemblymen and three additional Senators, to which it is entitled by its present population, it means the loss of that many legislators to the central and northern parts of the State.

Such a shifting of political influence is not at all to the liking of the northerners. They are very willing that Los Angeles county shall pay one-third the State taxes; but they are not willing that we shall have ten Senators and twenty-two Assemblymen.

Redistricted on a population basis there would be 86,000 persons in each Senatorial district and 43,000 in each Assembly district. The Southern California delegation has offered a compromise at the present session which would give to Los Angeles county twenty Assemblymen and ten Senators. San Francisco at one time had that number.

This compromise has been submitted to the Legislature in the form of the Baker bill. It does not give us all to which we are entitled, but it does away with a part of the inequality to which we are arbitrarily compelled to submit. Sacramento advices indicate, however, that even this compromise will be opposed by the political bloc in the north.

With brazen effrontery they refer for precedent to the disfranchisement of the Republican party in California during the national campaign of 1912, averring that it is not a question of right but expediency. They say Los Angeles county is growing so rapidly that it is likely to have within another ten years enough population to demand half the total State representation, which, according to them, would be bad for the rest of the State.

There has been so much trickery in California politics in the last ten years that the sense of justice seems to have been obliterated in Northern California. And it is now for us of Southern California to ask ourselves seriously what we are going to do about it.

If we were violently inclined we might refuse to pay further State taxes until we received our constitutional representation. There is a mass of historical precedent for such a procedure. But there is enough intelligence and enough initiative in Southern California to find a better way.

Our representatives in the Legislature will be strengthened in their opposition to this continued injustice if their constituents write or telegraph to them, to the Governor and to the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the Assembly demanding their constitutional rights.

SPEEDING WHEELS OF JUSTICE

An amendment to the State constitution, enabling a three-fourths majority to return a verdict in a criminal jury trial, will probably follow the recommendation of the Crime Commission, backed by a majority of the local bench and by the Los Angeles County Bar Association. The Bar Association is co-operating with the Crime Commission in preparing the necessary bill.

If the proposed change becomes law California will be the first State in the Union to adopt the three-fourths jury verdict in criminal trials. There have been so many mistrials of late in our courts, so many hung juries, so many manufactured delays, so many cases dismissed officially for lack of evidence, so many Scotch verdicts of "not proven"—nearly all of which can be traced to the action of one or two unduly prejudiced jurors—that the business of the courts here has become heavily bogged and the chances for malefactors to escape the penalty of their crimes multiplied enormously.

No doubt the proposed amendment will meet with general approval throughout the State. The only ones to regret the change will be those looking for an easy way to defeat justice. The money it will save the taxpayers, no less than the litigants, in costly retrials, the waste it will eliminate in time taken to collect and present evidence will be a considerable item removed from the debit column of State expenses.

Nor can it be said—allowing for the high intelligence of our California citizenship—that any miscarriage of justice is likely to result from a decision arrived by nine men out of twelve, who have devoted close attention to the details of a criminal case. At any rate the chances are all in favor of the nine good men and true as against the one recalcitrant juror in rendering a decision that shall be fair alike both to the prosecution and to the prisoner at the bar.

The one exception to the rule will be in a verdict involving capital punishment. There no doubt a unanimous verdict will best meet the demands of the people—for in this one case the verdict is irrevocable.

THE FRENCH MONARCHISTS

What are the French thinking, not the diplomats and the lesser politicians, but the middle classes and the agricultural workers, those who pay the taxes and produce the things necessary to make government and social and industrial existence possible?

A study of the French reaction since the war will perhaps make plain why the people forced the government to adopt a strong, belligerent attitude toward Germany, why the government was forced to send an army into the Ruhr district or resign.

A perusal of the press and the literature of today shows traces of a renaissance of the monarchical spirit. A considerable group of the French are tiring of democracy. They are prepared to renounce and repudiate the whole of the nineteenth century with what they term "its baneful influence on literature, customs and religion."

Ten years ago France was agnostic. The Catholic clergy were subjected to petty persecutions. Laws were passed which forbade the use of the word God or a reference to the Supreme Being in any book used in the public schools of France. That spirit of atheism passed with the war. Led by Alsace and Lorraine, which are strongly Catholic, there has been a marked religious awakening.

The materialist school, of which Zola was one of the leaders, has lessened very perceptibly. The symbolists are now in high favor. Bourget, Bazin and the other Catholic writers are feted, while Anatole France and the dilettantes are in disgrace.

In the Chamber of Deputies the Catholic and Monarchist parties are stronger than at any other time in a generation. There is full and open discussion in the press of the return to a limited monarchy. The Napoleonic legend is in the ascendant.

Leon Daudet, Catholic and monarchist, has just written a book on "The Stupid Nineteenth Century" that has already run into something like twenty editions. The printing presses cannot operate rapidly enough to supply the demand. Daudet is both an author and a politician. He is the leader of a formidable group. Here is a striking paragraph from his already famous work:

> Before ten years, even before five, perhaps, France will have to be a monarchy, or she will no longer exist; for France is of a familial temperament, and family and democracy are as antinomic as mother country and democracy.

Religion and State are closely allied in the group that Daudet heads. He writes:

> For a Frenchman, no two systems of ethics can exist. There is only one, the ethics of the Catholic Church, which has permeated our blood, temperament, our ways of thinking, our behavior for hundreds of years, and which is inseparable (even in the eyes of the constant unbeliever) from our national spirit and soul.

Daudet is but one of a score who are writing along similar lines. In this country we would term it monarchist propaganda. It is a repudiation of the Revolution and all that it entailed; and, judging from the amount of publicity it receives, it is popular with the bourgeois class.

There is something illusive and variable in the French temperament. It does not resemble the cliff, but the moving tide. The following analysis of the French character by De Tocqueville, a great Frenchman, is peculiarly apt to the present attitude of the French government and people:

> France is more capable of heroism than virtue, of genius than good sense; better able to conceive great designs than to complete great enterprises, the most brilliant and the most dangerous of the nations of Europe; the best constituted to become alternately the object of admiration, of pity, of terror, but never of indifference.

NEW WARS FOR OLD

No more kings, no more wars. When in 1917 the United States intervened to decide a war that should end all wars the majority of Americans firmly believed that kings and thrones were at the back of all the earth's martial troubles. We thought a democratic world would be a peaceful world.

Perhaps—had we taken more time to think—we might have doubted whether the exiling of the Hohenzollerns or the killing of a Czar or the abolishment of the House of Hapsburg or the rise of the young democratic party in Turkey was going to usher in the long-heralded Utopian peace era.

Looking back over the pages of history we note that the Roman republic fought more wars than the Roman Empire—and fought them more successfully. Democratic Athens in the B.C. ages got mixed in a greater number of armed conflicts than Imperial Persia and got out of them in better shape. When the Dutch republic was the only republic in Europe it kept all the surrounding monarchies on the jump.

No republic, ancient or modern, has ever been so wedded to peace as the ancient kingdom of China. The new Chinese democracy woke up and that country at once assumed a martial aspect. Israel under the judges did a whole lot more fighting than Israel under the kings. And our own republic has not done so badly as a wager of victorious wars.

And so, regarding the map of Europe today, the passing of old kingdoms and the establishing of new democracies have not pacified that continent. Popular passion appears to be even more disturbing than royal caprice. Exchanging old crowns for new republics simply means trading old wars for new ones.

Nobody can see any improvement in the half-democratized Europe of today over the autocratically controlled Europe of the last century. Perhaps a change of heart, not a change of form, is what this sad world needs.

RIPPLING RHYMES

THE RAIN

When first the rain began to pour, refreshing dale and dell, I stood and watched it from my door, and blessed it as it fell; there'd been no rain for weary weeks, no swollen cloud developed leaks; drouth-stricken men had sent up shrieks for quite a little spell. It rained all day by starts and fits, it made the landscape wet; it made the greatest of all hits, it was the one best bet; but when again the morning broke, and rain was falling as I woke, I said, "This thing's beyond a joke;" it made me fume and fret. Next day the rain was falling still, as though to earn its pay, and torrents rolled adown the hill and washed my fence away; frogs chanted in the dripping dawn and ducks were swimming on the lawn and alligators and their spawn arrived, as though to stay. "This thing," I said, "I cannot bear; it breaks this heart of mine; a written protest I'll prepare, and ask my friends to sign; we'll let the weather-makers know they can't abuse their patrons so; they'll make the water cease its flow, and send us something fine." The rain still fell, still getting worse; I grumbled and byhecked; if only this old universe were run as I'd direct! I'm not consulted as to rain, or snow or drouth or hurricane; I make my protests all in vain, so what can we expect? WALT MASON.

PROFESSIONAL MEN IN POLITICS

In the new United States Senate there will be two physicians—Dr. Copeland of New York and Dr. Ball of Delaware. Senator Shipstead of Minnesota is a dentist by profession. Two college presidents are included in the Senate's personnel—Fess of Ohio and Ladd of North Dakota. Senator Norbeck of South Dakota is described as a "well-digger."

THIS IS THE DAY

Robert E. Lee, the chief military officer of the Confederate States, was born in the year 1807 on the Westmoreland hillside of Virginia. His father was famous as "Light Horse Harry" of the American Revolution.

Robert E. Lee graduated from West Point in 1829 and served with distinction in the Mexican War. He married Mary Custis, the great-grand-daughter of Washington's second wife.

The Union made extraordinary efforts to keep Lee on their side and even offered him the command of the Union Army after the firing on Fort Sumter. But, though opposed to secession, Lee refused to lead an army against the Southern States. When Virginia joined the seceding States Lee accepted the command of the Virginia troops. Though he was the foremost general of the South, President Davis himself was the technical commander-in-chief.

After the war Gen. Lee retired to private life. He died in his home at Lexington, Va., at the age of 64. Robert E. Lee ranks with the great military geniuses of the world, his defense of Petersburg and Richmond being intensively studied even today by all the military schools of Europe.

THE ROOTS OF CRIME

BY HARRY CARR

An important step in the right direction has been taken in assembling good citizens to the support of the police.

But all the police in the world can't fight back the criminals until certain defects of the criminal courts have been remedied.

As it is now every crook knows that he has a good gambling chance to fool the jury after his case comes to trial.

Ineffectual as may be our system for catching criminals, our system for deciding their guilt or innocence is still more blundering and clumsy.

Witness, for instance, the case of Clara Phillips, whose attorney succeeded in convincing a sufficient proportion of the jurors that she was a moron of the mental age of 8 years, incapable, mentally, of realizing that murder was a crime. If Clara is 8, most of the rest of us must be about 2½.

The reason for the failure of justice in that case was the reason why it usually fails.

The judge who had had experience in assessing the value of testimony, who was able to judge the credibility of witnesses, was forced, by the eccentricities of our criminal law, to sit there like a bump on a log—speechless, helpless and powerless.

Had he expressed the slightest hint to the jury of his opinion of the guilt or innocence of the defendant the trial would probably have been invalidated.

I have heard criminal lawyers threaten to appeal cases because they said the trial judge indicated to the jurors his opinion by the

PROPAGANDA

BY MARY ROBERTS RINEHART

[In a letter to the Institute of Government which will convene soon in Washington.]

The profound effort required to turn the United States from a peace to a war basis was infinitely greater than that necessary in any European country. It is our national habit to believe that each was in our last war and so conduct ourselves. War, therefore, requires in us not only a complete change in our mental attitude, but the additional nervous strain of hurried preparation.

In examining the semihysterical condition in which we find ourselves the effect of the recent war looms very large. We have not yet gone back to sanity and calmness. We are still emotional, still followers of rumor, still suspicious and fearful. We distrust nations, men and motives. A good many of us have become what Wells calls the "God-sakers," people who are madly wringing their hands and crying "For God's sake, let's do something."

It is time to sit down calmly and do a little straight thinking. Not to go back to our prewar lethargy, but to realize that a great and rich territory, peopled by a thoughtful and patriotic citizenry, cannot go far wrong; that the obligation of steering this nation's course lies, in the end, in the hands of its people and that, at this moment, its people are still being swayed by emotional gales that swing them hither and yon.

When we cease to put together, toward the definite ends of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness we are open to the attack of every demagogue who chooses to assume the attitude of leadership. New theories spring up, untried and revolutionary, and find their following among this seething mass. Prejudices, class hatreds, even religious differences are deliberately being used to increase our confusion. The normal uneasiness of a people recovering from a great war is being fomented into bitterness and discontent.

The dangerous theory that any change is progress is abroad in the land.

So we find ourselves between the two opposing forces, the hands that would pull us apart and those that would hold us together. Small wonder that the advocates of this latter class are called reactionaries and stand-patters. They must pull hard against the opposing strain.

And for the mass of the people in between, what?

It has two courses, and only two. One is to submit blindly to the leadership of small, organized minorities. The other is to make its decisions for itself. To go back to its Constitution, under which we have lived and prospered for almost 150 years. To rouse itself from its hysteria or its lethargy and think for itself. To suspect all demagogues and all untried theories. To fear all attacks on its Constitution and its organized forces of law and order. And to realize the difference between the leadership of the demagogue and the statesman, remembering this: that it is easier to tear down than to build up.

The Institute of Government is an endeavor to bring us back to straight thinking under the Constitution. It is badly needed. In the end, what the people think, that will we be. But at the present moment we are in the hands of a few small and selfish groups, attempting in every possible way to distract us and to impose their will upon us. Some of them already succeeded to an incredible extent. Not the mass will of the American people, but their selfish aims, will prevail unless we recognize what they are doing and set our faces against them.

No nation so rich as America can hope to be immune from those who would possess her. Her size and her location prevent her being captured by war, but she may be stolen from us in other ways.

The attacks that are being made on her solidarity are being made through the minds and emotions of her people. This is a curious warfare, one of brain against brain, emotion against emotion. Propaganda is the weapon and

ARROYO BOARD MAKES REPORT

Efforts to Exclude Rock Crushers Reviewed

Building of Flood Control Channel Explained

Beautification of Area Urged Strongly

Councilman Robert M. Allen, chairman of the City Council's Public Welfare Committee, received from the City Planning Commission yesterday a copy of the report of the commission's special committee which has been investigating conditions in the Arroyo Seco.

Special reference is made in the report to the ultimate exclusion of all rock crushers from the Arroyo, the building of a flood-control channel to protect the bed and banks of the Los Angeles River, so that the Los Angeles-Pasadena scenic highway can be built quickly, and the immediate beautification of that area.

The commission's special committee consisted of P. D. Noel, chairman, and Ruth McClintock, Lyman Farwell and Cora D. Lewis. The committee's report said:

"In conjunction with several other organization we have aided in several projects which, it is to be hoped, are the beginning of the end of the vandalism that has so nearly ruined the Arroyo.

"With the Dayton-avenue Association and the City Attorney, we have aided in the signing of a contract between the city and the rock-crusher interests operating between the Avenue 36 bridge and the Avenue 26 bridge which will eliminate the latter not later than the end of the year.

CRUSHER BONDED

"Through the efforts of the Arroyo Seco Association and our individual backing the rock crusher near Sycamore Grove Park has given a large bond to assure its vacating of the Arroyo by the end of June of this year, and the owners are under a suspended sentence of two months as an additional pledge.

"Outside of these somewhat negative results, an actual, concrete start has been made to acquire the bed of the Arroyo by the city through the initiative of the Greater Highland Park Association, ably assisted by Councilman Allen, Mr. Whitnall, City Attorney Stephens and City Engineer Griffin. This was done through a contract between Mr. De Wolfe and the city by which the former deeds to the latter, free of charge, a strip of land 100 feet wide in the channel of the Arroyo and an additional fifty feet on each side for boulevard purposes, of an approximate length of a mile, running from about Avenue 57 north to the Santa Fe bridge. While the donor is to be allowed to operate a rock crusher for a period not to exceed eighteen months, for the purpose of obtaining the material from the 100-foot strip and to built the retaining walls (free,) we consider the small depth of four feet below the present level which will be excavated not a detriment to the beauty of the Arroyo, and the fear of some of our friends that the crusher will not eliminate itself at the end of the term we consider groundless.

GIFTS EXPECTED

"The city authorities assert that there is every prospect for securing many other donations of land along the same lines as above from property owners above and below this piece. If this can be accomplished there will not be a very large amount of land to be acquired by the city by purchase or condemnation. Thus, one of this commission's projects, the Arroyo Seco flood control, parkway and boulevard scheme, seems in a fair way of being realized.

"In addition to the actual 260-foot-wide stripe, it is very much to be desired that various adjoining small pieces of acreage be secured for park purposes. The Highland Park people are endeavoring to form an assessment district to secure a beautiful twenty-two-acre piece abutting upon the strip mentioned above. The city could tie up very easily many of these pieces by a small payment down."

The changing of the residential district laws to permit Mr. De Wolfe to operate rock crushers for eighteen months in three acres of the Arroyo Seco came before the City Council yesterday, but was laid over for one week on account of the objections of Councilmen Mallard, Mushet and Sparks, who have fought consistently for the immediate ousting of all rock crushers from the Arroyo.

END ARGUMENT IN RENT KILLING

Arguments in the third trial of Mabelle Roe, charged with the murder of McCullough Graydon, Venice realty dealer, ended yesterday, and the case is expected to go to the jury today. The case is being tried before Judge McCormick, and was prosecuted by Dep. Dist.-Attys. Orne and Van Cott. McDonald and Thompson represented the defendant.

Speeder Jail Program Still Is Consistent

Police Judge Chambers's consistency in his program of jail sentences for speeders was manifest yesterday when he sentenced fifteen violators to terms ranging from one to five days.

Those sentenced were:

Albert Roos, one day for thirty miles an hour; W. R. Johnston, three days for thirty-one miles; Joe Dizizia, three days for twenty-five miles; V. H. Thomas, three days for thirty-one miles; A. Saigo, five days for thirty-two miles; Will Robinson, three days for thirty-one miles; George Pilger, three days for twenty-eight miles; Robler L. Lane, three days for twenty-eight miles; N. J. Tusco, three days for twenty-eight miles; J. F. Rich, two days for twenty-eight miles; Clarence Obrion, three days for twenty-eight miles; Rich Warren, three days for thirty-one miles; Dick Prodenzano, three days for twenty-nine miles; Al Rhein, three days for twenty-eight miles; and George S. Boles, five days for thirty-three miles.

CIGAR TAX NOT TO BE DEDUCTED

Collector Goodcell Lists Expenses for Which No Credit is Given

May an inveterate smoker deduct from his income the tax paid on his cigars? May he take credit for the premium paid on his accident insurance, and also the Federal tax on his automobile?

All of these questions were answered by an emphatic "no" by Collector Goodcell, yesterday. In the case of the cigars and automobiles, the tax is paid by the manufacturer. The premium on an accident insurance policy is a personal expense and not deductible.

In computing net income no deductions are allowed for: Personal, living or family expenses; money paid for new buildings or permanent improvements made to increase values; funds expended restoring property for which allowance is or has been made; premiums on life insurance in trade or business where the taxpayer is directly or indirectly the beneficiary.

Collector Goodcell announced that the last of the 1040-A income tax forms, for net incomes less than $5000, were mailed yesterday. One hundred and fifty thousand of these returns were sent out.

Only taxpayers who made returns last year were on the mailing list. The collector reminded taxpayers whose 1922 income is taxable and who made no return for 1921 that they are expected to secure form 1040-A and file a return. Failure to receive a form does not excuse a taxpayer. The forms for incomes in excess of $5000 have not been released.

JUSTICE IS SOUGHT BY CITY CLUB

Resolution Adopted on Reapportionment is Sent to Sacramento

Fostering efforts for a reapportionment of legislative representation, the Los Angeles City Club yesterday adopted a resolution on the subject which was telegraphed to State officials in Sacramento.

The message was addressed to the Hon. Edwin A. Baker. Copies were sent to Lieut.-Gov. Young and Speaker Frank F. Merriam. It follows:

"At a meeting of the City Club held today noon, the following resolution prevailed: It is the opinion of the directors of the Los Angeles City Club that the Legislature should proceed to carry out the constitutional provisions concerning legislative apportionment to the end that every section of the State shall be given the representation in the Legislature to which it legally is entitled."

The telegram was signed by C. A. Dykstra, secretary.

Newspaper Ads Best, Asserts Realty Expert

"Newspaper advertising is the back-bone of business," declared Victor Girard, community builder at a banquet tendered his employees Thursday evening in the women's annex at the Los Angeles Athletic Club.

The entire office staff of the Victor Girard organization was present at the gathering, at which the chief speaker was Mr. Girard himself. The subject of his address "How I Built up my Business by Newspaper Advertising."

Mr. Girard, who has built the two communities, Walnut Park and West Adams Place, is one of the city's leading newspaper advertisers, and he attributed, in his speech, the success of his organization to the fact that he has been an ardent believer in the influence of newspaper advertising.

"There is no medium whereby a man can reach patronage on such a large scale as in newspapers," said Mr. Girard.

"No man can afford to overlook such an asset as is to be found in the big daily newspapers we have today. The daily press with its advertising columns forms the back-bone of modern business."

Sewage Plant Site Excavation Bids Rejected

Despite the fact that bids submitted for the excavation of 700,000 cubic yards of sand for the site of the new sewage screening plant at the ocean end of the outfall sewer at Hyperion were much less than estimate made by the City Engineer, the Board of Public Works has rejected all of the nine bids received and will receive and open new sealed offers on February 5, with the hope of receiving lower bids.

Nine contractors submitted bids to the board, the lowest bidder being the Ross Construction Company, which agreed to excavate the sand for 17 cents per cubic yard. On an estimate of 700,000 cubic yards to be excavated, the total price under the Ross company's bid would be $119,700.

The Public Works Commissioners believe that the work could be done with less expense, as the sand excavated could be washed into the ocean. The City Engineer made an estimate of 25 cents a cubic yard.

SAN FERNANDO MAN HELD FOR BRIBERY

Asserted to have offered Chief of Police Thompson of San Fernando a $200 bribe after his arrest for violation of the Wright Act, Frank M. Acchia was accused formally of bribery in a complaint issued yesterday by Dep. Dist.-Atty. McClelland. Chief Thompson accepted the asserted bribe in the presence of three other officers and then arrested Acchia, lodging an additional charge against him. The suspect will be transferred soon to the County Jail here.

Gentlemen: In the Hotel Touraine, Lea & Perrins' Sauce has always been the favorite seasoning. It is our choice, first because we know and appreciate its fine quality, and second because our guests demand it.

I have been at times asked to try substitutes, but have always found that none can match the wonderful flavor and zest of the Original Lea & Perrins' Sauce.

Furthermore, I know that we can rely upon every bottle being of the same fine uniform standard. Yours very truly,

People and Their Troubles

Elizabeth Jordan's Column

THE "'DOPTED CHILD"

Little Addie, as she herself put it, was "'zactly five." Incidentally, she was the sunniest and happiest of small girls. She lived in a big house, had the kindest father and mother in the world, and a lot of pets. A little brother or sister was her sole unsatisfied need. She frequently besought her parents to supply this lack in her life. Her play-yard was the nicest in town. She had a wonderful swing, a see-saw, a sand-pile, a tent, and innumerable toys. Lured by these attractions and their genuine liking for Addie, the other children of the neighborhood spent much of their time in the Sanborn yard.

CRUEL CHILDHOOD

Therefore, when the manner of the children suddenly changed, when some of them held aloof from her and others, who still sought her, stared at her furtively as if she were different from themselves and, as Addie expressed it, talked behind her back, the little girl was first amazed, then hurt, and finally frightened. She asked her "intimate friend," Barbara Bates, why the children were so different. Barbara, who was a kind little thing, fiercely resentful of the way Addie was being treated, yet herself puzzled and disturbed by the new condition, hesitated, dug her toe into the ground and finally brought out the truth.

"You see, Addie, they say you're different from us. You're 'dopted!"

Addie had not the remotest idea what being "'dopted" meant. She sought light. Barbara was almost equally vague but she had heard that "'dopted children" had no fathers and mothers. Addie triumphantly pointed to her own. Her little heart sang with relief. Everyone knew she had a father and mother! But Barbara was elucidating. It appeared that Mr. and Mrs. Sanborn had not "borned Addie," whatever that meant. All the other children's fathers and mothers had "borned" them.

THE BROKEN HEART

Addie went off into the big Sanborn house, sought an empty room, and thought it over. Her little heart was like lead in her breast. She had no right in this house. Barbara had told her the children said so. She had no right to be among them. She was different. Perhaps it was wicked to be different. The other children seemed to think it was. And it was terribly lonely. That much Addie already knew. A great lump filled her throat.

The luncheon bell rang but she did not heed it. When she heard her mother come to look for her she hid under the bed and kept very quiet. She remained under the bed all afternoon, crying part of the time.

There seemed to be excitement in the house—people running around. She dared not come forth from her hiding-place. She did not want anyone to see her. Perhaps they would send her away if they found her!

Just before supper time she heard her mother crying as she passed through the hall. That was different. If her mother was crying she needed to be kissed. Nothing comforted mother so much as being kissed. Addie forgot her own trouble. She rolled out from under the bed and timidly crept into the hall. The next minute she was in the familiar arms, that held little girls so warm and close, and, by and by, after mother had been comforted, everything was being explained.

Addie learned that it was quite true that she was 'dopted. But she also learned that to be 'dopted was a wonderful thing. Most fathers and mothers had to take any baby that was born to them. But Addie's father and mother had just gone right out into the world to find her. And they had looked and looked and looked. They had looked at lots and lots of babies and, would you believe it, they had chosen Addie because she was the very nicest baby of all!

That made everything absolutely right. Now they were her very own father and mother and she had as much right in the house as they had. There were papers with big red seals which proved it. One's own father and mother know a lot more about being 'dopted than children do. Children get things all mixed up. But Addie forgave the children. The children were all right, too, as soon as their parents had explained the matter to them.

But for few weeks and weeks little Addie woke up at night, frightened and crying. She was dreaming that she was 'dopted, and that the other children thought it was wicked to be 'dopted. Then her mother had to take Addie into her arms and explain the matter all over again.

LETTERS TO "THE TIMES"

On Capital Punishment

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 15.—[To the Editor of The Times:] With regard to the opinions expressed by the writers of several letters written in praise of the British system or punishing murder, let me say that these opinions are both un-Christian and uncivilized.

A plea for "an eye for an eye" in murder cases is generally made under the impression that the Bible supports this system. It does not. Christ condemns it and, though it is a part of the Mosaic law, it has no support from Him at all.

The attention of the reader has been called by the authorities of these letters to the sorrow caused by the crime and this has been about their main argument.

Shall we, to alleviate sorrow, create more sorrow? Is it logical to seek to make right one murder by the commission of another?

It is a common argument of those who favor capital punishment that it prevents murder. It does not. It (murder) exists, and is indeed common even in England, where this "justice" is so religiously practiced.

"They say unto Him, 'Master, Moses in the law commanded us that such should be stoned. What sayest thou?'

"'He that is without sin among you, let him cast the first stone.'" (St. John, 8 Vs., 5 and 7.)

But then, He was a "weak-kneed sentimentalist."

WILLIAM KNOWLES.

"Move Forward, Please"

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 16.—[To the Editor of The Times:] While going home on the street car last evening, two gentlemen of leisure, well enveloped in avoirdupois and diamonds in their cravats, occupied a seat in the front end of the car and engaged in the following conversation: "Los Angeles needs an ordinance forbidding the street car company from carrying more passengers than it has seats to accommodate."

I am not a stockholder in the said company, but an every-day strap-hanger, therefore am not penning these few words in hopes of monetary reward or paving the way for a future loan. The street-car company is at fault by not providing each and every one of its conductors with a four-foot club, to be wielded effectively in pounding a little sense in the vacuum of the upper story of street-car riders, who upon entering the car remain there, as though glued to the floor, instead of proceeding to the front end, thereby giving room for others to enter.

The average street car will seat about seventy-two persons and will hold an average of forty more standing. If an ordinance were passed forbidding street cars from carrying passengers who stand up, when would some of us get home? You men and women who labor not can relieve the situation by taking a car for home before or after the rush, when men and women who do labor are on their way home. You will also avoid your humiliation of rubbing elbows with the men and women of the tin-pail and overall brigade whom you so apparently despise.

You might prevent the company from carrying standing passengers, but it takes no Scotland Yard detective to know that you could not compel that same company to provide more cars. And if you could, what would an increase of 100 per cent more cars on our streets mean? We already have too many at times—as far as traffic is concerned. If men and women driving automobiles would so drive that their cars would always remain far enough from the tracks that a street car could pass them, what a blessing to Los Angeles. The fault is not with the company—but with the patrons of the cars—automobiles and street cars—ninety-nine times out of a hundred. Move forward and you'll help yourselves and others. I trust I will not have to remind you of this again, fellow-riders! So on with the dance.

JEROME CRAITE.

Recommends Trip

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 16.—[To the Editor of The Times:] From The Times tower, away from the madding crowd, I megapone a far-flung blast, Eureka! To my mind there no longer lingers a doubt but that the Chamber of Commerce and the Realty Board are both sleeping on their jobs as far as advertising the city of Los Angeles is concerned. Why, Mr. Editor, right here in our midst we have one of the grandest advertisements any municipality could demand, viz., an ocean ride in the midst of a great city—I repeat, an ocean ride in the midst of a great city. Do you get me? You do.

The tourist will be requested to hop into one of those dandy little one-man cars which meander around Crown Hill and the vicinity of Temple and Belmont; on entering this land boat the motorman with a gentlemanly wave of the hand and a graceful bow will present to each passenger a small leaflet entitled, "Sailing, sailing, over the bounding main," with a request that he or she as the case may be will hum this well known ditty while the car is in motion. This will give the pitch-and-toss nautical-wave action to the mind; the car will give it to the body all right, all right.

Having looped around on a squarish circle and so returning to Hill street the tourist will then transfer (this must be done promptly in order to obtain the right effect) to one of those new palatial yachts which runs from Gardner Junction to Vineyard, easily distinguished by the white signboard in front. The conductor with studious courtesy will hand another little leaflet to our tourist entitled "For Those in Peril on the Sea." This beautiful hymn can be committed to memory en transit. To obtain the right nautical roll motion, and that "leaving aloft your lower chest" thrill so often experienced in ocean travel tourists are advised to select one of the the little side seats in order to obtain the full effect of an ocean ride in the midst of a great city. Now, Mr. Editor, it is up to the C. of C. and the Realty Board to get busy with the printing press.

I close with another megaphonic blast, Eureka!

AN OLD-TIMER.

"Backward Step"

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 15.—[To the Editor of the Times:] Having been regular subscriber to the Times for over thirty years, I would like to ask the privilege of a few words in your pages in order to indorse the letter by Mr. W. G. H. Dudley entitled "Too Much Movie," that appeared in to-day's Times—Jan. 15.—and to make a few remarks on that subject on my own account.

The Times has been the most decent and reliable and conservative newspaper published in this city, and to see it now leaning toward the ways and methods of the yellow and sensational papers, is very painful to us old subscribers who admired and enjoyed the Times as it was when the old Chief, the old General, ran it in the old fearless way. Especially obnoxious it is to find the space where one looks for the news and for items of real importance and interest devoted to rot and propaganda about the movie business and to the doings of many of its notorious performers. The Times frequently looked like a copy of a movie magazine rather than the old paper that we have known for so many years. And so, we who do not at all relish this backward step in the policy of the Times, would like to respectfully request that all this movie stuff, which interests but a small part of your readers, be confined to one well labeled section of your paper and thus save the reader the annoyance of sorting it out from the items of real interest and merit.

The cimema industry is a great one, but it is not the only one, nor the most important by any means. Nor the actors in it of the importance that at all justifies the amount of attention paid to them, except as advertising in the form of publicity. The invention of the moving picture, so called, resulted in making a number of actors rich and widely known, but many of the best known were little heard of as actors on the stage and thus proved that it was not their ability that made them so well known.

Question: What kind of fur is kolinsky? M. C. R.

Answer: Among furriers, the name is given to any one of several Asiatic mink. It was primarily the name of a Russian mink from the district of Kola in northwestern Russia.

Q. How does the number of immigrants that come to this country compare with the number of them that tire of it and go back? S. O. N.

A. Statistics do not assign reasons for the departure of aliens from our country. During the fiscal year ending June 30, 1922, there were 309,556 immigrant aliens admitted to the United States and 198,712 emigrant aliens departed.

Q. How many Mormons went into Utah originally? T. P.

A. Brigham Young led a company of 143 men, three women and two children into the Salt Lake Valley in the spring and summer of 1847.

Q. Did Vallandigham; the famous Ohio "copperhead," die a natural death or was he killed? A. T. N.

A. Vallandigham's death was tragic, but was accidental. He was engaged as attorney in a murder case and was illustrating to the jury the manner in which the victim was shot, when he fatally shot himself with the pistol he held in his hands.

Q. What do Africander cattle have to have for food? N. N. G.

A. These cattle can thrive where others would starve and can live off the veritable blade of grass. They are suited for the western plains not only because of their ability to survive on short rations, but also on account of their remarkable resistance to disease and their "camel" attribute of going a long way without water. A dressed carcass of a full grown steer raised on the range weighs from 600 to 800 pounds. The average percentage of dressed weight to live weight is from 60 to 61.5 per cent.

Q. What is a sea cock? C. W.

A. A sea cock is an injection cock inserted in the side of a steamship, and leading from the sea to the condenser. It is supplementary to the regular injection cock through which supplies of water are admitted to the condensers of marine engines.

The A. B. C. of Good Tea

THIS diagram shows clearly one reason for the superior flavor, strength and aroma of RIDGWAYS Tea.

In order to get the very choicest pickings, only the leaves marked "A," "B" and "C" are gathered for Ridgways. These tender, young tip-leaves give to Ridgways Tea that rare quality of flavor which distinguishes the famous Ridgway blends.

The leaves marked "D," "E," "F" and "G" are coarser, less flavory and therefore are never used by Ridgways.

This carefully guarded Ridgway quality also gives more cups to the pound. When you buy Ridgways Tea you not only get the best tea, but actually more of it than is possible from inferior tea. As an example of rare good tea we suggest that you order Ridgways (GOLD LABEL) the Genuine Orange Pekoe.

RIVAL PLEADS FOR WIFE'S AID

"Please Get Divorce," Says Letter of Appeal

New York Girl Writes of Her Devotion

Divorce Suit Waits for More Evidence

"Please give him a divorce or get one from him and let him and I have the happiness we want."

This is the tenor of a letter received by Mrs. Violet L. McCracken from the "other woman," pleading with the wife to release her husband so that he could become the legal mate of another.

Mrs. McCracken introduced the letter as evidence in her suit for divorce from William C. McCracken which was heard yesterday by Judge Summerfield in Superior Court. The court took the case under advisement for further evidence.

The letter, dated "New York, Dec. 22, 1920," reads as follows: "Mrs. McCracken:

"No doubt this letter will surprise you, but to tell the truth I want to ask you so much I don't know where to begin. To be frank, I want you to help me and only you can do it.

"I know 'Chad' is married to you, but I also know that you don't want him and don't love him. He and I love each other devotedly. Please give him a divorce or get one from him and let him and I have the happiness we want.

"BROKEN-HEARTED"

"I am broken-hearted because we love each other dearly and under these circumstances it makes things very hard for us. Don't think me a silly child for asking you this but I'm sure you understand what it means to love each other under these circumstances, but I'm going to stick to him no matter what happens. I know he doesn't belong to anyone even though he is married. If you don't want him please don't make our lives unhappy. I'm sure you understand.

"Chad didn't want me to write, but just like a woman I was determined to write and tell you all and I am almost sure you'll grant my wish.

"I would give the world to see you and speak it over with you. Please answer my letter if just a few words and tell me you will free him. Our whole happiness depends on you.

"Please don't be heartless. Maybe some day you will want someone to do as much for you.

"Chad wishes me to ask you if you won't please come on or send someone to represent you and have it over with. If you don't want me to show the answer to him I promise I won't, but don't keep me in suspense."

The letter was signed "Miss Lucille Loessler." Inclosed in the letter was a return envelope addressed "Miss Lucille Loessler, care of Western Union Multiplex School, 39 Centre street, New York."

Mrs. McCracken charges her husband with desertion. They were married on Nov. 25, 1916, and separated April 1, 1920. She is represented by Attorney Daniel Noland.

LECTURER TO TELL OF LIFE IN CHINA

An illustrated lecture will be given by Dr. Charles K. Edmunds next Tuesday evening at the University Club, describing the life of the Chinese. Motion pictures will be shown including several beautifully colored slides depicting interior China. The address will be preceded by a dinner. Special Chinese music has been arranged for the occasion and an interesting program has been promised by the committee in charge. The public is invited.

MISS PICKFORD AROUSES EARLE

Director Wagers Star Has Never Read Faust

Welcomes Day When Their Versions Are Compared

Is Moved to Satire by Her Remarks in "Times"

Ferdinand Pinney Earle yesterday stopped directing Theda Bara in New York long enough to hurl across the continent a reply to Mary Pickford's mildly satirical remarks anent their respective versions of "Faust," as published in last Sunday's Times.

Mr. Earle, whose "Faust" has been in preparation since Dec. 7, 1921 declares that when Miss Pickford's version and his own version are compared by public and critics, she then will understand what he means by the old and the new in screen art. He also makes an unkind wager that Miss Pickford has never read Goethe's "Faust," from the first part of which Gounod adapted his opera.

In a telegram to Paul Detlefson, his chief lieutenant, Mr. Earle declares:

"Today it is the producers' fault if educated people still sneer at the motion-picture as one of the exponents of the new theater movement on the screen. My reply to Mary Pickford's question in the Los Angeles Times is obvious to all artists and theater lovers, namely, that the first essential of a Max Reinhardt production, a Moscow Art Theater production and others of similar rank, is reverential fidelity in rendering the author's concepton, with no sacrifice of various actors' roles to feature a secondary character of the drama or to magnify a star.

"I safely wager Mary Pickford has never read Goethe's 'Faust,' otherwise she in particular would not attempt to adapt it to her purposes.

"It is a pity that Mary, who is adorable in her own sphere, and who could excel as Juliet or Portia or in other classical roles, and who is financially independent, should be tempted by Gounod's operatic distortion of Goethe's profound masterpiece.

"I eagerly welcome the day when Mary Pickford's 'Faust' and our own faithful rendering of Goethe's immortal poem may be compared by critics and the public. Then Miss Pickford will know what I mean by the old and the new in screen art.

Sheriff Talks in Plain Words to Jail Matron

Sheriff Traeger yesterday talked bluntly to Mrs. Fannie Lowe, county jail matron, about conditions in the women's ward as touched upon by Undersheriff Biscailus and Dep. Dist.-Atty. Clark in their report of an investigation into the escape of Clara Phillips on December 5, last.

The relation and attitude of matrons to prisoners was discussed and the Sheriff announced a policy of "no coddling and no undue privileges."

The report submitted to the Sheriff included reference to Mrs. Lowe's asserted friendship for Madalynne Obenchain, stating that the matron had kissed Madalynne in court and seemed more favorable to defence than prosecution. Sheriff Traeger said he believed that too great familiarity with prisoners resulted in laxity.

Incidentally, the Sheriff said that the search for Clara was going on with undiminished vigor, extending to such far places as Canada, Mexico and the Orient.

BEATING HIS OWN RECORD

Frank Wiggins, Oldest Commercial Secretary in Point of Service, Re-elected to Twenty-seventh Year

According to the time-honored custom of electing its secretary, the board of directors of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce yesterday named rank Wiggins again to fill this post.

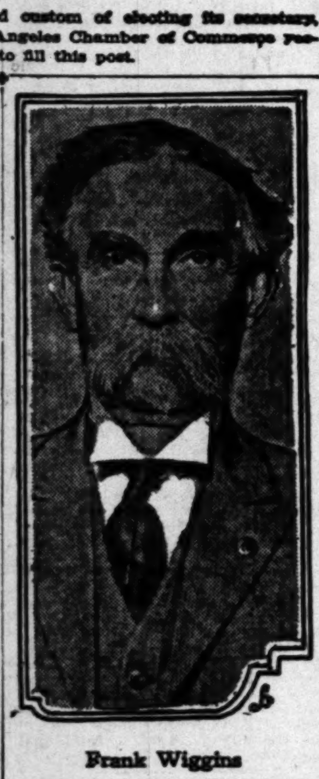
For a period of twenty-six years the well-known figure of Mr. Wiggins, which has filled the swivel chair in the "front office" of the chamber, has been prominent at every meeting where the interest and advancement of Los Angeles has been at stake. Handclaps of appreciation following the unanimous vote for "Frank" were testimony of the work accomplished by this dean of secretaries of the country.

Connections with the Chamber of Commerce were made by Mr. Wiggins thirty-four years ago, the year following the organization of the Los Angeles commercial body. His first office was superintendent of exhibits, held from 1889 to 1897 when he was elected secretary, still retaining the position of superintendent of exhibits.

No other commercial secretary has been retained in the capacity of secretary so long as Mr. Wiggins, the average length of service being three years. Secretary Wiggins has served nine times as long as the majority of commerce secretaries therefore.

Perhaps no more remarkable career of any local business man can be pointed to than that of Mr. Wiggins. In the first place he was ordered to Los Angeles for his health, the doctors holding out little hope for his recovery. Life in the open at one of Los Angeles' beaches and in an orange grove, reversed this sentence.

With returned health he threw himself energetically into the work of community building. Today Los Angeles is seventeen times as great as it was in the year the present secretary cast his lot with the chamber. In those days when Los Angeles was a town of 50,000, automobileless and motion pictureless, Mr. Wiggins conceived the idea of exhibiting its agricultural products. These were displayed at the world's expositions and interest created by them largely has accounted for the increase of population that today makes the city the largest west of St. Louis and largest on the Pacific Coast.



Frank Wiggins

Although he was an indefatigable worker, spending many nights in the Chamber of Commerce to watch the processing of fruits that he perfected, he never failed to be first at his desk in the morning. At 73 years of age he still is vigorous and fails to show marks of the untiring years of work put into the upbuilding of Los Angeles.

How much are you worth—
in FRIENDS?

SUPPOSE TONIGHT that you and I were to write down the names of all the people we know. How many names would there be on your list? A hundred? Five hundred? A thousand?

With half a dozen men Hugh S. Fullerton, the famous baseball writer, sat down to make such a list. In a very few minutes one man was through. He has lived in New York forty years and he knows less than 200 people.

Fullerton figured that he knows 8,750.

"He must have a special gift for making friends!" you exclaim. But if he has, it is a gift that can be developed. Says Mr. Fullerton:

"WHEN I started out in life I was about as shy and sensitive as anyone could be. It was painful to be introduced or to introduce myself. To be sent out by a city editor with orders to interview some prominent person was like a sentence to be hanged.

"But after a time I learned that human beings are pretty much alike, and the big man is far more likely to be sociable than the smaller one. Also, it was forced upon me that men take other men at their own valuation.

"After my terror of meeting strangers passed away, I became more and more eager to get acquainted with new people. And if I had this life to live again I'd start right in and save up the ten thousand friends and then retire.

"It would be much more satisfactory than saving up a lot of dollars, and certainly a more paying investment if one ever needed to draw on them."

ANY PRINTED PAGE which enriches our knowledge is useful to us; but the greatest service that literature can perform is to enrich our living—to leave us with an interest or an incentive which we did not have before.

This is the service of THE AMERICAN MAGAZINE. Reading Hugh Fullerton's story of his adventures in friendship, for instance, you say to yourself: "Whatever other fortune this year may bring me, I will widen the circle of my acquaintances; I will take a keener, more appreciative interest in men and women—

"I will grow richer in friends."

HUGE SUM IN HEART BALM SUIT SOUGHT

Wife Says Defendant Set Cap for and Won Mate's Love; Asks $100,000

A suit asking $100,000 was filed yesterday in Superior Court by Mrs. Guadalupe L. Graf, wife of Frederick Carl Graf, against Mrs. Ida M. Theurer, of 405 West Adams street, a wealthy apartment house owner, in which Mrs. Graf accuses the defendant of stealing the love of her husband.

A separate maintenance action, filed by Mrs. Graf, is in the County Clerk's office, in which assertions are made naming Mrs. Theurer.

According to Harrison Cassell, attorney for Mrs. Graf, the filing of the suit yesterday is the culmination of a year's grief on his client's part. She is separated at present from her husband and living with her two small children in an apartment.

Gifts of jewelry between Mr. Graf and Mrs. Theurer were cited as incidents in the action. Mrs. Graf asserts that Mrs. Theurer met Mr. Graf Sept. 1, 1931, and immediately instituted a campaign to gain his affections, the result being that he left her several months ago.

MASONIC CLUB TO ELECT

The Hollywood Masonic Club, according to an announcement made at the temple yesterday, will meet tonight to elect officers for the coming year. Retiring officers are: W. F. Wood, president; H. G. Redwine, vice-president; H. J. Mock, secretary; D. M. Lingle, H. J. Mock, Charles A. Fefburg and M. T. Spencer on the executive committee.

LONE BANDIT ROBS LAUNDRY

A daring daylight bandit yesterday afternoon robbed the Diamond Laundry at Eighth and Towne streets of $1500 in checks and $500 in cash, and escaped.

While Miss H. C. Miller, 536 Gladys avenue, cashier of the laundry, was taking the day's receipts from Driver G. N. Frazier in her office on the second floor, the bandit walked in, and ordered both to hold up their hands.

As he forced Frazier to stand on the other side of the room, Miss Miller swept the money and checks from her desk to the floor. Menacing her with the revolver, the robber compelled her to pick up the money and hand it to him. He then made his escape, warning them against giving any alarm.

B. G. Strawser, manager of the laundry, was in his office on the second floor, but knew nothing about the hold-up until the bandit had made his getaway.

The man was seen at the laundry earlier in the day, and Detectives Shaffer and Warn, who were assigned to the case, believe him to be a former employee of the place.

CONFIRMATION OF BOGARDUS SOUGHT

Recommendation that the appointment of Edward F. Bogardus be confirmed will be made today to the City Council by a majority of the Public Utilities Commission, it is believed.

Mr. Bogardus, a member of the Hollywood Chamber of Commerce, was appointed by Mayor Cryer to succeed A. L. King, whose term expired, as a member of the Public Utilities Commission. Opposition to his appointment developed, but it is believed that Councilmen Sanborn and Conaway will submit a majority report urging confirmation, with Councilman [illegible] voting against it.

WORLD EVENTS ARE DISCUSSED

Women of Hollywood Club Abreast of Times

Chamber Officials Relate City Achievements

Community Players to Give One-Act Plays

As world events of momentous importance are recorded there are, perhaps, no people who read the significant news more breathlessly or comment upon it more intelligently than club women. They realize that within a few hours some simple occurrence may bring dire consequences for the entire world.

Wednesday, members of the Woman's Club of Hollywood were led in a discussion of current events by Mrs. H. G. Redwine at the public affairs luncheon. Mrs. George L. Eastman presided. Mrs. Redwine emphasized those oil wells in Mesopotamia which may be the underlying cause of another world conflagration.

ACHIEVEMENTS SHOWN

However ominous the smoke of controversy arising over their possession, the cloud to all appearances was too remote to engage the entire attention of the women. W. T. Bishop, newly elected president of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, and Capt. John D. Fredericks, the retiring president, presented the problems and achievements of the local community. They spoke in glowing terms of the growth of Los Angeles.

"The Chamber of Commerce has many other important functions to perform and problems to solve in addition to conducting a boosting campaign in the East and welcoming newcomers," said Capt. Fredericks. "It seeks to stimulate foreign trade, to keep freight rates within bounds, and to supervise public utilities."

Raymond Robbins, a close friend of former President Roosevelt, and representative of the United States during the World War in Russia, spoke on "The Next Step in Civilization." This he said, must be the outlawing of war.

TO GIVE FOUR PLAYS

Much regret has been expressed at the nonappearance of the Hollywood Community Players this year on account of the need of a suitable building. In the effort of the club to afford at least one night of enjoyment to the public of the artistic work done by the Community Players, four one-act plays will be given Friday night in the clubhouse under the auspices of the club.

The plays present four aspects of the woman's life; marriage, the unmarried state, the problems of the working girl in love, and divorce. They are "Moonbeam," by John Reed; "The Camberly Triangle," by A. A. Milne; "The Dragon's Claw," by Grant Carpenter, and "The Marriage Glint."

Among those who will appear are Ann Pitwood, who played the lead in "Peg o' My Heart," also with Maud Adams in "Peter Pan;" Audrey Anderson, a newcomer, who has played with Guy Bates Post and is here because her husband is playing opposite Katherine MacDonald and Mae Murray; Boyd Irwin, who will be remembered for his admirable work in "Dear Brutus;" Theodore Von Eltz, who plays leads opposite May Allison; Wheeler Dryden, English actor, who played in Galsworthy's "Silver Box;" Bridgetta Clark, remembered for her work in the "Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse," and Nathan Shindell, a promising young actor, a nephew of Cydney Bel Arundel, who played with Sarah Bernhardt, and was connected with Lord Northcliffe in a journalistic way.

Club Indorses Member

At the last meeting of West Ebell Club the president, Mrs. J. M. Matthews, was indorsed for the office of first vice-president of the district in the coming election. This indorsement was presented later by the press chairman at the press conference of the district held Wednesday afternoon. The naming of Mrs. Matthews represents the first hint of possibilities for district offices other than the presidency.

W.C.T.U.

At the meeting of the City Federation of the Women's Christian Temperance Union Wednesday three decided actions were taken by the allied organizations that will be of interest to those who were not present. The federation decided by a unanimous vote to cooperate in every way possible with the Co-operative Council for Better Films, Mrs. Fred Kuck, president.

Another resolution that was passed, a copy of which will be sent to the City Council, was to the effect that the federation heartily indorses the action taken by the Friday Morning Club in regard to films, when they asked that an ordinance be passed whereby it will be unlawful for any notoriously immoral actor to appear upon the screen.

The third resolution was one of gratitude to the Los Angeles Times for the publicity given during the campaign for the Wright Act.

"Without this publicity so generously given the Wright Act could not have carried with such a splendid majority," said Mrs. Adda Burch, a member of the body of superintendents of departments.

The afternoon program included a talk on Russia by Baroness Ottily de Roppe, who so interested her hearers that she was asked for a return engagement for the first Thursday in February, when she will speak before the Los Angeles W.C.T.U., and addresses by Stanley Fulton of the Juvenile Court, and Mrs. Lena Teeters, State superintendent of the department of antinarcotics. Mrs. Teeters stated that at the last national W.C.T.U. convention the prize for the greatest number of signatures to the antinarcotic resolution went to Southern California.

Mrs. Allie Simmons Wheeler, president of the federation, presided.

District Board to be Entertained

Echo Park Mothers' Club is entertaining the district board of the federation today at a luncheon at the home of Dr. Lulu B. Phelps, 721 Coronado street. There will be a musical program during the luncheon, after which the guests will be called on for remarks.

"TIMES" RECIPE CONTEST

Readers of The Times are invited to participate in a series of culinary contests in which this journal will pay cash prizes for the best recipes submitted. There will be six contests, each lasting two weeks. In each contest the best recipe submitted will win a first prize of $10, the next best $7.50 and the third best $3. In addition to these there will be two special prizes of $10 and $5 for the two best recipes for Spanish dishes. These Spanish-dish recipes may be submitted at any time during the twelve weeks, or until April 7. All other recipes must be submitted before the end of the two weeks allotted to the contest in which each is intended as an entry.

The first contest began January 13, and closes Saturday, January 27. It is a contest for the best recipe for a soup or an appetizer. The winners will be announced in The Times on Saturday, February 3.

The second contest, which will be for the best recipe for preparing fish or a fish sauce, will begin January 27 and close February 10. Winners will be announced February 17.

The third contest will be for the best recipe for preparing meat or a meat sauce. It will run from February 10 to February 24. Winners will be announced March 3.

The fourth contest, to run from February 24 to March 10, will be for the best recipe for the preparation of vegetables. Winners announced March 17.

The fifth contest, March 10 to March 24, will be for the best salad or salad dressing. Winners announced March 31.

The sixth contest will run from March 24 to April 7. It will be for the best recipe for a dessert. This may be cake, pastry or frozen or moulded desserts. Winners in this and in the special Spanish-dish contest will be announced April 14.

Honorable mention will be given worthy recipes which do not win prizes.

The Times reserves the right to print any recipe submitted in its columns or in book form. In such case the name of the author will also appear.

Recipes must be written on one side of the paper only, must be legible and plainly marked with the name and address of the author.

No manuscripts will be returned.

It is not necessary to be a subscriber to The Times to compete. Anyone may enter any or all of the contests, submitting as many recipes as desired.

Originality, economy and adaptability to Southern California conditions will be considered in judging the recipes. Contestants should submit only recipes that have been thoroughly tested out in their own kitchens.

Specify exact amounts of ingredients, using level measurements. Do not use trade-marked names of ingredients.

Recipes should be sent in as early as possible. A recipe may be sent in before the actual start of the contest in which it is entered but in this case the fact must be noted at the top.

Address all recipes to The Times Recipe Editor, Times Building, Los Angeles.

My dear Followers:

When sending for material which we offer you, please remember to enclose a stamped envelope bearing your full name and address. The phamphlet on reducing and gaining is the only one for which you must enclose four cents in stamps extra. Address your letters to me in care of this paper. Make them as brief as possible, not over 250 words, and type or write them legibly with ink. Please sign your name as evidence of good faith—we will not use it in any way. Remember it is impossible for me to diagnose for you or to answer you personally. I appreciate very much the beautiful letters you send me and regret it is impossible to give you individual advice. The questions you ask will be answered in the column as soon as possible, if they are of general interest.

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS

"Dear Doctor:

"I am a 14-year-old girl, under weight, nervous and constipated. I suffer severely at my menstruation period. I am very nervous. Sometimes I believe it is because I never go any place for fun. There are no parties around here.

Constant Reader."

Dear little Constant Reader, it is too bad there are no parties around where you live and that you don't have much fun. There is one consolation in being in a place where there are no parties. You can have loads of time for reading the most beautiful stories. Have you read George Eliot's The Mill on the Floss?

I am positive that if you gain in weight you won't be so nervous and that you will probably find much more occasion for fun too. Send for our instructions on gaining and also the article on the Atonic Abdominal Wall. Do the exercises described in that and include the exercise of walking like an animal on your hands and feet for a few minutes two or three times a day. This exercise with the exercises on the atonic abdominal wall will help keep your organs in place and undoubtedly lessen your painful menstruation. You can take hot baths during the period. They will help you. Write me again.

J. G.—You want to know if there is a successful and harmless way of getting the flesh or fat, you don't know which it is, off the nose and would those applications that are advertised interfere with the breathing. You did not state your age nor sex, but I guess that you are quite a young man from your handwriting and the way your letter is worded. You did not say either whether you were fat all over. If you are, then reducing your weight would reduce the fat on your nose.

The shape and character of the nose, unfortunately at times, is inherited, but considerable can be done when the bones are soft to mold them. Massage might help. I am not familiar with the appliance that you speak of. If it does not press too firmly and does not interfere with the breathing, and if it were worn regularly, it might shape the nose if you were young enough.

Anxious Reader:—What foods contain calories? All foods contain calories, my dear 16-year-old girl. Calories are simply units of measure of the fuel or energy value of foods and they are also the units of heat. Foods are fattening in proportion to the number of calories they contain. An ounce of pure fat contains 255 calories. An ounce of protein or carbohydrate, with all the water dried out of it, has 120 calories. Thus you see that fat has two and one-fourth times the number of calories that protein and starches have—a good point to remember—therefore two and one fourth times the fattening value. You say you missed the course in the paper on reduction. You can have it by sending for it as per directions at the top of this column.

SOCIETY

For Miss McNamee

One of the February brides who is the inspiration for many pleasant social affairs is Miss Lucille McNamee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank R. McNamee of 1708 Fifth avenue, who is to marry Lieut. Darrow Menoher on February 6.

Miss Madelon Mooney of Hollywood will entertain in her honor on the 22nd inst. with an afternoon reception and on the 26th inst. two girl friends will be hostesses to the bride-elect at the Los Angeles Country Club—Miss Maxine Miller and Miss Dorothy Keefe will give a bridge tea.

And again, on the 31st Mrs. Clarence De Schwartz will give a bridge luncheon at the Virginia Country Club at Long Beach.

Miss McNamee met her fiance in Honolulu last year, and as that is where he is quartered it will be her home for some time after the wedding. Lieut. Menoher's father is Maj.-Gen. Charles Menoher, in command of Schofield Barracks, Hawaii.

The Shepherd Supper

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Shepherd, 1764 Sycamore avenue, Hollywood, will entertain with a large supper party after the Philharmonic concert on Saturday evening, at 11 p.m., in honor of W. A. Clark, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Henry Rothwell.

Assisting Mrs. Shepherd as reception hostesses will be Mrs. R. I. Rogers, Mrs. Eugene McLaughlin and Mrs. L. S. Montgomery. Those presiding at the tables will be Mrs. Chester Hoag, Mrs. Hansen Moore, Mrs. Leslie Smith, Mrs. Arthur Wright and Mrs. Alexander B. Barrett.

Mrs. Shepherd has sent to Belleview, the family estate in Shepherdstown, W. Va., for the hams and turkeys.

The decorations will be carried out in Scotch heather and La France roses. This will be the first of a series of parties which Mr. and Mrs. Shepherd will give in connection with the Philharmonic concerts this season.

Bridal Couple Still Here

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Gollum (Wilhelmina Rector) did not leave directly for New York after their wedding on Tuesday evening, but escaped only to the Ambassador, running down to San Diego on Wednesday and returning to dine with the bride's parents that evening.

For which reason Mrs. Harry Harrington arranged an impromptu dinner party at the Ambassador last evening, at which the entire bridal party was entertained. The young couple will leave for New York this week-end.

Many Invitations Issued

The social season, after the little lull following the holidays, again is in full swing, and numerous hostesses have sent out invitations for coming events.

Mrs. Edward A. Featherstone, 1204 West Twenty-seventh street, will entertain with a dinner party on February 2.

Mrs. Chester Hoag has issued invitations for a bridge supper party at her home, 7225 Hollywood Boulevard, on January 27.

Mrs. L. B. Fale of Ardmore avenue will entertain with a series of dinner parties this season, the first two of which occurred on Wednesday and Thursday evenings this week. Mrs. Fale is a popular hostess and favors a series of smaller affairs than the social "crush."

To South America

Their friends will be interested to learn that Dr. and Mrs. West Hughes, 500 West Twenty-third street, are leaving for South America on the 27th inst. and will be away about three months.

To Honor Bride-Elect

Many friends are planning parties in honor of Miss Katherine Torrance, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Torrance, whose engagement to Henry Kyd Douglas Peacy of Washington, D. C., was announced recently. They are waiting for Miss Torrance to set the date, which will be early in February.

Hostesses who await this information to issue their invitations are Mrs. Willard Arnott, Mrs. Bryan Welch, Mrs. Theodore Welch, Mrs. Pascal Burke, Mrs. John Osburn and Miss Margaret Brown.

Distinguished Englishwoman

Mrs. Audrey Le Blond, first cousin to the Duke of Portland and to Lady Elizabeth Bowes Lyon, fiancee of Prince Albert, Duke of York, has arrived in Altadena on a visit to her son, Arthur St. Vincent Burnaby. She will remain until March. Mrs. Le Blond is a noted traveler, author of numerous standard travel works, and member of both the British Royal Geographical Society and of the American organization.

Return for Visit

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Horton Arnold, formerly of this city, but now of New York and Washington, will arrive Saturday for a short visit and will stay at the Ambassador.

LONG BEACH ASKS GAS PRICE REDUCTIONS

RAID COMMISSION APPEAL BASED ON ASSERTED UNFAIR RATES

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

LONG BEACH, Jan. 18.—The City Council today instructed City Attorney George L. Hoodenpyl to apply at once to the State Railroad Commission for a reduction in the prevailing rates for gas in Long Beach supplied by the Southern Counties Gas Company. The order came following an executive session of the Council at which Scott Alexander, chairman of the city's gas committee, was present.

It was declared here yesterday that the gas company, which, to date, has declined to enter into negotiations for the purchase by the city of the local gas plant, is selling natural gas to the Southern California Edison Company at 13 cents a thousand feet. The domestic rate charged to consumers is said to be $1.

Other phases of the gas situation were discussed at the executive session of the Council, it was said, but no definite decision has been reached by the city officials regarding the first steps toward the establishment of a municipal gas plant here.

DESERTION CHARGED IN MAINTENANCE SUIT

Asserting neglect and desertion, Mrs. Sadie F. Giroux filed suit yesterday for separate maintenance against her husband, Joseph N. Giroux, said to be an employee at Young's Market. The first hearing of the case will be in Judge Summerfield's department of the Superior Court, on the 23rd inst. Mrs. Giroux will be represented by the firm of Murphy & Cohen, attorneys.

Imposing New Building to be Built at Beach

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

LONG BEACH, Jan. 18.—Construction work on the new six-story addition to Buffum's Department Store at Pine avenue and Broadway will begin early in February, it was announced today. Bids will be opened Saturday morning and the contract will be awarded either Saturday or Monday.

The addition is to be erected on a site 75 by 150 feet, fronting on Pine avenue just south of the present store. When completed it will represent an expenditure of $750,000, with equipment, Mayor C. A. Buffum, head of the company, announced. The estimated cost of construction work is $400,000. Plans call for a terra-cotta finish in modified Gothic style. The building will be one of the most imposing in Long Beach, according to the company officials.

REYNOLD BLIGHT TO SPEAK

Reynold E. Blight, prominent Mason, who formerly was the head of the Church of the People, will be the special speaker this evening at the Temple of Congregation B'nai B'rith, invitation to speak at the temple having been extended by Rabbi Edgar F. Magnin. At 10:30 a.m. tomorrow Dr. Sigmund Hecht will be in charge of the service and will give an address on the subject, "One Half of the World Knows Not How the Other Half Lives." The music will be under the direction of Harry Schenuit.

"One lee-tle drop too much, and it's spoiled. One lee-tle drop too little, and it's ruined." So says Otis Skinner as "Mister Antonio" in the Booth Tarkington play—as he drops—a drop at a time—the oil for his salad dressing.

And that's what every woman knows about making mayonnaise—knows that one little drop too little or too much may spoil or ruin her dressing. And that's why every woman will welcome

GOLD MEDAL Mayonnaise

Gold Medal, the perfect mayonnaise, is made just as mayonnaise is made in the best homes—new-laid eggs, the finest oil—the most piquant of seasoning—a home-made mayonnaise with none of the uncertainty, none of the trouble of being made in your home.

At dinner tonight—Stuffed Tomato Salad: Remove a thick slice from the stem end of six tomatoes. Remove inside of tomatoes, and let stand inverted ½ hour. Cut one stalk of celery into cubes and mix generously with Gold Medal Mayonnaise. Stuff tomatoes with this mixture, garnish with parsley, chill and serve on a bed of crisp lettuce.

Don't be a kitchen slav

Why hasten old age and ruin your complexion by day-in-and-day-out "pot-watching" over a hot stove?

It was bad enough when you had to do it. It's inexcusable, now that science has come to the rescue and provided a better way.

You owe it to yourself to investigate The Westgate Automatic Electric Cooking Cabinet—a really remarkable piece of labor-saving household equipment which cuts kitchen hours in half.

Fuel economy, elimination of food shrinkage, "Dutch Oven" flavor—these are Westgate features. But the most important thing about it is this: You put your food in when it pleases you; set a simple clock to turn the power on at a given time before needed—then forget it until dinner time.

CHURCH PLANS NEW BUILDING

Congregational Edifice Will Cost $500,000

Three-Unit Structure to be Built on Wilshire

Committee Launches Campaign for Funds

The Wilshire Congregational Church has launched a campaign for funds to erect a new church, according to an announcement made yesterday by Rev. Frank Dyer, pastor of the church.

Plans for the new edifice, which is to be located on the corner of Wilshire and Plymouth Boulevard, are being prepared by Architect Carleton Winslow. A perspective of the church has been submitted to the building committee.

The building, as planned, will be designed in an architectural style embodying features of both the Spanish and Colonial styles. The details are to be worked out in a free way to suit the immediate needs of the plan, and to express the particular purpose of the church.

THREE UNITS

It will be built in three units clustered about a patio. One unit is to be devoted to the social needs of the congregation, the second unit is to be the house of worship, and the third will contain the Sunday school departments.

At one corner of the unit set aside for worship, will be a stone figure of the Christ in supplicating attitude, calling all men to the worship of the Trinity. A broad doorway opens on Plymouth Boulevard, and over the doorway is to be a great rose window containing the figures of the twelve apostles. Surmounting the gable will be a golden cross, the symbol of the redemption.

The nave of the church is to have a seating capacity of 1000, which it will be possible to increase by opening sliding doors connecting the nave with a large hall adjoining it.

TO COST $500,000

The pulpit, to the left of the chancel, is to be directly in front of the communion table, which will be white, giving a silhouette effect as contrasted with the dark background of the choir stalls rising in tiers in the rear of the church. Set in the back wall is to be a great stained glass window depicting the life of the Christ. On either side of the window will be the masses of the organ cases.

A small chapel, designed for private ceremonies, will be connected with large church.

The three units will represent an investment of nearly $500,000.

The Wilshire Congregational Church, as planned, is to be a house of worship for all denominations. It will be affiliated with the Congregational Church, however.

TO IMPANEL JURY

Federal Body For January Term Starts Work Soon

The Federal grand jury for the January term of court will be impaneled by U. S. Dist. Judge Trippet, this morning. The following venire has been summoned to appear for six months' service:

James W. Babcock, Herbert B. Balmer, George E. Boynton, Bird Beebe, Hugh R. Biesbower, Samuel T. Bleming, E. H. Boden, Joseph S. Bushey, Robert C. Conant, Arthur Cooper, S. D. Crow, Edward Desieux, Harold G. Dewey, Willard Doran, C. Walter Fernholtz, Andrew H. Fisk, Frank Fry, Henry C. Garnett, William E. Hampton, John Hofert, Arthur Holzman, George Houser, George A. J. Howard, Joy B. Jacobs, Fred A. Kellogg, Will W. Knighten, Sam Kraemer, F. O. Lantz, George E. Little, Dean Mason, Lewis W. Morgan, Arthur F. Morlan, Cary W. Persons, Wilson Pierce, Ray Pierson, Hugh Plumb, George D. Robertson, Simpson M. Sinsabaugh, John Somers, Sherman Stevens, William B Stewart, Frank R. Strong, Harry H. Taylor, Eugene M. Tilden, Harry D. Vanderveer, John Francis White, Calvin Whiting, John P. Whitmore, Arthur D. Wood, and H. W. Yarick.

The body will be organized by the election of a foreman and secretary, but the old grand jury, that is still in existence, will continue its work closing up the July term. As the January term was continued only two weeks for this purpose, it will be necessary to get another extension.

GIGANTIC REVUE PLANNED

Scores of World-Famous People Will Come to Los Angeles for Monroe Doctrine Centennial Event

Seven counties of Southern California and the lower portion of the San Joaquin Valley, extending as far north as Fresno, will be given an opportunity to select a queen to reign for a day, to be set apart and advertised as her day, at the first annual American Historical Revue and Motion Picture Exposition, to be given in Exposition Park here next summer in commemoration of the one hundredth anniversary of the enunciation of the Monroe Doctrine.

The seven counties asked to select from their fairest daughters queens to preside at the Revue and Exposition on the days given over to feting each respective county are San Diego, Imperial, San Bernardino, Riverside, Orange, Ventura and Santa Barbara. The lower portion of the San Joaquin Valley is the eighth district from which a queen is to be chosen.

PRIZES ARE NAMED

The keenest competition is anticipated in this contest, for in addition to the honor attached to its winning a cash prize of $200 will be given the lucky girl elected queen in each of these eight districts. Prizes of $100 and $50 also will be given, respectively, to those who are second and third in each district.

Each queen may give a ball in honor of the interest of the district she represents. She also will be eligible for the grand prize of $500, competition for which is open to the winners of all classes, although the girl winning this grand prize will not be eligible for a class prize.

The queen of the premiere, or formal opening of the Revue and Exposition, will be chosen from within the motion-picture industry, since that industry is sponsoring the event. Those of the film industry who have subscribed for patron certificates will select the most popular motion-picture star. A great deal of rivalry among the various studios is expected in this contest.

QUEEN TO COMMAND

While the queen of the premiere will not be eligible for any of the cash prizes, she will be highly honored on the opening night. She will ride in state in the electrical parade on the eve of the premiere with her court she will accompany President Harding and other famous guests of the Revue and Exposition on a tour of inspection of exhibits and concessions; she will lead the grand march with the President or some other high dignitary at the stars' ball; she will press the electric button to ignite the opening bomb of a pyrotechnic display announcing to the world the opening of the great event, immediately after the President's proclamation; she will act as hostess at the Exposition breakfast immediately following, and will officiate at such other functions as may be added to the program.

Plans now are taking form for the operation of from three to seven transcontinental trains to bring theater owners from all parts of the United States. In addition to this, there will be a special train running from Washington to Los Angeles and return, via many of the principal cities of the United States, bringing to the premiere the Presidential party, Latin-American diplomats and the United States Marine Band. The event is expected to attract the greatest congregation of famous men and women that Southern California has ever seen.

Remarkable Tonic Brings New Strength to Thousands of Weak and Ailing

Discovery of Lyko, the Great General Tonic, Gives Aid of Science to Run-Down People

As you watch the crowd going along the street, how easy it is to see the difference in the people who make it up.

Some are well, strong, vigorous, full of the vim and energy that win in social and business life. Others are weak, emaciated, lacking in all that counts for power and success—mere nobodies in active affairs.

And yet most of these run-down people could quickly become well and strong if they would only help Nature to restore their bodies to a normal condition. What they need is an efficient general tonic and regulator. If they will do what thousands of other people once weak and lacking in energy—now strong and well—have done, they will use Lyko to get on their feet again.

It is simply amazing to read of the wonderful help Lyko has given to people who had become worn out in mind and body, many of them discouraged, hopeless of regaining their health and strength.

Mr. Johnson, a resident of Kansas City, was amazed at the way Lyko built up his run-down constitution. He says, "When I began taking Lyko I was thin and gaunt, weighed only 130 pounds, and felt a great lack of 'pep.' Now I weigh 147 pounds, am full of energy and never feel tired."

H. Jenkins, of Chicago, is another to whom Lyko has meant renewed strength and vigor. The following is from his letter: "My business keeps me closely confined to the office and at a desk all day long. As a result, my system became all clogged up, I was always tired, rested poorly at night and grew nervous and irritable. I began using Lyko and now I am in fine shape again, feel cheerful, and am able to do much more work without fatigue or nervous strain."

Mitchell Murray, of Missouri, sends a letter which says: "When I began to take Lyko I was so weak I could hardly walk across the room. Now I am able to do a pretty fair day's work, and my neighbors are amazed at the effect."

J. D. Miller of Chicago writes: "We have been using Lyko in our family and find it the best tonic for stomach and bowels we have ever used."

F. B. Barker of Florida is another who writes in praise of Lyko. He says: "My wife's health was all run down and she has greatly improved since taking Lyko."

Lyko is a scientific preparation containing pure medicinal ingredients each of which has a beneficial action on some part of the system. It has a mild but effective laxative action which gets rid of constipation. It also stimulates a lazy stomach to normal action and improves digestion so that the body absorbs the full strength from the food. As many ailments come from a disordered digestive system or from a clogged up condition of the bowels, Lyko helps to remove one of the great causes of discomfort and illness.

Certain ingredients in Lyko have a direct and beneficial action on the kidneys and liver; others give strength to the nervous system and prevent what is known as nervous fatigue and mental exhaustion. Practically every part of the body is helped to return to its full health and strength by Lyko. And a healthy body means physical and mental power, magnetic personality, the appearance that brings admiration and confidence.

If you are frail, weak, suffering from a "breakdown" or if you feel inactive, lacking in energy, unable to compete with active people, if you look and feel old, let Lyko give you new vim and vigor. Do not delay. Begin at once. Let Lyko do for you what it has done for so many others.

Lyko is sold by leading druggists. Ask your dealer for it.

A NEW American colony is being established in MEXICO under a unique plan, on the estate of Gen. Manuel Gonzales, deceased, former President of Mexico.

A farm of not less than ten acres and a lot in the city of Gonzales for $190, on terms of $10 monthly.

American neighbors, delightful climate, no frost; rich soil, ample rainfall, perfect drainage, good transportation, best markets, low taxes, perfect titles.

Salesmen, experienced or inexperienced, who desire to better themselves, are invited to attend our sales meetings, which are held every morning at 10 o'clock.

Liberal commissions and best office co-operation, including frequent lectures on Mexico. Attractive literature and alluring plan of sale.

GONZALES TOWNSITE COMPANY, 636 Van Nuys Bldg.

ARE YOU A $5000 MAN? Many a man is rocking along on a small salary when he is capable of earning more. Why? Because he has never had a chance to show what he can do. THAT IS THE MAN we are looking for. If you are a salesman, can furnish references and willing to work hard for success, we will take you in hand and train you in our method of selling. No boys or "has-beens" need apply. What we want is a REAL MAN who can handle a real proposition and will stick to the job. If you are that kind of a man, call between 9 and 5, or write FRANK P. COOPER, Fiscal Agent, 626-27-29-31 Consolidated Realty Bldg.

GOODS—For Sale, Exchange

WE WISH TO ANNOUNCE TO OUR PATRONS that we have just returned from GRAND RAPIDS and CHICAGO, where we have been attending the furniture exhibition, getting new ideas and buying furniture for the current year, which means that our customers will derive the benefit. Our buyer has been very conservative in selecting the latest designs and patterns. Best values in bedroom, dining and living-room furniture, davenport console and end tables, fancy hall and living-room chairs, bookcases, hall desks, floor lamps and standards, overstuffed parlor furniture, odd chairs, spinet desks, oriental, Wilton and chenille rugs. It will pay you to call and see our complete line of very fine household furnishings. Here you will find what you want whether the cheapest or most expensive. You will find it priced about half downtown prices.

RED HOT WILSHIRE SNAP.
$25,000 FOR $16,000

Here's an unbeatable bargain in a strictly modern, unusually well-built, 2-story 7-room Colonial home, located on an oversized corner in the midst of fine homes.

The living and dining-rooms are very spacious. You'll find sun and breakfast-rooms; dark oak ivory finish with walls tastefully decorated; a mighty convenient kitchen, maid's room and bath; upstairs are 3 very large, well-ventilated bedrooms and an elaborate tile bath. There's a good basement, a gas furnace, fireplace and garage.

The lot alone is easily worth $15,000 and in 3 years it can be used for a choice site for flats. The house is in excellent condition and worth not less than $10,000.

$16,000 takes it on easy terms. Owner will carry mortgage. Better act quickly. Call R. H. TORREY, Wil. 1464.

HOLLYWOOD—
For Sale, Ex., Wanted, To Let

HOLLYWOOD HILLS

This tract is located on the north side of Los Feliz Boulevard, between Vermont avenue and Western avenue, on a gentle sloping mesa, reaching from the boulevard north two thousand feet to Griffith Park.

It is the choicest part of the Hollywood foothill section and every improvement that money can buy is being installed.

It is approached by wide streets, on easy grades, paved and well lighted. Water, gas and sewer are all connected with each lot, making it unnecessary to cut the pavement for any purpose and saving the owner the cost of street connections for all public utilities.

All electric light and telephone wires are placed underground and connected with each lot, entirely eliminating all the poles from the tract.

The parkings are being planted to trees and flowers, and automatic sprinklers are being installed.

It is restricted for fifty years to single, private residences and with adjoining tracts with similar restrictions, covers a larger area than any other tract in Los Angeles.

Many beautiful residence districts have been spoiled by the erection of flats and duplex houses, across the street or in the immediate vicinity.

This cannot happen to Hollywood Hills. It is surrounded by restricted property, with Griffith Park adjoining it on the north.

The average size of lots is 15,000 square feet.

It cannot be crowded or closely built up.

The climatic conditions are the best in Los Angeles, owing to the elevation, the cool air settles on the lower ground giving a temperature in winter several degrees warmer than in the flat districts to the south, while in summer there is an unobstructed breeze over the tops of buildings and trees in the valley below, making the warm days much more pleasant. This difference will increase as the open spaces in the flat ground are built up and planted.

This elevated ground, overlooking Hollywood, can never have its view shut off or its ocean breezes obstructed by development below it. It is limited in extent and no more hills are being created.

If you are not ready to build now, select your lot, pay a small amount down, plant it and let your trees and shrubbery be growing while you are getting ready to build.

The terms are one-fifth down and balance in four equal payments, due in one, two, three and four years. 2 per cent discount for cash.

WM. MEAD, owner, 5125 Los Feliz Blvd. Tel. 597458.

ANGELENOS' MEXICAN OIL DEAL FAILS

Government's Refusal to Put Up Guarantees Results in Lapse of Agreement

Unable to obtain sufficient guarantees from the Mexican government to warrant the making of a deposit, the deal by which a group of Los Angeles capitalists were given permission to exploit public oil lands on the east coast of Mexico has fallen through.

The grant called for a deposit of 400,000 pesos before work should be done. In view of unsettled conditions in Mexico and the lack of a guarantee of protection, it was considered best to allow the agreement to lapse.

The region contains about 11,000,000 acres adjacent to Tampico and Tuxpam fields, which are being worked by several large American oil companies and is considered rich.

Local men interested in the grant are W. W. Wilson, John H. Coverly, Harry Lee Martin and Austin O. Martin.

Optometrists Honor Leader at Reception

Tribute was paid to Dr. Charles F. Prentice, noted optometrist, by members of the profession of Southern California at a banquet held last evening at Paulais on South Broadway. The affair was in the form of a reception to the officers of the California State Association of Optometrists and Dr. Prentice was the honored guest.

Dr. C. Howard Heard, president of the Los Angeles County Association of Optometrists, in his welcoming address introduced the visitor as "the grand old man of optometry."

Dr. Prentice outlined the growth of the profession for the past fifty years. He spoke on the educational work being carried on throughout the nation to acquaint the public with the importance of caring properly for the eyes and complimented Southern California optometrists on their efforts along this line.

Other speakers were Dr. Clark Monroe, who spoke on "Work of the League for the Conservation of Vision;" Dr. D. I. Dean, president of the California State Association of Optometrists, whose subject was "State Activities;" Dr. Glenn Winslow, who told of "Work in the Universities," and Dr. Ernest A. Hutchinson.

More than 150 members of the profession from all over the State attended the banquet.

TRIANGLE PAIR HELD

Fred Summers Bound Over Under Bond; Woman Given Week

The third act in the Summers-Brown triangular love-drama was played yesterday when Fred Summers was held to answer by Justice Follette under $3000 bail. Mrs. Dorothy Brown, codefendant with Summers, was given a week to arrange for the disposition of her three small children. The court indicated that she also will be bound over to the Superior Court.

Summers and Mrs. Brown were arrested on charges of grand larceny after they are asserted to have robbed Vincent Brown, the woman's husband, of $500 nad a valuable stickpin.

The robbery, according to the authorities, was engineered by the woman, who was separated from her husband. She is accused of luring her husband to a lonely spot where he is asserted to have been attacked and robbed by Summers, with whom Mrs. Brown is said to be infatuated.

GEN. MORTON REVIEWS CADETS AT HOLLYWOOD

He expressed himself as well pleased with the work of the cadet corps under he young officers, and pleased with the cadet band particularly.

The entire student body and faculty assembled in the bleachers surrounding the big parade ground in honor of the area commander.

DISCUSSION ON WAR DEBT ENDS

British Commission Leaving for London

Further Negotiations to be Through Embassy

Decision Really Hinges on English Cabinet

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—With the British government holding out for an interest rate of not more than 3 per cent and a liquidation period of sixty years and the United States refusing to yield so great a concession, the British Debt Commission departed for London today to report the situation to the Bonar Law ministry.

Upon leaving Washington Chancellor of the Exchequer Baldwin and Montagu Norman, governor of the Bank of England, stated that further negotiations would be conducted with the American government through Sir Auckland Geddes, the British Ambassador here.

If the British Cabinet should consent to a compromise on the points at issue satisfactory to the United States, President Harding would submit the agreement to Congress at this session with a view to procuring immediately a liberalization of the terms of the war debt refunding law, which provides for an interest rate of not less than 4¼ per cent and a payment period of twenty-five years.

DELAY POSSIBLE

If, however, Great Britain stands pat on its present attitude, it will be impossible to arrange the refunding until after the next Congress meets, which may not be until next December.

The outcome of the conference was not a surprise. Recent developments indicated that the British delegates had received instructions from Prime Minister Bonar Law definitely setting forth the proposals of the British government. It became evident that these were not acceptable to the American commission.

The chief point of difference was the rate of interest. The British delegates suggested an interest rate of 3 per cent and refused to go higher. The American commission was strongly opposed to so low a rate, taking the position that even if such a rate were recommended by the American commission in its report to President Harding, which will ask for liberalization of the debt-funding law, it would be voted down by Congress.

The Senate is overwhelmingly opposed to a rate as low as 3 per cent, but like the American commission, is ready to reduce the 4¼ per cent rate carried in the Debt Funding Act. The House of Representatives takes the same attitude.

Indications are that Congress is agreeable to lengthening the term of payment. The Americans proposed a term not in excess of forty or fifty years, while the British asked for a term of sixty years. No formal report will be made to President Harding until after negotiations with Ambassador Geddes are concluded.

These difference having developed, it became evident that further negotiations with the British government were inevitable, though Chancellor Baldwin, on the 8th inst., when the negotiations were begun, indicated that he and Norman had what amounted virtually to plenary powers. At that time, Chancellor Baldwin said: "We are here to arrange the terms of the payment of the British debt to the United States."

The members of both the American and British commissions are hopeful that a settlement will be made soon. An official of the American commission expressed this view immediately after today's conference, stating that there was nothing that should stand in the way of a complete understanding and that there was reason to hope that an agreement "in principle" could be reached in time for submission to Congress at its present session.

INTEREST IS QUESTION

It is expected that the position of the British Cabinet will be outlined to Ambassador Geddes immediately after report to it has been made by Chancellor Baldwin and Mr. Norman. Chancellor Baldwin, however, thinks that the British Cabinet will be slow to agree to a rate of interest in excess of 3 per cent and if this should prove to be the case, it seems clear that the negotiations will be of a prolonged character.

In a formal statement, Secretary of the Treasury Mellon, as chairman of the American commission, said that the terms of settlement had been considered at great length and progress made toward a mutual understanding. Negotiations, he said, had reached the point where the British government desired Chancellor Baldwin and Norman to return to London and discuss with it verbally the American view.

Ambassador Geddes having been selected to conduct further negotiations, it is not expected that the British commission will return to America for further discussion of the subject. Denial was made that there was any deadlock, or that the difference of views are insurmountable.

BANDITS HOLD UP OIL DRILLER

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

LONG BEACH, Jan. 18.—Posing as officers, two highwaymen held up J. P. Miller, an oil driller employed in the Signal Hill field, on the Silverspray Pier before daylight today. Miller had only $3, and the bandits refused to take it, the victim told police today.

Neither of the highwaymen displayed a weapon, he said, but one held his hand in an overcoat pocket and intimated that the hand held a weapon. Police have been furnished with a description of the pair.

TRADESMEN URGE STATE REDIVISION

Commerce Chamber Seeking Early Reapportionment; Telegraph Governor

Strongly reiterating its previous stand on reapportionment, directors of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce yesterday adopted resolutions urging prompt action by the Legislature in accordance with the Constitution.

The resolution says in part that "we respectfully, but earnestly urge that members of the Senate and Assembly may have opportunity to discharge their full and unquestioned duty to the State and their respective districts by the adoption of a reapportionment act, in accordance with the Constitution and laws of the State of California."

Telegrams vigorously expressing this sentiment were sent yesterday afternoon to Gov. Friend W. Richardson and to Southern California representatives in the Legislature. All the pressure possible will be brought to bear on the administration to bring about a fair and impartial legislative act that will give due representation to all sections of the State.

It is expected that the action of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce will be followed throughout Southern California. Already a number of commercial organizations in this section have the matter under consideration and it is the intention of these bodies to keep these subjects alive until legislative action is obtained.

The telegram sent to the Governor yesterday follows: "Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce through its board of directors desires to again emphatically renew its plea that reapportionment of the State of California be had at the earliest possible moment in accordance with Constitution. May we not urge your co-operation?"

Cafeteria Head Is Arrested on Cook's Charges

O. A. Olin, manager of the Union Cafeteria, 428 South Spring street, was arrested yesterday by Deputy Constable McCullom on a charge of violating the Corporate Securities Act and obtaining money under false pretenses. It is asserted he sold $500 worth of cafeteria stock to a cook, to whom employment was promised. The proprietor of another cafeteria was sent to San Quentin recently on a similar charge.

The same constable arrested William A. Yoe, said to be a stock broker, on a charge of embezzling $1500 from H. W. Huntzinger. At the time of his arrest, Yoe was at a local hotel. Another prisoner of Constable McCullom's was Jack Lemond, a race-horse driver, charged with embezzling $650. All three prisoners were committed to jail in default of bail.

FIND BODY ON TRACKS

Man Apparently Failed to See Train; Identity Sought

The mangled body of an unidentified man was taken from the railroad tarcks on Alhambra avenue between Workman and Sichel streets, yesterday evening and removed to John R. Paul's undertaking parlors, 2629 North Broadway. He apparently had sought to cross the tracks without seeing an approaching train. The victim was middle-aged and appeared to be a laborer. Lincoln Heights police are seeking to have the body identified.

OFFICERS ELECTED

Dr. E. D. Jones Named President Of Adventurers' Club

Dr. Edward Douglas Jones last night was elected president of the Adventurers' Club at a meeting at the City Club. E. Mason Crawford was selected first vice-president, DeWitt W. Reaburn, second vice-president; Dr. E. P. Bailey, secretary; and Capt. Charles A. Meyer, treasurer. After the election of officers the club was addressed by E. Marshall Sanderson, Long Beach newspaper man. Fifty members were present.

HEART ATTACK FATAL TO WOMAN AT HARBOR

An attack of heart disease was fatal last night to Mrs. Alice Green, 55 years of age, 371 Amar street, Los Angeles Harbor. Mrs. Green was walking through the business district at the harbor when she first was seized with the attack. She is said to be a former resident of Council Bluffs, Iowa.

EX-WIFE OF FILM STAR SUES AGAIN

Legal Action Threatened Incident to Hasty Mexican Marriage

Mrs. Olivia Burrell Gilbert intends to invoke legal aid to obtain a post-divorce property settlement from Jack Gilbert, Fox film luminary, Howard B. Henshey, Mr. Gilbert's attorney, revealed last night. And this despite the fact she assertedly collected a similar settlement of $5000 under a divorce decree which became final last month, the attorney declares.

Recently Mr. Gilbert tentatively agreed to pay his former wife $225 a month in order to escape publicity incident to a revelation of his Mexican marriage to Leatrice Joy, motion-picture star, before his interlocutory divorce decree became final, Mr. Henshey says.

Mrs. Gilbert's attorneys, Neil S. McCarthy and Milton M. Cohen, Mr. Henshey charges, threaten legal action if the tentative $225 monthly agreement is not inserted in the final divorce decree in lieu of the $5000 Mrs. Gilbert received under her original complaint of desertion. According to the attorney, Mrs. Gilbert has collected the $5000 awarded her by the court in monthly payments of $150, the last of which was made by Mr. Gilbert several months ago.

The Gilberts were divorced in December, 1921. Shortly afterward Miss Joy and Mr. Gilbert were maried in Mexico. They lived together until another Mexican marriage, the across-the-border nuptials of Rodolph Valentino and Natasha Rambova, demonstrated that such weddings were productive of bigamy charges. Then they separated.

Miss Joy is now in New York City. Her second marriage to Mr. Gilbart is scheduled to take place shortly after her return to Los Angeles in the near future, it is asserted.

CITY PLANS FREE DRUG TREATMENT

Fund of $5000 Recommended to Give Narcotic Addicts Chance

One hundred narcotic addicts now in custody at the Lincoln Heights Jail will receive their chance for regeneration today after the Finance Committee's recommendation that $5000 be expended in their behalf, is passed by the City Council.

Decision to recommend the appropriation of this sum was made yesterday, and credit for the humane innovation in city government is due largely to City Jailer John Shand, who has urged consistently that the city provide a cure for worthy addicts.

Jailer Shand has chosen from the 152 addicts in cusody at Lincoln Heights Jail 100 who pleaded earnestly for their chance to "come back," an dwhom he believes are worth reforming.

Yesterday three former prisoners, who were addicts and who took a course of treatment, appeared before members of the Finance Committee, who were impressed favorably by their stories.

The cures will be administered free of charge by Drs. Weddell and Downer, who have volunteered their services, and the $5000, when appropriated, will be used to purchase the necessary medicines. The cure takes thirty-two days, and is permanent, according to the testimony of the three former addicts, who declared that the craving for drugs was banished absolutely.

DAYTON-NEW YORK AIR RECORD BROKEN

AVIATOR TAKES ADVANTAGE OF WIND AND CUTS TIME NEARLY HALF HOUR

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Jan. 18. — Lieut. Alex Pearson and Bradley Jones today broke the time record for an airplane flight between Dayton and New York, landing at Mitchell Field, Long Island at 4:29 p.m., unofficial time, making the distance in 4h., 3 m. The previous time was 4h., 30m.

Lieut. Pearson, who piloted a DS-4 plane, said he had taken advantage of a southwesterly gale which had prevailed throughout the trip. Official clocks at the field registered 4:32 p.m., but Pearson's watch showed 4:29 p.m.

CZAR'S JEWELS IN GRAVE

Smuggled Into America on Army Transport and Buried in Grave of Seaman Dying on Vessel

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

NEW YORK, Jan. 18.—That jewels from the late Russian Czar's household, worth at least $1,000,000 actually, were smuggled into America on the U.S.S. Edellyn in 1920 was confirmed today by customs house officials. At the same time it was disclosed that the grave in which the jewels have since been buried in Brooklyn will be opened soon.

While a squad of soldiers continue to guard the grave of James Jones, seaman, who died aboard the Edellyn off the Azores in the summer of 1920, and in whose coffin the smugglers are reported to have hidden the jewels, the operatives of the Treasury Department interrogated two seamen who were on the Edellyn when it made its nine months' trip around the world. The two men, it was learned, were present when one of the smugglers opened a chamois bag and strewed the precious jewels on an open steamer blanket in a passenger's cabin.

It has been learned officially that the jewels were exhibited in the presence of a dozen persons aboard the Edellyn, a customs official admitted this afternoon. "It was even remarked by one of the jewel carriers that they were destined for sale in America.

One man questioned by Treasury Department agents several days ago admitted he attempted to steal the gems shortly after they were exhibited. A series of conspiracies among groups of those who saw the jewelry followed, it is related, but one of the smugglers hid the jewelry effectively.

The Edellyn, on its homeward voyage from Vladivostok, took on a storm battalion of Czecho-Slovakian troops who fought under Gen. Wrangle against the Reds. The troops debarked at Trieste after crossing the Pacific, passing through the Panama Canal and over the Atlantic to Italy. On the voyage eastward from Trieste Jones died and it is reported the jewelry was hidden in his casket soon afterward.

It was reported today Jones's grave at Cypress Hills Cemetery, Brooklyn, will be opened within a week because of the new evidence showing the jewelry actually was on the Edellyn when the body was brought aboard the transport bound for America.

BATTLE FLEET TO REMAIN HERE

Capt. Dickins Gives "Y" Men Assurance

Officer Says He Speaks for Admiral Ebert

Association Asked to Have Harbor Branch

Los Angeles Harbor will remain the base of the United States battle fleet for an indefinite period and there is no probability of its ever being removed to San Francisco, Capt. Curtis H. Dickins, chief captain of the fleet, told the directors of the Los Angeles Young Men's Christian Association yesterday at a luncheon at the port.

Capt. Dickens made a strong plea for the establishment at the harbor of an Army and Navy Y.M.C.A. sufficiently large to accommodate the 22,000 soldiers and sailors stationed here.

"There is no place at San Francisco to base the battle fleet," Capt. Dickins said, "and on every visit paid to the Golden Gate we lose from one to three men overboard. All men going ashore at San Francisco in small boats must wear life belts on account of the dangerously rough water of San Francisco Bay. Ninety per cent of the enlisted personnel of the fleet favor Los Angeles as the base.

Capt. Dickins said he was speaking for Admiral Ebert and announced that the commander-in-chief wants to keep the fleet at this base.

"More Navy men go ashore on liberty at the Fifth-street landing here in one month," he continued, "than over any two landings on the Atlantic Coast in an entire year. The establishment of a service Y.M.C.A. at the harbor would greatly lessen the work of fleet chaplains in the Los Angeles police courts."

Secretary of the Navy Edwin Denby, in a private dispatch to a friend at the port, yesterday declared that the possible transfer of the submarine base to San Diego would not result in the shifting of the battle fleet base.

"The Rodman board recommendation would have no effect on the peace-time activities of the battle fleet except that incident to the transfer of the submarine base," Secretary Denby said.

The local submarine base will be the center of all naval activities during the absence of the battle fleet on the Pan-American cruise this winter. In the event the base were removed to San Diego, the transfer would not be effected until after July 1, base authorities state.

POSTOFFICE WORKER IS HELD UNDER BAIL

Edward O. Augustine, for more than twenty years a clerk in the Los Angeles Postoffice, was arraigned before U. S. Commissioner Long yesterday, accused of overcharging patrons of Station C, at the intersection of Ninth and Olive streets, for packages of stamps and using canceled stamps.

It is declared that Augustine has been operating for a long time, but he says he worked the game for six weeks and accumulated about $25. His bond was fixed at $2000, which was furnished.

"CURB HOGGING" IS UNDER BAN

Gas Station Driveways Now Are Limited to Thirty Feet

The Board of Public Works has come to the rescue of motorists by stopping the practice of gasoline stations appropriating parking space for driveways.

Hereafter driveways not exceeding thirty feet wide may be constructed in any one location. The board directed the City Engineer to handle applications accordingly.

With the new restrictions on parking in the congested district, every foot of available curb is becoming more and more valuable, the board thought, and decided it was time to curb hogging of the curb.

Former Leader in Local Club Circles Buried

Word of the recent death and burial of Mrs. Clara Fisher, prominent in literary and art circles of Los Angeles twenty years ago, was given out yesterday by Mrs. John L. Goodman, a sister, of Palms. Mrs. Fisher died more than two weeks ago in a California sanatorium where she had gone in search of rest, after a nervous breakdown as the result of excessive study. She was in her sixty-second year.

Mrs. Fisher came to California in 1873 from Farmersville, Ill., and had resided here continuously for half a century. She was a member of the Ruskin Art Club and of the Friday Morning Club, and a close friend of Ella Wheeler Wilcox.

She is survived by two sisters and three brothers. They are Mrs. Goodman of Palms, Miss Ada Tullis of Los Angeles, Oliver G. Tullis of Santa Monica, William B. Tullis of Coldwater Canyon and Charles Tullis of Sherman, Cal. Interment was in Rosedale Cemetery.

Pacific Colony May Substitute for Norwalk

The Pacific Colony for Feeble-Minded Children near Pomona, which went out of existence last Monday, is being considered in the light of a substitute institution for the Norwalk Hospital plant, according to dispatches from Sacramento yesterday.

The Norwalk Hospital location is no longer regarded as fit for its purpose, it is said, because of oil development in that territory, and plans are being discussed for moving inmates that wells may be sunk.

Operation of the Pacific Colony plant never has been extensive. One reason advanced is that the water supply has not been adequately developed. Legislators and officials believe that this deficiency can be remedied. No specific reason for closing down the institution was advanced, other than the large cost per capita of inmates, who numbered only thirty.

Damages Denied Under Workmen Insurance Act

Ruling that the provisions of the Workmen's Compensation Insurance and Safety Act, a State legislative enactment, deprives the appellants of the right to recover damages against a corporation for the death of a minor son, injured while in the employ of the organization, the District Court of Appeal yesterday affirmed a former judgment of the Superior Court in favor of the Los Angeles Gas and Electric Company.

The case, tried in Judge Burnell's division of the court, was an action brought by Harold and Loretta Treat against the lighting and power company. Damages were asked by the parents upon the ground that they were in a measure dependent upon the earnings of their son.

The Appellate Court decided that the trial court had ruled correctly in denying the plea for damages.

Raid Nets Huge Lot of Liquor; Weapons Found

Arrested by Chief of Police Thompson of San Fernando, assisted by officers from the Lincoln Heights station under Sergt. Vary, Frank Macchio yesterday was lodged in the City Jail on a charge of manufacturing moonshine liquor.

He was arrested recently in San Fernando on a similar charge and fined $150 by Judge Schwinger.

Following the second raid fourteen barrels of wine, five jugs of five gallons each, also containing wine, and several gallons of whisky were taken into the Lincoln Heights Police Station.

In addition to the liquor confiscated, several guns with a large quantity of ammunition was found in the house, which is about three miles north of San Fernando in the Sylmar olive grove.

The San Fernando Chief is declared to have said that Macchio offered him $200 in currency if he would "go away and let the matter rest." According to Chief Thompson, the offer was made in the presence of several other policemen.

NEW FLAGSHIP EXPECTED

"Seattle" Likely to Carry Colors of Admiral Hilary P. Jones While in Eastern Waters

The old armored cruiser Seattle, now completing a lengthy period of reconditioning at the navy yard at Puget Sound, likely will become the administrative flagship of the United States Fleet, according to information received at the local fleet base.

The duty of the Seattle, which has been out of commission since the war, has been the subject of much speculation in naval circles. She was mentioned at first to succeed the cruiser Huron as flagship of the Asiatic fleet and later as the flagship of the scouting fleet train.

The Seattle, in the event she goes to the East Coast, will carry the four-starred flag of Admiral Hilary P. Jones, commander-in-chief of the United States Fleet, while he is in eastern waters. The superdreadnaught Maryland, at present flagship of the fleet, will under the new arrangement, serve as tactical flagship only and will be stationed with the other units of the battle fleet at Los Angeles.

When Admiral Jones comes to the Pacific Coast next spring upon the completion of the Panama maneuvers, however, his headquarters probably will be on the superdreadnaught Pennsylvania, it was said on the flagship California. The Maryland, the Navy's newest battleship, is scheduled to return to the East Coast for machinery alterations before coming here for permanent station.

The Seattle is expected to be commissioned at Bremerton about April 5. She will be manned by the officers and crew of the old battleship Connecticut, just relieved as flagship of the base force.

A report that Capt. George L. P. Stone, commander of the Connecticut, would come here as the next commander of the Los Angeles Harbor Submarine Base could not be confirmed yesterday. A new chief of the base underwater fleet is expected to be named within the month, however.

The eight R-type submarines of Operative Division Nine, which will accompany the battle fleet to Panama, already have moved out in the stream alongside the mother ship Camden. The giant divers all are reconditioned and supplied in preparation for their 3000-mile cruise, which begins February 5.

Lift Out Your Corns

ICE-MINT

THE NEW DISCOVERY ENDS ALL

Foot Troubles

This new discovery, made from a Japanese product is certainly a wonder the way it draws out inflammation from a pair of swollen, burning, aching feet. It takes the soreness right out, then the corn or callous shrivels and lifts off.

Hard corns, soft corns or corns between the toes, just shrivel up and lift off so easy. It is wonderful. Just think! Not one bit of pain while applying Ice-mint or afterwards. It doesn't even irritate the surrounding skin.

You will never have to cut a corn again and run the risk of blood poison. Say good-by to your old corn salve, plasters and bundling tape for that pet corn of yours is sure to be a "goner" if it ever feels the magic touch of Ice-mint.

It imparts such a delightful, soothing, cooling feeling to the feet that you will sigh with relief.

Ice-mint is the real Japanese secret for fine, healthy little feet. It prevents foot odors and keeps them sweet and comfortable. It is greatly appreciated by women who wear high heel shoes.

Just ask in any drug store for a little Ice-mint and give your poor, suffering tired, swollen feet the treat of their lives. It costs little and there is nothing better.

DIABETES

A new treatment for Diabetes has been found which is meeting with great success. Physicians who have thoroughly tested this medicine in hospitals and private practice report very remarkable results. Hundreds of sufferers who have used it testify to its great restorative and tonic action in even the most distressing cases. In many cases a decided improvement is noticed in a surprisingly short time. It is a medicine made from simple herbs discovered in the tropics, which seem to be provided by nature for relief in this malady.

Physicians in the past have relied almost entirely upon strict dieting, which retarded the formation of sugar but usually resulted in great weakness and a feeling of hopelessness.

A medicine that builds up the patient, reduces sugar and causes a marked improvement in so short a time, in most cases, is surely a great blessing to those who had no hope of relief.

This tropical medicine called "Diabetol" will soon be on sale at the best drug stores, but may be procured direct from the distributors. Every sufferer from Diabetes should be informed regarding the Diabetol treatment which has already brought relief and comfort to so many homes.

A booklet of scientific information on Diabetes, dieting and different food values, also reports, proving the curative value of this medicine, is sent free.
